WORLD'S MOST VALUABLE BULL CALF

CARNATION, WASHINGTON—This handsome little black and white bull calf, Yankee Doodle Dandy, most valuable calf in the world, was born recently on the Carnation Milk Farm near Seattle.

Along the avenue we see That the old "Tuxedo" which use to be a place for the cats to gas their wigs is now strictly a lady's beauty parlor.

Herthwood Hicks seem to be the lady's man, he was standing up in the Lake Street Bowling Alley surrounded by chicks.

Maggie Johnson's heart is no doubt going on uneven beats since Charlie Williams is back. We noticed two stripes and a star on his sleeves.

Happy landing to Monrovia Murrell!!! Who has been on furlough from the Navy. He is wearing the signal of a second class officer.

Dear Mothers: How well I know The bitter tears of sorrow—That shall flow. When the hour shall come. To say good bye to your dear son. For the day my son left—I was as one bereft.

He walked proud and erect. His every gesture I'll ne'er forget. And when we reached the gate. Our sad good bye to take. We both in that sad hour. Felt the sting of war's cruel power.

It was only through His grace, I had the strength to face. The trying hour to come. And say good bye to my Dear Son.
