LEGION NEWS

(BY JULIUS E. HILL)
(Post Publicity Officer)

VIRGIL HAYES

Virgil Hayes is a veteran of World War No. 1 and a Legionnaire. At present he belongs to Harrison A. Wright Post 289, Springfield, Mass., but he is about to make a change.
Since coming to this city he has paid a number of visits to Roosevelt Post and likes it so well he has decided to join it. He claims it is one of the best posts in the country. And he DIDN'T say COLORED posts. Just posts. As he has visited many white and colored posts in his travel and seemingly has been very observant—one is reluctant to doubt his statement. So we have this to say to him:
Virgil Hayes, there isn't a loyal member of Theodore Roosevelt Post No. 30 who doesn't believe along with you that it is one of the best posts in the country...and if you continue to display the same amount of enthusiasm you displayed when we were chatting with you last Saturday and pitch in and help to keep things moving along this post will become an even better one.
It needs men like you. For it is hard to conceive of a veteran who seems so wrapped up in Legionism as you are being other than an active and hard working member in a post.

POLICE GAZETTE

Haven't seen Comrade Jacob Colie around for several days. Wonder if he is still reading that man's POLICE GAZETTE? Yeah, they cost ten cents. But don't tell this to the marines. Tell it to comrade Colie.

SECY FOR NEGRO EPISCOPAL WORK

New York, N. Y.,—Archdeacon Bravid W. Harris, in charge of Episcopal Church work in the diocese of Southern Virginia, has been appointed Secretary for Negro Work in the Division of Home Missions of the National Council of that Church, and has accepted his appointment.

Archdeacon Harris was chosen to fill a new position but recently created by official action of the Church, and he is the first leader of his race to hold such a position in the national Episcopal organization.
As Archdeacon, Mr. Harris now has supervision of 27 active Negro congregations, and is Rector of Grace Church, Norfolk. In his new position he will work for the improvement of Episcopal Church work among Negro people in all parts of the country, with special emphasis upon the Southern States.

Born in 1896, Archdeacon Harris was educated at St. Augustine's College, Raleigh, N. C., and at the Bishop Payne Divinity School, Petersburg, Va. During the first World War he was a Lieutenant in the United States Army and was engaged in active service overseas. He is the author of a brochure entitled "A Study of Our Work," and recently shared in a survey of Episcopal Church Work in several Negro areas. He is a member of the Joint Commission on Negro Work of the General Convention of the Church, which is its highest legislative body.

RACE RIOT FEARED AS SHERIFF SLAYS SOLDIER

The 364th, but a promise that no more northern Negro soldiers would be sent to this area.
City Marshal Robert J. Knighton in a report Wednesday said Sheriff Richard Whitaker shot and killed a Negro private from Camp Van Dorn when the latter resisted arrest by military police and attempted to take the military policeman's gun. All military police in this area are white.

Accompanying the request of Gov. Johnson was a telegram from Mayor Carroll, which read:
"Urgently request that steps be taken to have the 364th infantry recently ordered here from Phoenix be removed by war department to northern station. This regiment is fomenting race riots and openly boasts that they have come to clean Mississippi out. Have had no trouble with other colored troops until arrival of this regiment from Arizona some days ago. Consider this request of utmost urgency as serious race riots are expected if this regiment is allowed to remain here.

Col. R. E. Guthrie, commanding officer of Camp Dorn described the trouble as an individual incident and said that there had been a little emotional disturbance among the colored troops and some among the people of Centreville.
Following the shooting of the unnamed soldier Sunday night, state guards and highway patrolmen are reported to have been ordered to Centreville, but were met near Brookhaven, Miss., by military officers who informed them that the situation was under control.

A MESSAGE TO WHITE AMERICA

(by Myrtle M. Goodlow)

WHITE AMERICA.
Can you call us disloyal citizens When we ask our rights as Americans?
Can you claim the rights which America insures To all alike beneath her Stars and Stripes?
Should be enjoyed by only you and yours?
This is our native land as well as yours
The forefathers of all Americans came from foreign shores, And we are one of the many groups which makes Our beloved United States.
Our forefathers didn't arrive On the good ship Mayflower, For they were in slavery's cruel power.
And made the ocean trip, Shackled aboard a slave ship, Nor did they land on Plymouth Rock,
But on Virginia shore.
And now we number thirteen million more.

