

LOCAL NOTES

W. B. BRYANT RETURNS FROM VETERANS HOSPITAL

W. B. Bryant, Attorney, whose office is at 2314 North 24th Street, has returned from a two months' stay at the U. S. Veterans Hospital at Lincoln, Nebraska.

He is glad to report that his health is much improved and that he will be at his office, as usual, from now on.

Mr. Bryant wishes also to express his appreciation for the many letters, cards and flowers which his friends sent him while he was in the hospital.

GRADUATE MOTOR CORPS

Ft. Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 3 Auxiliary Mable Virginia Nevels, 614 South Ninth Street, Beatrice, Nebraska is one of the Negro members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps graduated recently from the Motor Transport School at First WAC Training Center, Fort Des Moines, Ia. She has been trained to drive and care for many types of vehicles so that she can replace a soldier as a non-combat driver and motor mechanic.

THE NEW VICTORY BEAUTY SALON NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

There are four spacious booths and three efficient operators, Hatie Johnson a Poro Operator, Rose Roach a recent graduate of the Northside Beauty School, Cleone Macklin Harmon, Operator and manager, a graduate of the Althouse Beauty School.

The management wishes to take this means of thanking all who made it possible for her to open so soon: Mr. Davis of the Omaha Outfitting Co., Mr. Buckner, Carpenter and others. Please come in and look us over. 2118 North 24th St., WE 5217.

OMAHAN PROMOTED

Camp Lee, Va., Several promotions were announced recently in the 9th and 11th Quartermaster Training Regiment. Among these was one Omahan, Henry McCarrell, who was promoted from Technician Fifth to Sergeant.

SALEM BAPTIST CHURCH

Salem Baptist Church was host to the Omaha City BTU, Sunday at its 5th Sunday meeting which was well attended, with Morning Star winning the attendance banner on percentage and Salem the Loving Cup on Finance.

Today was Mission Day and the Women were in charge all day presenting a delightful program at 11 a.m. with Rev. Port delivering the message, His subject "Jesus Only." St. Matt. 17:3. The 8 p.m. Service consisted of Special Music Selections two rendered by Mrs. Slaughter Gospel Singer of Kansas City, Our BTU, Director Mr. Wm. Cooper, will report for final examination for induction into the army on Saturday Sept. 4, in view of this fact the BTU, Study Course will have lesson VII in BTU, Sunday, Sept. 5th at 7 p.m. in order to complete the present class in the next two weeks. Let us forget the Revival will start Sunday Sept. 12, conducted by Evangelist O. R. Short DD. of Bonham, Texas. So

RABE'S Buffet

for Popular Brands of BEER and LIQUORS

2229 Lake Street

—Always a place to park—

TIME AND TIDE WAIT ON NO MAN—NOW IS THE TIME TO GET YOUR SHOES REBUILT.

Quality Material & Guaranteed Quality Work

FREE DELIVERY

Call AT. 7060

The LAKE SHOE SERVICE

J. L. TAYLOR, PROP.

THE ART OF GOSPEL SINGING TAUGHT BY THELMA S. POLK

DIRECTOR ZION BAPTIST CHURCH CHORUS

Thelma S. Polk, teacher of Gospel Music, has been chosen Pianist Director for the Gospel Chorus at Zion Baptist Church.

Mrs. Polk, a native of Chicago, comes to Omaha very much prepared in this line of work having served in Union Baptist and a number of other prominent churches in her home town.

OPENS STUDIO

The Rev. S. K. Nichols, uncle of this fine young woman, has opened for her a studio at 2424 Erskine street, where she will teach Gospel Singing exclusively. For information CALL JA-3229.

follow the crowds to Salem.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD

1906 North 24th St.,
Rev. S. K. Nichols, Pastor
Rose Oliver, Reporter
Sunday school 9:45 am.
Morning Service 11:30 am.
YPPU 6 pm.
Evening Service 7:30 pm.
Wednesday night Service 7:30 pm.
Friday night Women's Work 8:00 pm.
Sunday throughout the day was grand. The Pastor preached a soul stirring sermon both morning and night, Sunday Sept. 5. There will be someone else here to deliver the sermons. Everyone is invited to come out.

