The WAITERS' COLUMN

(BY H. W. SMITH)
WE. 6458

Capt. Earl Jones on 15th and Farnam St.

The Paxton hotel crew are up to the minute on service and we are quite sure the race horse head waiter will bring many new ideas from New York.

The White Horse Inn and the Regis hotel waiters are on the job
at all times.

The RR boys are on the good service end at all times.

The Fontenelle hotel waiters are tops on service at all times.

All waiters should read The Menu and keep posted!

The musician head waiter continues to enjoy the cool breeze at the Happy Hollow club and we are quite sure when the leaves begin to turn red and fall, it will be time to move into the city again.

The Omaha Field club with the wide aware head waiter and rapid fire chef and the streamlined bartender who can mix a high ball rolling on the ground are all very much out in front. Now let's all give them a good hand as united we stand, divided we fall.

Rochester May Sail to Eng. to Entertain Crew of Bomber 'Rochester'

Colonel W Woodruff Chisum, commanding officer; Lt. Col. Ira L. Aldridge, Major Howard C. Bates, Capt. James H. Ravenel, regiment adjutant; Capt. Eugene Faulkner, public relations officer; Capt. Oscar H. Williams, supply officer; Capt. Douglas L. Crier, plans and training officer; and Capt. Edgar W. Perkinson, personnel adjutant, were among the high officers of the 15th Regiment, New York Guard, attending the showing of "Stormy Weather" recently at the Roxy Theatre, New York City, as guests of the theatre, 20th Century-Fox pictures and Interstate United Newspapers. The early sequences of the film deal with the homecoming of the famous 15th Regiment at the close of the first World War.

The original 15th Regiment was the only regiment to receive the Croix de Guerre as a body in the first World War. They were under fire continuously for 199 days, and never lost a foot of ground. It was the famous Negro regiment to fight in France, taking part in all important actions and saw its first fighting under the command of the French Army. Later it was transferred to American Army command. The group attending the invitation showing is the 15th Regiment, New York Guard, which replaced the former 15th Regiment when it was absorbed into the regular army following Pearl Harbor.

Hollywood, Aug. 1 (ANP) Eddie "Rochester" Anderson wants to go to England to entertain the troops and most particularly one Royal Canadian Air Force bomber crew—the crew that voted to name their ship "Rochester."

Informed about his "namesake" in a letter he received from Eng-land, Rochester said he felt deeply humble about the honor.

When he completes his current role opposite Lena Horne in Broad-way Rhythm, he hopes that the powers-who-decide-who goes over-seas permit him to make the jour-ney to England.

"I sure wish I had a chance to put on a show for that crew," Ro-chester said. "It would be the most wonderful thing that could happen to me."

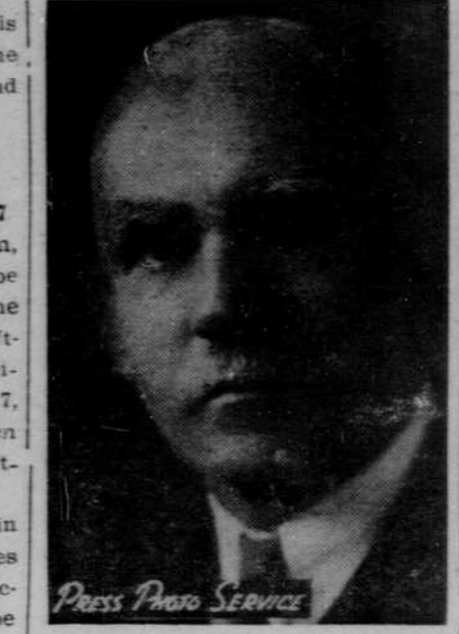

He will explain why he is in this particular Church and its doctrine. So come and bring your Bible and pencil and paper.

VICTORY GARDEN, CANNING, AND FLOWER SHOW AUG. 6, 7
Omaha's first Victory Garden, Canning and Flower show will be opened to the general public on the first floor of the Metropolitan Util-ities District office building, Fri-day and Saturday, August 6 and 7, for the display of Victory Garden and flower garden products of Util-ities District employees.

Loving cups for grand prizes in each division and ribbon prizes for winning displays in each section of the three divisions will be awarded. The judges are Mrs. Maude H. Goons, household arts editor, World-Herald, canned goods Mrs. E. W. Gray, 4316 Erskine St., flowers and Patrick Schofield, 531 North 21st St., a veteran truck and market gardener, the vegeta-ble displays.

Employees are not limited to the number of entries they may make in any division, and the entire first floor sales room of the Utilities District building is expected to be filled with vegetables, flowers and canned good exhibits. Rivalry is keen among employees of the Utilities District who were among the first to respond to the victory Gar-den project. Nearly 100 have gar-dens and neighborhood vacant lots converted to the production of vegetables.

Exhibits will be judged solely on quality of the products without re-gard for their arrangement except in the special flower arrangement section of the show. In that section, entries may be for mantle decoration, dinner table centerpiece, bride's bouquet, wedding table decoration, baby shower, and corsage.

STORZ UPHOLDS QUALITY

The supply of malt to all brewers is less than last year. The demand for Storz Beer is greater. Storz could maintain volume by using less malt, but that would cut quality — a thing Storz has never done. Storz will uphold its famous quality and make a little less beer. This may result in your dealer running out occasionally. When you do get Storz you will be thankful it still has that grand old flavor!

Romance and exciting adventure un-fold before your eyes in M-G-M's great drama—"Above Suspicion."

Joan Crawford, great lady of the screen, ex-cels her remarkable characterization in "A Woman's Face" in this magnificent role.

It all happens on a honeymoon!

With lovely Joan as the bride and dashing Fred MacMurray as the groom!

Who's suspect these gay lovers of a secret mission?

Who'd expect that this romantic pair who kissed and laughed on the gay boulevards would be involved in espionage and danger threats?

You'll sit on the very edge of your seat as kiss follows thrill and thrill follows embrace all the way through to a sur-prising conclusion!

Notwithstanding their wild flight through Europe's great capitals, Joan and Fred have their honeymoon. And they get their information for the British Secret Service, too!

"Above Suspicion" brings to the screen the excitement-packed best-seller of the same name.

Brings it with all the finesse and produc-tion that M-G-M can give to a fine story to make it into an even finer picture.

Conrad Veidt, Basil Rathbone and Reginald Owen bring to their support-ing roles fine performances.

NEW! "BACTERIOSTATIC" FEMINE HYGIENE Gaining Great Favor With Women!
Many doctors urge the regular use of douches for women who want to be refreshingly clean — for women troubled by offending odor, itching or discharge. Some products may be harmful germicides which burn, harden and damage sensitive tissues. But NOT Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash! Instead—Pinkham's Sanative Wash is an effective "bacteriostatic" (the modern trend). It not only discourages bacterial growth and infection but cleanses, deodorizes, relieves minor irrita-tions and discharges. Has beneficial effect on delicate membranes. Inexpensive!
