

"We Rise or Fall Together", --Mrs. Roosevelt Says Go To Church Sunday

CHICAGO, April 6 (AP)—More than 3,000 people turned out Monday evening to catch a glimpse of and to hear the two leading ladies of the land, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, at the Metropolitan Community church.

The occasion was a benefit gathering for Bethune-Cookman college in Florida, founded by Mrs. Mary Bethune and of which Mrs. Roosevelt is a trustee.

"We rise together or we fall together," the First Lady told the audience. Later in speaking of the war situation, she recalled that "in the last war we talked of making the world safe for democracy, of fighting a war to end war, but we did not take it in the sense we do today. We didn't during the war, think out the kind of world we want, discuss the methods for building it, emphasizing that through the world were people who had the same aspirations and the same right to aspire to a new world."

Mrs. Roosevelt also recalled the fact that in every speech made by Mrs. Chiang Kai Shek, "she has stressed the rights of all other peoples."

"We have got to examine ourselves and know that we are working for peace in the world. Peace is not made by signing a paper. All the peace conferences are only the foundation on which we build. This means that all individuals have really got to work for peace. One basis of peace is respect for human beings as human beings. I hope that whenever we see oppression of anyone we are going to stamp it out," said Mrs. Roosevelt.

The audience paid homage to Mrs. Roosevelt in flowers and in songs, but in the midst of it all, the First Lady kept knowledge of the fact that another great woman was worthy of much praise and so she lauded the work of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, now director of Negro activities for the NYA.

Mrs. Bethune advised the listeners to "keep your feet on the ground, keep your heads steady, and keep your feet in the plowed soil, and you'll attain your goal."

This advice was taken from a speech made about Mrs. Bethune by President Roosevelt who said—"she has her feet on the ground—she even has them in the plowed soil."

GOVERNOR OF ALA. FOUNDERS DAY SPEAKER AT TUSKEGEE; PLEDGES SEPARATE BUT EQUAL TREATMENT FOR RACES

ipal address for this latter occasion was delivered by Claude A. Barnett of the ANP, Chicago.

Mr. Barnett pointed out the importance which aviation had assumed in the affairs of nations and men. Now that the farthest points in the world was only 60 flying hours away, he declared that soon we would be rubbing shoulders with people whom a decade ago we would have thought it impossible ever to have come in contact with and that the experience should crush our prejudices and encourage tolerance. He hoped that the millions of white soldiers from the south and north would learn new tolerances and appreciation of the value of human personalities as they served in Africa, China, India and the Southwest Pacific.

Extolling the life of Dr. Moton and recounting his achievements, he pointed to the tremendous influence Dr. Moton has exerted on better racial relationships, declaring that much of the progress made today was based on Moton's quiet, pioneering efforts.

Barnett praised the Tuskegee airfield which is a marvel of efficiency, the governor of Alabama sat right behind him as he said: There are those who seek to detract from this field. Some of these critics, having failed in their entirely reasonable, totally justifiable and valuable effort to force the integration of black citizens into the air forces of our common country better than we can do it. Today we are about to show to the world that the color of a man's skin has nothing to do with his ability in the air. The opportunity is at hand for us to demonstrate graphically and heroically before the world, that there is no achievement which any other race, white, yellow, brown or green, can accomplish which is not within our reach.

"Our flyers, our soldiers and we who are left behind," Barnett continued "are resolved to smite discrimination and inequalities at home—yes—but to fight with every ounce of our blood, with the fervor of patriotism which has always been the heritage of the American Negro, for democracy and for this country, which belongs to us as much as any other element in it."

DEDICATION OF $100,000 FORT HUACHUCA RECREATION CENTER IS GREAT STEP FORWARD IN DEVELOPMENT OF MILITARY POST

Col. Hardy, who assumed command of Huachuca April 1, 1942, immediately announced as one of his objectives the "cleaning up of shack town in Fry."

"Conditions then," Col. Hardy says, "were deplorable. There was no running water, no sewage, no adequate restaurants, nothing in this civilian campmet at the gates of Fort Huachuca to serve the reasonable needs of the soldiers."

Through the cooperation of Judge William Hastie, civilian aide to the Secretary of War, a group of prominent wealthy Chicago Negroes were interested in the problem.

According to those intimately acquainted with the development of the project, an original subscription list was made up and $12,000 was donated to help finance some sort of decent recreational set-up at Fry.

Representatives of the Chicago group visited Fort Huachuca. They realized immediately that $12,000 was inadequate for the task, and before leaving the post, they promised Col. Hardy that an adequate sum to finance proper recreation would be provided.

Lt. Mahoney estimates that upwards of $100,000 has been invested in the project to date. Beer, soft drinks, and light lunches will be served during the hours specified as off duty time by the military authorities.

Col. Hardy has announced that the civilian operators will plan their entertainment in close cooperation with the military desires.

"The opening of this new recreational plant meant that for the first time since Fort Huachuca was activated as a Negro training center, soldiers of this Fort were given an opportunity to find decent, morale building recreation," Col. Hardy said.

Civilian officials in the nearby community of Tucson, Bisbee and Douglas have recognized that having recreational facilities available at Fry will relieve the over-taxed facilities in their own communities, according to Gus Michaels, secretary to the Bisbee chamber of commerce.

"We've never had room to properly take care of these Negro combat troops, training in our area," Michaels said.