TOWNSEND CLUB No. 11

The Townsend Plan is still going strong. Certainly our clubs holds for us the best there is in genuine fraternalism. Yes it is important to all living Americans and to all Americans who are to live that our way of life shall be preserved. Let us work for the advancement of our cause. We are fighting for a universal annuity insurance for citizens. Let this be our battle cry. America is going to have A Universal Annuity Insurance for all her citizens.

You can tell that to your friends to your critics, to the skeptics.

Well our two days conference which was held at the Rome Hotel on August the 21st and 22nd was a grand success and if you were not with us I am sure you missed a treat. Our program was carried out to the letter. We had between 8 and 9 hundred attendance and 2 hundred and five were served at the Banquet tables and Oh what fun we did have. We still have our drive on for more members and more clubs. Our club No. 11 is still meeting. Every Monday night at the Urban League Center 2213 Lake St. Come out and bring your friends. Visitors are always welcome.

L. W. McDonald, Pres.,
J. W. Dallas, 1st Vice,
Mallory West Brooks, 2nd Vice,
Mrs. B. Hawkins, Treasurer,
Mrs. Edith Harrison, Secy.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. D. St. Clair, Pastor

Worship services throughout the day were well attended at the morning service and two persons were united with the Church. One as a candidate for baptism. This proves that in spite of the strong forces of evil within the world today, that somebody is thinking of their souls' salvation.

At the evening worship Rev. Hurd a young minister brought the message to us from Act. 11:26. Subject "A Christian." Among the visitors present was Rev. G. W. Robinson of Des Moines, Iowa, Moderator of the Iowa-Nebraska and Dakota State Convention. We all enjoyed the remarks coming from Rev. Robinson, also present was Rev. Nicholson.

Sunday school and BTU, departments are still marching on. The program sponsored by the U. group was very good. Both of these departments are inviting each and everyone to attend their services. The State rally sponsored by the Mission Society was held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. The program was very interesting and enjoyed by all.

Everybody is welcome to all of the services. Your presence is an inspiration to us. A special invitation is extended to men and women in the Armed forces. Come one come all—Come early and leave early.

AN OPEN LETTER

Mr. C. C. Galloway,
Editor, Omaha Guide
Omaha, Nebraska.

Dear Mr. Galloway:
The Baha' Group of Omaha wish to thank you most sincerely for your kindness in printing in your paper the articles submitted in regard to the Baha' Faith during the months of June and July.

We trust the enlightening words you have helped us spread will ease the rough path for some in a troubled world today.

We pray the blessings of God be bestowed upon you and yours.

Very truly yours,

EUNICE BAKER,

Sec'y Baha' Group,
of Omaha,
530 Medical Arts, Omaha.

CLAIR METHODIST CHURCH

Services were well attended last Sunday with sermons delivered both morning and night by the pastor Rev. Reynolds. Mrs. Oma Owens united with the church during the evening service. The church raised over $300 for redecorating the church.

This coming Sunday, Sept. 5th is our Second Quarterly Meeting. The Rev. R. H. Powell of Lincoln, Nebraska, will serve as District Superintendent, and will preach both morning and night. The Rev. Mr. Powell is a very forceful gospel preacher and one of our most successful pastors. The Rev. L. A. Story and choir of Cleaves Temple Church will have charge of the service Sunday afternoon at 3:30

(BY H. W. SMITH)
WE. 6458

The RR boys are up to the minute on service on the wheels.

Mr. Thomas A. Willis and Mr. Bennie B. Cowans are rapid fire private car men. Mr. Linwood Hall Mr. Roy McCallister, Mr. Luther Johnson, Mr. Rodney Williams, Mr. James Robinson, Mr. Gordon Hopkins and all of the boys are on the job.

The Paxton with the race horse head waiter and the quick stepping crew are taking care of the service at their place in a fine manner, you can lay to that.

The Omaha Club waiters with Capt. Earl Jones are on the rapid step with a smile while serving their public.

