

Classified Ads Get Results!

FOR RENT One Room for gentleman Only, Call AT. 2350. FOR BENT AN APARTMENT FOR COUPLE-AT 6281. FOR RENT-A nice modern room WE. 2365. FOR RENT furnished rooms 2807 North 24th St., WE. 2217.

POP DEFENSE

BUY UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS AND STAMPS ON SAFE AT YOUR POST OFFICE OR BANK.

LAUNDRIES & CLEANERS EDHOLM & SHERMAN 8401 North 24th WE. 6054. EMERSON LAUNDRY 8224 North 24th St. WE. 1027.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS THOMAS FUNERAL HOME 2022 Lake St. WEBSTER 2022.

COUGHS

Due To Colds or Bronchial Irritation Here's good news for the people of the U. S. A. Canada's greatest cough medicine is now being made and sold right here, and if you have any doubt about what to take this winter for the common cough or bronchial irritation get a bottle of Buckley's CANADIAN Mixture. You won't be disappointed—it's different from anything else you ever used—no little sip and you get instant action. Only 45¢—all druggists. Satisfaction or money back.

Did You Place Your FALSE TEETH In a Glass Last Night?

Thousands do and wonder why their dentures remain dull and stained—why they suffer with offensive denture breath. They fail to realize that water alone is not a cleaning agent—but now there's a great formula perfected by a dentist, called Siera-Kleen that thoroughly cleans false teeth like magic. Simply put a little Siera-Kleen Powder in a glass of water—stuck your teeth—now they sparkle, are really clean and look like the day your dentist set them. "Don't they look natural?" Try Siera-Kleen—lasts long—costs only 25¢. At all druggists.

DO YOU Have trouble with your feet? Do they perspire too freely and crack the skin between the toes? Do they ache and burn? Are you troubled with painful corns, calluses or Athlete's Foot?

Then try L.D.I.—an amazing new formula guaranteed to bring relief—or double your money back! EASY TO USE—easy to buy; get L.D.I.!

For Comfortable Feet USE L.D.I. "It does it!" FRED WALKER, AGENT PHONE ATLANTIC 1689—894 N. 25th ST.

GROSS JEWELRY & LOAN CO. Phone JA-4635 formerly at 24th and Erskine St. NEW LOCATION—514 N. 16th ST.

WAITERS' COLUMN

(BY H. W. SMITH) WE. 6458

The Omaha Club waiters are very much out in front on good service. The waiters of the White Horse Inn are top service men at all times. The Fontenelle waiters are taking good care of the service and are very much on the job.

The Paxton hotel waiters can give good service at a moments notice. The Blackstone waiters are always in the running on taking very good care of the trade and the veteran room service man Mr. Avant knows what to do at all times on high class orders.

All waiters should keep up their appearance at all times and the guest will always make mention to their friends and we all should quite understand to save time we should have pencils and pads to write orders on and the guest or club members are expecting other guests ask them to write the names and the waiter can pass it to the headwaiter or Capt. at the door as it will save time and mistakes. And all food orders should be repeated to avoid misunderstanding an always get the attention of the cook to get prompt service as many guests are in a hurry to finish eating and turn around in his chair and relax.

THE WEEK We truly hope our race will use every effort to bring about the very best ideas of doing their duty where they are employed. We should first be fair with ourselves and we will always be looked upon in the right way and remember we are employees and by all means never allow ourselves to be stool pigeons and don't take any part in loud talking or extensive visiting when we are on duty and bear in mind if any information from the employees is wanted, it will be made known to them. Keeping ourselves properly groomed.

YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER FROM HOT FLASHES If you suffer from hot flashes, dizziness, distress of "irregularities", are weak, nervous—due to the functional "middle-age" period in a woman's life—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—it helps thousands upon thousands of women to relieve such annoying symptoms. Follow label directions. Pinkham's Compound is worth trying!

JACKSON 0288 FIDELITY STORAGE & VAN CO. Local and Long Distance MOVING 1107 Howard, W. W. Koller, Mgr.

