MEMORIAL DAY, MAY 30th We all look forward to the 99th of May as that is the day we owe a great honor to our loved ones who have passed to the great beyond. And let us all bow our heads and close our eyes in a solemn pause of silence and at no time permit ourselves to forget our martyred heroes who fought, shed their blood and died that we could have a free country to live in. Always think of them!

CHICAGO. (Press Photo Service, Inc.) HELLO! As a registered nurse, stationed at Provident Hospital, I have had eight years of home front horrors of sick and mangled people. This, of course, does not qualify me as a columnist, but recently I was fascinated by Lt. Ruth Freeman's beautiful picture of WAAC life, as experienced by her since she enrolled back in 1942. Among the many advantages this new woman's life offered, Lt. Freeman related to me the many turmoils and tilts she had encountered in the effort to publicize nationally the social of our Negro WAAC life, since her appointment to Recruiting Officer in the Chicago area. This is the direct cause that prompted me to write. With this intense desire, I shall dedicate my spare time to this WAAC column for the duration. Address all communications and photographs to me, c/o Press Photo Service, Inc., 6201 South Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.

May 16 was the day set aside to celebrate the first anniversary of the WAAC, The Army Hour dedicated a portion of its program to this celebration.

Lt. Irma J. Cayton, wife of Horace Cayton, spent several days in the city last week visiting her husband. She also attended the dedication of the Irma Cayton Barracks 5120 South Parkway. The dedication was broadcast over WBBM on which Lt. Cayton appeared. The Barracks is a project sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary for National Defense. Lt. Cayton is stationed at Fort Huachuca, Arizona and is property officer of the WAAC company stationed there, Lt. Ruth Freeman, Chicago Recruiting Officer, 4703 South Parkway, was heard on the broadcast over WBBM during the dedication of these Barracks.

Cpl. Gilmore of the WAAC from Huachuca, Ariz., was in Chicago a few days ago on furlough visiting her parents. Cpl. Gilmore holds a Certificate of Proficiency from the Cook's and Baker's School issued by the War Department.

Capt. Frances C. Alexander of Toledo, Ohio, who is the Company Commander of the WAAC at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., is spending a few days in Chicago this week. Capt. Alexander was a member of the first group of WAAC to enter training on July 20, 1942 at Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

Aux. Callie B. Gray of Chicago has just arrived at the Fourth WAAC Training Center, oFt DeWens, Mass., to begin her training. Aux. Gray was an instructor in the Laboratory Technician School of Cook County Hospital. She was a former student of George Williams, Chicago and has done Social Service Work on the staff of the Wabash "Y". Aux. Gray has a son in the Army at Camp Forrest, Tenn.

Dorothy Williamson of Chicago arrived at Fort DeWens, Mass., wearing a WAAC uniform. Aux. Williamson was among Chicago's May enrollees.

Lt. Helen Cox, San Francisco, now stationed at Detroit, Mich., where she heads the Recruiting Office spent several days in Chicago recently attending the WAAC Recruiting Conference of the Sixth Service Command.

Lt. Ruth Freeman of Texas is the Recruiting Officer in the Chicago area. Lt. Freeman enrolled in the Women's Army Auxiliary Cotp in July of last year and graduated August 29, 1942 at Fort Des Moines, Iowa. She was the camp's physical training teacher for several months and later was elevated to Platoon Commander.

Aux. Jessie M. Lawson of Detroit visited relatives of that city last week. She returned to her station at Des Moines, Iowa, where she is attending the Administrative School.

Joe E. Brown Tells 50,000

LOS ANGELES, May 26 (ANP)—"One of the greatest contributions we have made to the world has been its music, and we borrowed that from the Negro," was the bold surprising statement made by movie star, Joe E. Brown at the Los Angeles Coliseum Sunday before 50,000 persons. The famed comedian served as master of ceremonies following his introduction, and his own speech was one of the high lights of the "I Am An American Day," the occasion of the celebration.

Resounding applause followed Brown's statement about the Negro's music, but unfortunately there were very few Negroes in the audience. The majority of those present were Legionnaires called out by their post commanders.

During his speech, Brown said, "I have travelled all over this country trying to find out who are Americans. I have visited the coal mining regions, the vast farming regions, the factory districts and the cotton fields of the south, where the Negroes raise this valuable and beautiful staple. Included were the Mexicans I have seen laying miles of railroads and all the various nationalities that go to make up the melting pot that is all up. I have concluded that an American is one who says, 'We the people, regardless of race, creed or color.'"

Baseball stars and fans, alike, agree that the "Yanks", America's one baseball club, can be beaten. This is the consensus of opinion, according to Cameron MacKenzie, an Eastern daily sports writer. He claims that any first division group in either the American or National League could take Satchel Paige and a few other Negro players, now kept out of the game by Jim Crow, and could "ace" the Yanks in nice form. "Satch", as usual, gave the fans here a thrill at the League's opener Sunday, May 15, with a two hit only out of the first five innings he pitched.

come the three beautiful Carter sisters of Bramwell, West Virginia. They all are stationed at Fort Des Moines, Iowa. They are Alberta A. Annie B., and Dorothy L. Carter.

The first twins to join the WAAC hall from Texas, according to officials at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, where they are stationed. They are Aux. Hazel Jeannette and Hazel Annette Green. They are 21 and are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. McNeal Greer of Center, Texas. The Greer twins were Nurses' Aides in Warren Hospital in that city.

The recent graduates at Fort Des Moines are: Enola E. Dyer, 69 W. Lafayette Ave., Baltimore; Tommye F. Coney, 142 W. Coheo st., Jackson, Miss.; Ruth W. Henry, 654 McKinley St., Memphis, Tenn.; Jewel G. Rettig, Henderson, Tenn.; and Minnie Cesar, 2007 Commercial St., San Antonio, Texas.

Aux. Mildred E. Christian, former graduate of the Curtzeck Training School, Snowden, N. C., and Norfolk Polytechnic College, Norfolk, Va., is now in her basic training period at DeWens, Mass.

Aux. Dorothy Hutchins of Norfolk, Va., is now attending the Ft. Des Moines Administrative school, after the completion of her basic training. Aux. Hutchins was a former teacher in Pittsylvania County.

Negro women war workers have played an important part in the construction of the recently launched Liberty Ship, S. S. George Washington Carver. More than one thousand Negro women were employed as burners, welders, sealers and in other capacities at the Kaiser Shipyard in Richmond, California.

It's born of smoke and flame! And gunfire and gallantry!

It's M-G-M's motion picture tribute to the courage and glory, endurance and spirit of the men who fought to the bitter end on Bataan!

"Bataan" tells the story of 13 adventurous men of all races and creeds who battled as one against the treacherous men of Tokyo.

You'll live every exciting moment with them—hide behind bare rocks, seek shelter in fox-holes, spend long days and longer nights in the unfamiliar jungle while Jap bullets hit all about you and Jap planes blast you from above

Robert Taylor as Sergeant Bill Dane is the hard-fighting leader of the 13 men who symbolize all who lived and died on Bataan.

Others in this noble company are George Murphy, Thomas Mitchell, Lloyd Nolan, Lee Bowman, Desi Arnaz and Robert Walker.

You'll get a prideful thrill out of the performance of Kenneth Spencer, who as Private Epps plays the part of a negro Army Engineer. A great hand at blasting the Japs with demolition charges, he sings the St. Louis Blues in a setting you'll never forget.

"Bataan" is a picture that brings the headlines home to you!
