WAITERS' COLUMN

(BY H. W. SMITH)
WE. 6458

The Fontenelle Waiters are all serving with a smile, and we notice one of the famous roast beef knights at morning services at the Clair Chapel on Sunday, May 2nd.

Sunday, May 9th is Mothers' Day and we should all do our very best to honor them as no one can take the place of Mother. As we remember back of the fine motto: "God Bless our home—In God we trust—Kind words and a welcome to all—Love one another—What is home without a Mother?—They are the mottoes which were so beautifully framed upon the wall."

The RIT boys are very much out in front in service to the travelling public.

"Peoples' Musician" Award To Duke Ellington

DuSABLE LOUNGE OWNERS GIVE CAKE AND PUNCH TO SERVICE-MEN'S CENTER

Chicago, (P.P.S., Inc.)—In an outstanding and extravagant war time gesture, Messrs. Charles Cole, Harry Fields and John Simmons, owners of the popular DuSable Lounge of this city, made a thousand soldiers and marines happy at one of their weekly parties on Saturday night, May 1st. These gentlemen, who have already bought thousands of dollars worth of Defense

man, WAAC recruiting Officer, Sgt. Robert Gaston of the 54th Coast Artillery, Mrs. Marie Trotter Moore one of the Center's officers and Charles Coles. They were among the hundred who attended the frolic. The servicemen's Center staff was loud in its praise to the DuSable Lounge owners for the treat to the Center Servicemen and Hostesses.

the up and go from the time they hit the job until they go home and Capt. Earl Jones has one more year to his age. He enjoyed a very lovely birthday.

Capt. Langley and Mr. George Brown are topnotch men at the Regis and the White Horse Inn waiters still are tops on service.

The Race Horse headwaiter and the very active members of his crew at the Paxton hotel are very much onto their jobs.

Notice that Theodore Thomas of the Cocktail Lounge has a new side walk in front and leading to his beautiful, well-kept home.

New York City, P.P.S., Inc.)—On the heels of his triumph at Carnegie Hall, where he and his band recently appeared in concert, Duke Ellington, was recipient of the New York Newspaper Guild's 1943 award for "Great American Musician of the People", Friday, April 30. The Guild's spokesman eulogized the master musician at Hotel Astor, where the newspapermen's annual ball was in progress, over a nation wide hookup. Among the many things said were "Duke's music was as American as the Liberty Bell". Maestro Ellington was then introduced and after graciously accepting the medal and thanking the Guild's representatives, he and his band played his most popular song, "Sophisticated Lady."

Before we forget—the old saying is—Names make news so... We will always unless we are forced not to...use the creature's full name, enny objections?

Small mistakes make great errors—don't they Willard Morgan, May be he learned that with some of his "seven come eleven, mates" in the Victory.

Ah—ah—ah, don't stop reading now cause you're bored. Let us waste some five on you. That fine band will be at the Dreamland Ball room the 13th of May—Hoy and you—if anyways you call youself help—you are forced to be laying down some leather there. Because that "flicker" should be great—ANDY KIRK!

the club. Cats all over the globe were oozing up and studs fell out in their drape suits...with the stuffed cuffs—on their draped shapes—with the reet pleets—and their zute hats. They were sharp as the club—Chics fell out in "ormals and fox furs and three piece suits.

Among the finest outfits was Mrs. Frances Fontane. She fell out in a aqua three piece suit with luggage accessories. Please believe me when I say Miss Dorothy Beck looked exotic in her low cut Canary formal and there were many a hen that looked fine as wine.

The Legion is really a classic night club. It adds to Bronzville.

The Crooner, Verle Lee Norval who has only been in the army a short while was spotted in a fine khaki uniform sporting bars on each shoulder. He's a Lieutenant! Let me present to some and introduce to others, Lieutenant Verle Lee Norval!!!

Alphonso Davis is also sporting bars—Lieutenant Al Davis... while here this week he spoke Dutch to Lois Turner.

Alice Simmons and Norris Preston will soon be married. Nice couple...congratulations.

Elliot Carner seems to fell for a Chie like a ton of bricks, but he dropped her like two tons. Wonder what happened to that romance? The Chic is looking for him to come on once more. He left her stranded—That's tuff.

Again the Martineers are asking Jimmy to have a dance on Saturday night. Those workers said if he'd only get a big band here on Saturday night—They'd all have a chance to get groovey like a fifty cent movie. Hoy!!!

Buddy Kellogg and Dorothy Urell seems to be stickin' like white on rice. Wonder can we rely upon this romance?

IF IT WON'T HELP WIN THE WAR... SKIP IT!

Imagine the thrill of dropping into enemy territory by parachute—and alone!

Imagine the dangers of masquerading as another man—even to his mother—even to his sweetheart!

Imagine what it means to know that one false step will be your last step—as you get the low-down on the French "Underground."

"Assignment in Brittany" is definitely DYNAMITE-DRAMA.

With some TNT romance, too—as Pierre Aumont, great French star in his first Hollywood role, shows how he can be as dangerous in love as he is in battle!

Lovely Susan Peters plays a leading, utterly feminine role—as the enchanting heroine.

Leo suggests that for an exciting assignment—see "Assignment in Brittany"!

And assign a part of what you planned to spend—to War Bond Purchases.

MORRIS E. JACOBS APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF PUBLIC RELATIONS AND EDUCATION COMM.

J. E. Davidson, executive director of the Omaha Civilian Defense Council, announced the appointment of Morris E. Jacobs of Bzelle and Jacobs advertising agency as chairman of the Council's public relations and education committee.

Under Jacob's direction, information on the activities of all the volunteer groups comprising the Omaha Civilian Defense Corps will be disseminated to the people of the city.

"There is a great deal of this activity being carried on by citizens of Omaha as a service to the community," Jacobs said in confirming his acceptance to the chairmanship of the committee. "It also is important that the people of Omaha should know of these activities which are for the protection and welfare of our community."