Gray Hair? NEW VITAMIN RESTORES NATURAL COLOR Free Booklet Tells Of Thrilling Discovery; New Hope For Millions One of the most sensational scientific discoveries of modern times is an anti-gray hair vitamin that restores natural, normal color to gray hair in nature's own way. Scientific investigation has revealed that gray hair, in many cases, may be due to a vitamin deficiency. Scientists have also discovered the particular vitamin that is necessary to restore color to the hair in such cases. Reports of tests made indicate remarkable results. Not a dye—not a tint—not a drug—not a medicine! It is a valuable food supplement. If you are among the millions of people who find themselves handicapped in business or socially, because of gray hair, mail coupon below (or write) for free booklet about this marvelous new vitamin discovery. There is no cost or obligation, so send today. United Vitamin Products, 9 W. Washington St. Chicago, Ill., Dept. 5. Send me FREE BOOKLET about the new ANTI-GRAY HAIR VITAMIN. Name: Address: City: State:

and your appearance up and our conduct and behavior at all times like a gentleman or lady and bear in mind if we respect ourselves, other people will do likewise.

The Four days strike at the American Shipbuilding plant at Cleveland, Ohio is over.

2400 tons of mail was sent to soldiers overseas in January.

U. S. Senator Butler of Nebraska says sugar rationing should be done away with at once.

President Roosevelt signed the bill providing pay increases for postal employees.

Wm. Fox motion picture producer will end his prison term on May 3—He was a multi-millionaire at one time.

Jay McShann and his Orchestra were in Omaha.

Novelist Theodore Dreiser says Mme. Chiang China's first lady, should be taking a rest.

Radio Jim Crow faces expose in new demands.

Miss Lena Horne has been naming to christen a newly built Liberty ship, when it's launched at Richmond ship yards in Oakland California.

Elvin Bell has been decorated by the Navy for saving the lives of three shipmates on the aircraft carrier Lexington.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said "I think Negroes should be admitted anywhere any other American citizens are admitted."

Jess Harding in a billiard game trying to see which one was the best.

Felix Metoyer playing the pinball machine.

George Watson and Shirley Kennedy talking in the barber shop.

Mrs. Marie Brooks of 420 Pawnee St., Leavenworth, Kansas visiting friends in Omaha and stopping at 2217 Ohio St.

Captain Langley on 24th Street.

The very interesting union services had a very fine program on closing night with a request Song Service by the very fine choirs of the churches. All the songs were enjoyed by the large crowd and we should give them a very good hand.

We notice in the group of long years of service and old timers at the Chamber of Commerce Mr. Simon Harold who went there as a page boy and with his very careful and efficient actions has made a very large number of good friends and always deals fair with all of his fellow workers.

On Monday evening March 5th one of the Ladies Auxiliaries of Clair Chapel, The Cats, rendered a very lovely program at the church which was very interesting and enjoyed by a large group and what we all would like to know are there any kittens being trained.

Mrs. Ethel Kirtley President also Sunday April 11th was Women's Day at Clair Chapel and a very beautiful program was rendered at both morning and afternoon services.

Mrs. J. D. Lewis who always uses such nice and encouraging and true Christian friendly words was at her best. Mrs. Farmer, one of the very best lady ministers delivered an interesting sermon. Mrs. Alberta Jones and Mrs. L. V. Gray and Mrs. Georgia Goosby were all headliners.

BOYS' LIFE There is a tremendous need for a clean, wholesome and educational, yet entertaining boy's publication. That's why, for 30 years, the Boy Scouts of America has published BOYS' LIFE. It's the magazine you will be glad to give your son... or a friend's son. Only $2.00 a year... $4.50 for 3 years. Send your order to: BOYS' LIFE, No. 2 Park Ave., New York Or to your newspaper office or local agent. Use The Omaha Guide As A Medium of Advertising

FATHER VERY LOW SICK WANTS TO FIND DAUGHTER

Mr. Homer D. Hightower and Mrs. Mae Laumpkin Hightower want to get in touch with their daughter, Miss Mary Lou Hightower. Anyne knowing the whereabouts of Miss Mary Lu Hightower, please get in touch with Mr. C. C. Galloway at The Omaha Guide office, 2420 Grant St., Phone Webster 1517.

SOCIAL NOTES

MR. LOUIS WHITNER DIES Mr. Louis (Louie) Whitner, age 57 years, 2518 Hamilton Street, died Thursday evening at a local hospital. Mr. Whitner had been a resident of this community for 22 years and had been employed at a local packing company. He is survived by four sons, Corporal Louie Whitner USA army, Clarence, Arno, Charles Whitner of Omaha. Mr. Whitner's funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2 pm, from The Thomas Funeral Home, Burial in Prospect Hill cemetery.