The new buildings have been inspected and approved by Col. Hardy. Lt. Mahoney announced, Earller in the week Colonel and Mrs. Hardy took Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges, commanding general of the Third Army, and the officers and wives through the buildings.

Official invitations to attend the dedication ceremonies were issued to: Governor and Mrs. Sidney Osborn, Mayor and Mrs. Henry O. Jaastad of Tucson, Acting Mayor and Mrs. Joe Maury of Bisbee, Mayor and Mrs. George Pray of Douglas, Mayor and Mrs. Louis Huden of Nogales, Mayor and Mrs. John Giacoma of Tombstone, and Mayor and Mrs. Newell Stewart of Phoenix.

Other prominent civilians invited were: Mr. and Mrs. Folsom Moore, Bisbee; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Knorr, Phoenix; Mr. and Mrs. Wiljam R. Matthews, Tucson; Judge and Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Michaels and Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Pruitt, all of Bisbee.

Major General and Mrs. Fred W. Miller, Brig. General Walter E. Lauer, Brig. General William Spence, Col. Everett M. Yon, Col. James R. Urquhart, Col. Thomas F. Taylor, and Col. and Mrs. Edwin F. Hardy, Lt. Col. C. E. Nelson, Lt. Col. N. O. Bousfield, Maj. Charles J. Blackwood and Capt. Homer C. Roberts represented the army.

ARMY BOMBER FLIES GOV. OSBORN TO FT. HUACHUCA

Phoenix, Arizona, March 27—Gov. Sidney P. Osborn flew to Ft. Huachuca in an army bomber to participate in the military dedication of the new $100,000 recreational building. The recreation center, financed by civilian capital and constructed at Fry, just outside the military reservation, will provide facilities for serving 2,000 soldiers in one evening.

Major General Fred W. Miller, commanding the combat troops at Huachuca, the members of his staff, and Colonel Edwin N. Hardy post commandant, represented the army in the ceremonies.

Following the dedication, the governor and Mrs. Osborn attended the first presentation of a satirical musical comedy produced by the three hundred negro WAACs stationed at Huachuca.

WRITTEN AT POST
Music and book for the original production entitled "Bi-voac WAAC", were written at the post under the general supervision of Capt. Joseph Jordan.

The situation of the musical comedy projects the members of the Woman's Army Auxiliary Corp into situations heretofore reserved for the masculine soldier.

In rapid succession, the review was revealed in feminine reactions to duty on the firing range and in combat situations ranging from

This Might be Your Jimmy

This is Jimmy, who only wants a chance to be like other kids. He wants a chance to get well, to go to school, to play, to learn how to do a job, and grow up into a useful citizen. It is to help guarantee such rights that the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children is engaging in the annual sale of Easter Seals to finance the local, state, and national program for crippled children. Seals are being sent out to local citizens through the mails this week.

DRIVE FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN GETS UNDER WAY

Otto Swanson, president of the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children, has announced that Nebraska Easter Seal Campaign dates this year will be April 5th to 25th. "It is our hope this year," he said, "to raise $20,000, which we estimate will be necessary to carry out the splendid program set up for the coming year." Mr. Swanson further explained that county committees have been appointed and that the entire state is cooperating as never before to give crippled children proper attention.

"We fully realize," said Mr. Swanson, "how many heavy demands are being made on our neighbors during these trying times. But we know too that every one of us who is physically fit wants to do everything he can for those less fortunate in time of war just as in time of peace. This year, for instance, one of the chief objectives of the Nebraska Society's program will be to disseminate information about Rheumatic Fever throughout the state." Mr. Swanson further explained that it has been found that Rheumatic Fever is the greatest forerunner of permanent heart disabilities, and that in many instances, early discovery and treatment could effectively prevent such disability.

Nearly 170,000 envelopes containing Easter Seals are being mailed this week to individuals and business heads throughout the state. "How much we will be able to do this year very largely depends on the response those envelopes bring," Mr. Swanson said, "and every envelope includes the pamphlet 'Rheumatic Heart Disease in Children', published by the American Heart Association. We hope the parents of Nebraska children will read it carefully so they may recognize, and know how to cope with, Rheumatic Fever if it should ever be necessary."

ALKA-SELTZER BRIGHTENS MY DAY

OCCASIONALLY, I wake up in the morning with a headache. It sometimes wears off along the middle of the forenoon, but I don't want to wait that long, so I drink a glass of sparkling ALKA-SELTZER. In just a little while I am feeling a lot better.

Sometimes the week's ironing tires me and makes me sore and stiff. Then it's ALKA-SELTZER to the rescue—a tablet or two and a little rest makes me feel more like finishing the job.

And when I eat "not wisely but too well," ALKA-SELTZER relieves the Acid Indigestion that so often follows.

Yes, Alka-Seltzer brightens my day. It brings relief from so many of my discomforts, that I always keep it handy.

Why don't you get a package of ALKA-SELTZER at your drug store today?

Large Package 60¢, Small 30¢.

Seven original songs arranged for solo and chorus, the rapid development of a hilarious situation, a chorus line and solo dances, made this production rapid, sure-fire entertainment.

The governor and his party were treated to a preview of this entertainment feature which was presented to the officers and men of the post on successive nights throughout the following week.

Sunday morning, Governor Osborn made an official tour of inspection of Fort Huachuca, Arizona's largest military establishment. The "Division," just from two weeks of grueling maneuvers, offered the governor a chance to see a fighting unit ready for action.

The official party returned to Phoenix by air Sunday afternoon.