The Fontenelle Hotel waiters are on the up and go at all times with their good service.

The Regis Hotel and the White Horse Inn waiters are tops and very much out in front when it comes to service with a smile.

All waiters should read The menu carefully and keep posted on any changes that might occur as it always avoids a delay when you can explain what is served with the different dishes as waiters are supposed to be ready to give quick answers to all questions and the guests notices and gives close attention to the way they carry themselves.

THE WEEK

Bishop John A. Gregg completes a 27,627 mile trip to the South Pacific battle area. Returns to his home and goes on to Washington, D.C., to make a report to army headquarters.

The movie picture "This Is the Army" was shown in Washington, D.C., to a crowded house and as the Champion Boxer Sgt Joe Louis was on the stage with a group of army officers.

Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune started her educational work 40 years ago at Daytona, Florida.

General McArthur tells Bishop Gregg the Colored soldiers are great. All honor to the General at all times.

Sponsors of the Anti-poll tax bill are asking a special week in October to push the bill to a vote and passage.

Salon H Bryan of Arlen, NC., says no southerner should be at the peace table.

A small group of Colored businessmen of Cleveland, Ohio pooled their cash and purchased a very valuable business corner on the East side.

A. Philip Randolph addressed an overflow crowd at the Second Baptist Church in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt contends that discrimination should be discontinued for all times to come.

A TRIP TO LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS

Leavenworth, Kansas—This writer had a very pleasant vacation in the historical city with the very lovely people and it was a very friendly greeting from everyone. We met and we attended services at the Independence Baptist Church on Sunday morning and all the members extended a Christian welcome with a smile. We had the pleasure of meeting two of our friends from Little Rock, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Baskins. It was a great surprise.

On Sunday afternoon we attended a mass meeting of the NAACP, at Bethel AME church which was erected in 1865. Attorney James Weldon Johnson was the guest speaker. One we always wanted to see.

We extend a cordial invitation to all pastors and churches to attend this service. Work of repairing and redecorating will soon begin at Clair Chapel Church. Bids on the work are now being received. Rev. and Mrs. Reynolds will attend the Area Council of the Columbus Area meeting in St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 10 to 13th.

THE WOMEN'S HOUSING COMMITTEE

Chicago, Ill.—When Dr. D. V. Jenison and his thousands of National Baptist delegates arrive in Chicago, the Women's Housing Committee will have comfortable lodging for everyone. Shown above are members of the unit. They are, reading left to right: standing, Mrs. R. Whilus, Mrs. R.

to hear. He made one of the greatest speeches we ever heard or listened to.

Mrs. L. E. Hanna and her daughter Mrs. Inez Lang entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Porter, and myself at a lovely dinner on Sunday afternoon Aug. 22. The table decorations were extremely beautiful and the food was extra fine.

On Tuesday evening Aug. 24 Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Porter of 410 Pawnee St., entertained eight guests with a very delightful dinner. The table was beautifully decorated and the flowers and the lace tablecloth cover were of the very latest design and the menu of the very latest selections very carefully prepared as Mr. Porter is one of the modern chef cooks. A very enjoyable evening was passed by the guests relating travelling experiences and friendly greetings.

Those present were Mr. H. W. Smith, Omaha, Nebraska, Mrs. O. Nella Byers Day, Leavenworth, Kansas and her sister Mrs. Mary Byers Richardson of San Antonio, Texas, Rev. S. L. McNeil, pastor of Bethel AME church, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Baskins all of Leavenworth. And Sgt. Albert Linn, Mrs. L. E. Hanna, Orchids to Mr. and Mrs. Porter. We found the people very congenial, friendly and accommodating, and they are working together for the good of all concerned.

