GIRLS ON THE STREETS. SOCIAL NOTES

Bend an ear, Girls... we're on the pan we've just began to realize the scarceness of men. Or used-to-be packed-avenue is fading out... Uncle Sam is taking the best of everything... and looking at the situation: when he has finished we are gonna wake up "men-lesser." Oh! unhappy day.

It's good to talk to you hen cats (that's left) and hep chicks (that's heartbroken) once again. It's been quite awhile since we chatted together. Lots to gab about.

Who knows? Your cat might be in that number of "goners". We received a very "hep" letter from that Jitterbug, Oliver Hodges, who is now a Private in Alabama. "Chuck the Duck" who had a hundred dollar farewell party in the Blue House a couple of weeks ago, left Wednesday. Poor Maggie—Uncle Sam takes all she gets. A. D. Mecham left with the Saturday group.

If we take up time to say goodby to all of the boys that's gone and going we won't have time to gab. So—Down Choc. Avenue... Cruizing in a fine maroon car with Mr. B. G. we spotted Nina Pearl Shaw—well hepped chic from Kansas City formerly of Dallas, Tex., visiting her cousins, Charlott, Dorothy and Marion Lawson.

E. D. should have heard her tell D. P. that she was a nurse. W. D. P. said, "That's fine—I'm a doctor!" So naturally a nurse and doctor knows what to talk about.

To our great surprise we was glad to see the former Betty Jean Butler, now Mrs. Denafin Mackey, back from California—She looked like someone out of Hollywood's latest vogue. She's draped to a solid peg. Dig those fine fashions she brought back for Omaha to gaze at.

Meanwhile John Booth former Omahan now living in Chicago, sent for his sister, Alberta. She left the gay avenue Sunday to get to that Windy City Chika.

Don't worry about "Jeff" the soda boy at the Grant Street Drug Store. Bob Floyd picks up on his daily chores and Jeff left or is supposed to be in Oklahoma City.

Across from the Tuxedo— Thanks to the new tamale joint— at last the old name has been wiped off the window and forgotten about and once again the place is open for business. Oh! Happy Day.

With a little cooperation that new soldier recreation place can really get to be famous. Let's not overlook it, Chiss.

Handsome Joe Baymon, from Fort Worth, Tex., had visiting him last week, his sister. She must have had a great time from what I can hear from these cats.

Let's not forget to (race) drive slowly to Bennington, Nebr., Sunday to that picnic one ever miss. You can bet—everyone that goes, always have a "high" time.

Meddling a bit: but we wonder if Lola W. has really given Mac up for "Mitch." If so, what's Florence going to do when she gets back.

Dog Mack's car is being seen quite frequently on 27th Ave and Grant. What's it to us? We're just meddling.

Does Gene Harrison's being with Dortha Smith mean anything or is it just—that dear old friendship. Maybe Lauerne and Mac could tell us? No!

Does Spencer Jacobs really mean to take over when C. W. leaves for the army or was he just sounding.

Is "Boogery" actually going with two chicks in Omaha when he has one steady back in Minnesota? It's a rumor? O. K.

Is Russel Rudd really in love with Evelyn or is there a chic (Doris Ware) in Minnesota that keeps him buying train tickets.

Joe Wright has at last really put Bertha D. in his plain friendship book of used to be's and is now buzzing his happy words to the new chic from Oklahoma, who is here to attend University of Omaha this fall. Thee lick.

Compliments Heard: A certain chic told me about a week ago that she was liking George Terrell awfully well, her name is G. B.

A certain chic said: That Raymond from Minnesota was very cute—he looks like Preston Love. (She's kinda worried about why he likes to sit on Neomi Downs porch every single day.)

A studd was complimenting Doris Pittman and Bryce D's. ability to look so fine in their clothes.
That packing house picnic at Elmwood Park, Tuesday night, was really the lick! Wasn't it Jesse McClenton!

Knowing everyone will be seeing Hines the 20th and Hunter's cats the 24th of this month.

Speaking of music - - - That Bicycle Bounce seems to be all ree. Knock Me a Kiss by Erskin Hawkins is also ree. Earl Hines will also have some more fine pieces.

Corrinne Seay who left to visit her sister, Claudia, in Cleveland, Ohio, will return shortly with Claudia to once again rejoin old friends along Bronzville.

According to the Sunday school picnic Adalphia K. is keeping Kappell Curtis from getting lonesome for C. S.

On 24th and Lake Street we spotted and gazed upon Joe Lambert, former Omahan who now lives in California. Maybe he was reporting to Local Draft Board. No doubt!

That's all this week—Yore girls on the street.
Mrs. C. Payne of New London, Conn., was guest of Mrs. Ardina Watson, 2718 No. 28 Ave., last week. Mrs. Watson had a lovely breakfast party in honor of Mrs. Payne and Mrs. McFarmer of Chicago, Ill., guest of Mrs. Venus Pace.

ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. E. F. Ridley, Pastor
Ruly B. Reese, Reporter
St. John was honored with a marvelous sermon delivered by Rev. T. S. Webster, who was guest speaker at the morning services. The Junior Choir rendered the music at both services at the third Sunday in young people's day. And their sweet voices filled the auditorium with delightful music. Those who united with the church are as follows: Mrs. Anna R. Davis, Mrs. Goldie Barnes, Frank Swanigan, Mrs. P. Perkins, Louise Perkins, Mrs. Rachel G. Woods, Ralph Adam, Mrs. Mildred Willis and William Cunningham, Jr. If you are approached by a lady, don't turn her away for she is busy helping St. John to make the first Sunday in September a big day, that is Woman's Day. In the morning there will be a woman speaker, in the evening there will be a pageant called "The Woman of the Bible". Well, the brick rally is doing nicely but we still need more bricks. If you don't have any bricks, you may give the money in which to buy your share of bricks. This coming Sunday night the fourth Sunday, is request program. Let everyone come out and hear your request. At our evening services Rev. Oliver Butler delivered a very good sermon. The visitors who worshipped with us are: Mrs. Johnnie James of Snider, Tex.; Miss Helen Brown, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Gregg, Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Z. Edden and Mrs. Robt. Rudd of Hill Side Presbyterian Church; Miss Lucille Wyott, Poplar Bluff, Mo.; Mrs. Anna Smith former member of St. John's and Mrs. Tobin both of Des Moines, Ia.; Mrs. Brice, Nashville, Tenn.; mother of S. Edward Gilbert; Mrs. Longus, Marshall Town, Ia.; niece of Mrs. Anna Burton; Mrs. Jeanette Shook, former member of St. John's from Kansas. Come to church Sunday.

Sunday nights text, "A Fixed Heart". Everyone is welcome to worship with us anytime.

FIRST MISSION OF GOD SENT LIGHT
Pastor, Prophet Hess

Our pastor preached a wonderful sermon Sunday evening. It was food for our soul. It gave each and every one something to think about. Sunday was "examination" night. Were we all that we pretended to be? You can hide from man but not from God. Our Saviour is calling for true Christians. It is cleaning up time now. Let us all take heed before it is too late. We had a wonderful congregation, Sunday.
Our pastor is leaving town on a short vacation. Service will be continued as usual. Every one is welcome. Our church is your church. No discrimination. Sunday evening—Service, 8:00. Monday—Developing class, 8:30 to 10:30. Tuesday—Healing service, 8:00. Thursday—Preaching—Readings, 8:00.
May God Bless You All.