WHITE AMERICA

When Abraham Lincoln set us free.
He laid the foundation For our country to become, The true leader of democracy.
And America continued to prosper and grow, After he freed the Negro.
We have never betrayed that trust he placed in us
We have answered our country's every call
And on freedom's altar laid our all.
And today our fathers, brothers and sons,
Are on the four corners of the earth
Fighting for the four freedoms
And dying for the land of their birth.
And today our men in uniform
Are suffering cruel persecution
In army camps throughout the southland.
The very brand—
They're fighting to end
In a foreign land.
And can you blame us when
We ask our country to protect them?

WHITE AMERICA

Can you blame us when we fight,
For our God given rights,
As well as for the Stars and Stripes?
Can you condemn us when
We ask our rights as an American?
To the prejudiced southerners who say—
"they would rather lose the war
And keep the Negro in his place,"
We ask God in Heaven to forsive them,
For making such idiotic statements,
Wishing the end of all that is American.
For if we lose the freedom we're so proud of—
So will they and those they love,
And there will be no difference then.
For they as well as we—
Will be in slavery!

WHITE AMERICA

Not the color of our skin—
But the loyal hearts within
Which beats with love sincere
For all our country holds most dear.
And after all it was Him,
Who made us dark of skin,
He, Who created all men
After His own image and likeness
Be they jet black or illy-white-ness.
And commanded them to love one another as a brother—
And when we oppress our fellow men,
We are condemned by the Maker of all men.

WHITE AMERICA

You can pray and sing,—
God Bless America in the hour of her distress.
But when hearts are filled with hate and prejudice,
The words have an empty ring
For God Almighty cannot bless
Only when his children obey His will.
And not until then, Will—
"God Bless America."

Use Fish to Save Points

Red points low? Don't overlook fish—the non-rattioned, high-quality protein food that is truly delicious when cooked according to the Spencer Method below. Authorities on fish cookery agree that this is "tops." For a delightful surprise, try some of the less-known varieties like whitening, fresh herring, ocean pout and red perch.

Seal in all the tasty fish juices by using an all-vegetable shortening—ones so pure and bland that it actually saves flavor. See for yourself how crisp, tender and delicate flavored fish can be made this way. Clip the recipe today, sure.

Raw fish is dipped in heavily salted milk to season, then coated with crumbs to seal in succulent juices.

Cooking in extremely hot oven in pure all-vegetable shortening cooks fish quickly—insuring deliciousness.

Spencer Method of Cooking Fish

Combine milk and salt. Cut fish into pieces for serving. Dip fish in milk, then in crumbs or corn meal. Melt Spry in hot skillet. Put in fillets, turning once to cover with melted Spry. Bake in extremely hot oven (550° F.) about 10 minutes. Serves 4 to 6.
If desired, fish may be fried in a hot skillet on top of the stove.

This recipe-story not only gives good advice, but makes it easy and practicable for the advice to be followed.

REGIONAL AQUATIC SCHOOLS AT 4 SOUTHERN COLLEGES

Washington, D. C.—Regional aquatic schools at four southern colleges will replace the National Aquatic school to make instructor training easily available over a wider area, the American National Red Cross has announced.
Scheduled during the months of June and July, the schools will provide ten-day training for candidates as Red Cross First Aid and Accident Prevention Instructors and Water Safety Instructors. Graduates of the schools will become instructors in local Red Cross chapters, in schools and in industrial groups.
Emphasis will be placed on functional swimming and water safety, the art of remaining afloat under adverse conditions and swimming while fully equipped and clothed, as taught by Red Cross to members of the armed forces. Instruction of civilians prior to induction is planned as a means of better preparing men and women for service in the armed forces and their auxiliaries.
The four colleges cooperating with the Red Cross in the conduct of the schools, together with the dates of the sessions, are: North Carolina College for Negroes, Durham, N. C., June 21-July 1, Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala., June 28-July 8; Tennessee A and I State College, Nashville, Tenn., June 28 to July 8, and West Virginia State College, Institute, W. Va., July 12 to 22. Registration is being handled through local Red Cross chapters, and Red Cross field staff members will act as instructors for the courses.
