

FISK PROFESSOR ENDORSES BROWN'S ARTICLE

In his address Dr. Weatherford said, "I thought Pearl Harbor would have unified us...and on the surface it did for there was a lot of talk at first about a solid front...but under the surface there was a lot of cross currents. There was not complete unity in any way, racially, ethnically or religiously. A large percentage of Negroes are native born. Up to date they have not been given all the rights of citizenship. "Privilege against class causes friction and tension. Wherever there is oppression we will have a resurgence of the common man. It would be wise if we lifted the pressure so that every man has a chance. There is no sound, unbiased, balanced judgement in the south. The white man is not willing to concede that the Negro could achieve.

Dr. Weatherford stated that his talk was not all against the white people, that he was reserving some thing for "my Negro friends." To qualify for his following statements he then said that he subscribed to 46 Negro papers and read them all.

"After reading these papers I am forced to conclude that one can't believe everything one sees in newspaper. The Negro press is preaching race hatred. They are little more than propaganda sheets peaching disunity. You should read Warren Brown's article in a magazine. He is one of them and should know. No paper that preaches race hatred is a lover of country, whether it is white or black.

Concluding his speech, he said that "the only hope for the south is for each race to have faith and confidence in one another. We must all cultivate respect of people, forget we are unlike and that we should be more like, forget our false differences and believe all men can make progress. Love is good and if we practiced it we might demonstrate to the world that we could live together without friction."

Dr. Weatherford, a white man, for some 20 years was a traveling and organizing secretary for the student YMCA work and for a similar period of time was president in the south. He is listed among the leading educators of the country. Following his speech he was entertained at the YWCA by members of the Fisk alumni at a dinner.

Following his address, Dr. Weatherford was interviewed by this reporter. Asked if Negro papers really preach race hate or merely recorded it when and where it was found, he replied that "some of them do but the majority preach race hate." In reply to whether Negro papers should print acts of injustices and discrimination against the race, he said he thought they should but not to stress it "too vehemently."

Further questioning revealed Dr. Weatherford thought the Negro press, by spotlighting incidents against Negro morale, had helped in a small measure to ameliorate some of these conditions. He also believed there was some good in the weekly papers.

NASHVILLE BROADCAST TELLS ADVANCE

NASHVILLE, Feb. 22 (ANP)—A nation-wide broadcast Sunday morning from Station WLAC of this city heralded achievements of Negroes in the educational and scientific fields. Dr. M. S. Davage, nationally known educator, secretary in charge of the 16 institutions of learning for Negroes maintained by the Methodist church, played a leading part in the dramatic script. With him was Dr. H. D. West, professor of physiological chemistry of Meharry college, noted as a research chemist and author of several pamphlets. Two medical students in Meharry, Joseph Togba, a citizen of Liberia, is specializing in tropical diseases preparatory to working among his people. Miss Sanders is preparing for a life work as a missionary nurse in Portugal West Africa.

In rehearsing the service of Negroes in the war effort, Dr. Davage paid tribute to Robert H. Brooks of Kentucky, first war casualty of the United States armed forces, killed in the Philippines Dec. 8, 1941, whose name was given the drill field at Fort Knox.

In "The Meanest Man in the World" Rochester a Benny are in business as usual. Benny is boss, and Rochester is his gentleman's gentleman. And, if Rochester steals a scene here and there, it's all the same to Jack. He steals a few from Rochester!

The professional relationship between Benny and Rochester is a landmark in the history of the entertainment world, and a tribute to Benny's astuteness. Contrary to the general custom, Benny goes all out in building up his "stooges"—or is "entourage" a better word? Unlike most comedians, Benny does not hog the jokes. To the contrary, he goes to the other extreme, and throws most of the gags to his company. More often than not, Benny is the butt of a gag.

Rochester will soon be seen in MGM's all colored version of "Cabin in the Sky" with Ethel Waters and Lena Horne lending their talents to the picture.

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYERS THE LIONS ROAR. Published in this space every week. The greatest star of the screen!

Polish up those "Golden Slippers!" Let them take you straight to "Cabin In The Sky!"

A heavenly picture with beautiful music supplied by such archangels of song as Ethel Waters and Lena Horne, an enticing bit of personality with a new way of singing some brand new songs!

Eddie "Rochester" Anderson who supplies much of the humor. He is also responsible for many of the problems that beset Ethel Waters as the wife, and Lena Horne, as the sweetheart, Georgia Brown!

MGM has assembled a brilliant cast for "Cabin In The Sky". Headline entertainers include Louis Armstrong, Rex Ingram, Kenneth Spencer, Duke Ellington and his orchestra, the Hall Johnson Choir in addition to the trio of stars mentioned above.

When you see "Cabin In The Sky" we guarantee you'll come out humming.

To be specific—you'll be humming "Happiness Is a Thing Called Joe" and "Taking a Chance on Love". They're both delightful bits of song!

Leo says he's tune-tipsy but that it's a fine way to be!

Here's music, plot and poetry in triple measure!

Here's a good time for all!

James was one of the nine witnesses who testified against Folkes. COOK IS CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER OF ENSIGN'S WIFE ALBANY, Ore., Feb. 22 (ANP)—Robert Lee Folkes, Los Angeles dining car cook, was indicted by a county grand jury Thursday on a first degree murder charge in the lower berth 13 slaying of Mrs. R. L.—Last January, I closed my downtown barber shop and opened up close to the Army camp. I do all the business I can each week and make good. A few of my old customers want me to open my downtown shop and run both places of business. Would this be a good idea? Ans: Better to let well enough alone. You are already having trouble getting good barbers to work with you in the shop where you are. It would be even more difficult to find a reliable person to take over and manage this downtown shop at a profit.
