EMERALD STUDDED PIN FOR 30 YEARS SERVICE

Gallons of ink were used by himself and one other man to write the customer service bills by hand 30 years ago. Joe Pechac, 3221 Webster Street, recalled Thursday when he received an emerald-studded pin for 30 years service with the Nebraska Power company's accounting department.

The rate for electricity furnished to Omaha homes in 1913 was 14 cents a kilowatt-hour compared with an average of less than 4 cents today. Customer billing now is handled by 38 employees of the customer accounting department and expedited by electrically-operated billing machines.

Pechac is one of thirteen employees to receive service awards this month. In the past 30 years he has held several accounting department positions, and is now stores ledger clerk.

Twenty year service pins were presented by the company to Joseph A. Connor, 3322 Charles Street, stor

IMMUNIZATION—Auxiliary Bernice Lockhart, Hot Springs, Ark., is getting her anti-tetanus injection at the infirmary at the First Women's Army Auxiliary Corps Training Center at Fort Des Moines, Iowa. All Auxiliaries coming into the Corps are given immunization against tetanus, typhoid fever and small pox as part of their processing in order to insure continued health for all members of the WAAC.

KEEPER OF THE FLAME

Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn

who were first paired together by MGM in "Woman of the Year" Who are together again by popular request in "Keeper of the Flame!"

"Keeper of the Flame" revolves around a great public figure and the almost mystic worship that he is given!

But it takes the expert sleuthing of Spencer Tracy as a famous reporter to uncover the amazing truth about his private life!

"Keeper of the Flame" is a great picture—in every sense of the word! In its splendid settings—in the masterly establishment of a mood—in the finished portrayal of the characters—in the drama of its story!

MGM has transferred Donald Ogden Stewart's screenplay, based upon I. A. R. Wylie's important novel, to the motion picture screen with great fidelity to the powerful story.

George Cukor, who directed "Keeper of the Flame", went into the service of Uncle Sam as a private immediately thereafter.

Just as everyone in America is serving his country to the limit of his abilities!

Madam, here's one TABOO you can forget when you want relief

You can thank your lucky stars that women are no longer squeamish about discussing their troubles. Otherwise you might never know of the 2-way help that CARDUI may bring when nervousness, headaches and cramp-like pain are due only to periodic functional causes. Many women find that started three days before the time and taken as directed, CARDUI aids in relieving functional periodic discomforts. Used as a tonic, CARDUI often wakes up sleepy appetites, aids digestion by increasing the flow of gastric juices, and thus helps to build up resistance against the days it's needed most. Try it!