LEGION NEWS

With a "SERMON IN SONG" rendered by the massed choirs of the seven churches that took part in them the Union Meetings closed last Sunday evening at Zion Baptist Church. And there is a specific reason for this being mentioned in the column. American Legion was well represented at this final meeting as it has been represented throughout the winter. Many veterans hold offices of responsibility in the various churches and a number of them sing in choirs of the church of their faith.

Obviously this has a direct bearing on Theodore Roosevelt Post 39 of the American Legion, and it has indeed, For the legionnaires referred to are all members of it.

But why should this be mentioned here?

For the simple reason it is never out of place to write or speak of God or anything concerning Him.

And to see so many Legionnaires working in the churches makes for a better Legion Post. For words of God in the hearts of men weld them closer together in things of a benevolent nature as well as in other ways. And it is well for all to remember that nothing man tries to achieve can hope for much success unless he places his faith in God.

PRAYER

(BY MRS. H. R. GREENFIELD) Prayer is a desire. Prayer is being with God. You cannot choose at all about it, except just in choosing to be with Him. Perhaps He will take you upon the mountain with Him. Perhaps He will take you into the mist where you will not be able to see Him. Perhaps you will be with Him in pain or in exaltation, or in happiness, or in tiredness. He just gently says, "Come to Me," and you say, "I will or will not." You make no stipulation, that is not your part. You know He wants you, and you know what kind of wanting you want by the manner and the cross. He knows if you will not come. He does not leave off wanting you. You know that if you come to Him, He will ask you to help Him about the Kingdom. That He will in the end give you that work for it that no one else can do. For He will bring you into the Fellowship of His friends. But of course you will also go with Him before His enemies and the things that they say about Him will be said about you. And you will also go among the people who don't care whom He is trying to arouse to a sense of His love. Quite often He and you will be left desolate with the doors locked before you both. He will ask you to do things which you can only do if you forget about yourself and the sort of person you were, because on the other side, scornful and amused people. And all the time you will fail Him so often, that by and by you have little self-confidence left, only a growing confidence in Him instead because He does not fail you and prayer must be fearfully difficult because it isn't easy to be with God. Although it is simple. It means that something must go—like pride, unkindness, envy, hatred, self importance, egotism and malice. But all the same it's a REVIVAL NOW GOING ON!

Morning Star Baptist Church at 2608 Franklin Street, Rev. L. W. Anderson, Pastor, Mrs. Vera E. Hopkins, Reporter are now holding a Revival. The Rev. M. D. Ware of El Paso, Texas will carry on for the next ten nights.

Dr. Ware is a noted Evangelist of National reputation. Come out and hear this wonderful speaker.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

1906 North 24th St. Rtv. S. K. Nichols, Pastor Rose Oliver, Reporter

Sundays school 9:45 am. Morning Service 11:30 am. Y.P.U. 6 pm. Evening Service 7:30 pm. Wednesday night Service 7:30 pm. Friday night Women's Work 8:00 pm.

We had grand services all day Sunday. We had a grand Sunday school with a lovely attendance of 21 pupils. Our pastor preached an inspiring sermon which we enjoyed very much. His subject was on "The Church."

Sunday night we had a grand time in the Lord. Sunday night our pastor really preached a wonderful sermon. Two souls were added to the church for baptism. The spirit ran high. Sister Mosley gave us several beautiful selections, also Brother Gast. Our Pastor's text for Sunday April 18, will be "Forgive them Lord, for they know not what they do." Sunday night "Was there not ten cleansed, where are the nine?" Visitors are always welcome to this humble place.

CHARLES HUGHES VISITS Charles Hughes, a former well known young man about town was in the city last week to visit his mother and father and other relatives and friends. Charles is a Corporal in Uncle Sam's army.

BOWELS SLUGGISH? Feeling like you lost your best friend—headachy—dull—all because of sluggish bowels? Why put up with constipation misery? Chew modern FEEN-A-MINT, the pleasant-tasting chewing-gum laxative. Chew FEEN-A-MINT tonight at bedtime, taking only in accordance with package directions. Next morning—thorough, gentle relief, helping you feel swell again. Millions rely on FEEN-A-MINT. Chew like your favorite gum. Tastes good. Try FEEN-A-MINT—a whole family supply costs only 10¢.

choice the Lord has chosen you through Prayer to be His, with all your imperfections to go with Him an obe at Peace through Prayer.

SENATE TO PROBE DISCRIMINATION IN ARMY

(continued from page 1) has been compliance with the racial discrimination clause of the Selective Service and Training act of 1940; the nature and extent of any practice in the organization and placement of personnel which acted to exclude Negroes from particular branches of the armed forces either on land, at sea or in the air; the extent to which advancement of Negroes in the ranks of commissioned officers has been limited; the extent to which the armed services are failing to utilize the full professional and technical skills of Negroes; and the relation of the system of segregated units to the effective utilization and appropriate placement of persons on the basis of individual competency and merit.

The resolution empowers this special sub-committee to carry on hearings, aided by a subpoena power, throughout the 78th Congress whether it be in session or recessed or adjourned.

Informed of the Senator's resolution, Judge Hastie commented that "public hearings of the facts is in the best tradition of the American way of doing things."

HOUSTON ASKS FOR EQUAL TEACHER PAY AT EDUCATION BILL HEARINGS

Washington, DC.—By recommending that the Education and Finance Act of 1943 (S. 637) be amended to provide that "no differential shall be made in teachers' salaries because of race or color," Charles H. Houston representing NAACP national legal committee and AKA, non-partisan council testified April 8 before the Education and Labor Committee of the United States Senate.

The bill which was introduced by Senators Lister Hill (D) of Alabama and Elbert D. Thomas (D) of Utah would authorize an appropriation of $200,000,000 to assist the States in financing elementary and secondary schools. Funds would be provided to keep all public schools open for a term of not less than 160 days and standard salaries of teachers would be raised and adjusted in line with the increased cost of living. Provision is also made for the employment of additional teachers to handle overcrowded classes. An additional $100,000,000 would be appropriated under the bill to more nearly equalize the school systems in the South with those in the North. Funds under the bill would be apportioned to the States by the United States Commissioner of Education.

At the hearing, "Houston said, "We advocate Federal aid to education. The safety of the nation depends on an intelligent citizenry which knows the ends for which it fights—a citizenry which has the requisite skills to use weapons of warfare to the best advantage. It is necessary to educate, not only

"IT PAYS TO LOOK WELL" MAYO'S BARBER SHOP Ladies and Children's Work A Specialty 2422 LAKE ST.

RABE'S BUFFET for Popular Brands of BEER and LIQUORS 2229 Lake Street —Always a place to park—

JOHNSON DRUG CO. NEW LOCATION 2306 North 24th We. 0998 Free Delivery

NORTH 24TH ST SHOE REPAIR 1807 N. 24th St. WE. 424 —POPULAR PRICES— LOOK AT YOUR SHOES Other People Do. Our Half Soleing Method leaves No Repair Look on your shoes. We Use the BEST Material.

PAGE BOY ATTACHMENTS For Beautiful Hair Perfectly Matched $1.50

Send sample of hair or state color. $1.50 with order and save postage or pay postman $1.50 plus 23c postage on delivery. Braids, Puffs and Wigs. Gray Hair 50c extra.

POSNER HAIR CO. 113 W. 128th St., N. Y. C. Satisfaction or money refunded

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

to preserve the nation against foreign enemies but to achieve the most enduring reconstruction in peace."

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors—all citizens of Georgia, from the district of the crime, voted a true bill.

"The case was presented to the Grand jury by two Georgia lawyers, T. Hoyt Davis, United States Attorney, and G. Maynard Smith, Special Assistant, formerly the City Solicitor of Cairo, Georgia. Georgia citizens as grand jurors and Georgia lawyers came to prompt and unanimous agreement that a Federal law had been violated. The grand jury was under the supervision of a Federal District Judge, a citizen and member of the Bar of Georgia.

Houston stated that he wanted specific provisions in the bill at all points limiting the allocation of funds to the support of primary and secondary schools. States like Missouri, he asserted which prior to the decision of the United States Supreme Court made no provision for professional and graduate training for Negroes should not be allowed to drain this appropriation for the support of institutions they are already required by law to support.

enforcement officers of the State of Georgia, as authorized by Governor Ellis Arnall, investigated the case with thoroughness and dispatch. Twenty-three grand jurors