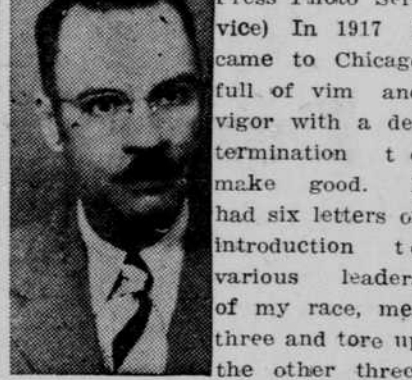

On Wednesday evening Aug. 25 we enjoyed a slight seeing tour of Fort Leavenworth and we were over delighted as we viewed so many fine looking buildings and men from all parts of the U. S. in their neat uniforms and as all of our party Mr. and Mrs. Porter, Rev. McNeil, Mrs. L. E. Hanna and myself agreed, it is a very neat city. As the U. S. always makes the best for the soldiers. All honor to Old Glory!

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

Pollard, Mrs. M. L. Davis, L. A. K. Johnson, N. Bibbs, and M. Norris. Seated left to right are: Mrs. Irene Jenison, Mrs. Georgia Jackson, Mrs. A. L. Shelby, Chairman, Bell Fuller, and Mrs. V. Williams. The convention will convene in Chicago September 7th through the 12th. Delegates have already begun arriving here. (Press Photo Service.)

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

Chicago, Ill., For Press Photo Service) In 1917 I came to Chicago full of vim and vigor with a determination to make good. I had six letters of introduction to various leaders of my race, met three and tore up the other three.

later on I met the others without mentioning the letters. At that time Chicago had just recovered from the shock of electing its first Negro Alderman; after that, two were elected in the second ward. We boasted of a ward committee-man, two state representatives and other minor officials.

Jesse Binga had a small bank at 36th and State St., Overton was doing business on South Wabash Ave later on these two men became the most powerful financiers of my race. Bishop A. J. Carey was a spiritual as well as political leader and commanded a lot of respect from the other groups. Rev. L. K. Williams, Baptist Minister, also dealt in politics, in fact the unscrupulous white politicians with the help of a few Negro ministers lowered the dignity of the church by using the pulpit to further their political ambitions.

Ed Wright and Oscar DePriest were the topnotchers in politics and swayed the Negro vote. Louis B. Anderson, Bob Jackson and Shadrach Turner were next in line after Senator Marks died, Adelbert Roberts was elevated to the State Senate. Through the years, Congressman Madden (white) died and DePriest got word of his death and hurried to Chicago, to make a long story short, he eventually was elected to Congress, our first Negro Congressman since reconstruction days. Shortly afterward the powers saw fit to get rid of Louis B. Anderson. Oscar DePriest, William E. King, Charles Jenkins, Adelbert Roberts, William L. Dawson, Roscoe Simmons, and other small fry dethroned Anderson and the

"Do's and Don'ts"

Continental Features

LAST OF SOUTHERN "KAMPUS KEEDS" WEDS

Scottsbluff, La., Aug. 31 (ANP)—Miss Moryl Albert Peary, the last of the popular "Kampus Keeds", was wed Saturday to John J. Hedgemon, registrar at Southern university. The wedding ceremony was solemnized in the campus home of the bride's mother, a member of the school faculty, and was read by the Rev. Richard Calvin of Lake Charles, La.

The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Peary, is a descendant of the late Dr. Joseph Booker, former president of Arkansas Baptist college. The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Susie Hedgemon of Delhi, La.

Mrs. Hedgemon holds a degree in physical education from Southern university, and has done graduate work in that field at Northwestern university. She formerly taught in the East Baton Rouge School system and is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority. Hedgemon a Southern university graduate, furthered his studies at the University of Nebraska. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity.

ST. LOUIS CATHOLICS PLAN ESTABLISHMENT OF DAY NURSERY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 1 (ANP)—Aside from busying themselves with the regular routine of church duties, the Rev. Ralph W. Warner S. J. rector of St. Malachy's Catholic church, and his two assistants the Rev. James M. Preuss, S. J., and the Rev. Thomas D. Donohue, S. J., will take on the additional task of overseeing a day nursery which the church plans to establish in the basement of the old St. Malachy school here.

The nursery which will care for children between the ages of two and five and one half years, has been approved by the most Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis. It is also planned that the same quarters will house a modern clinic, supervised by competent medical authority, to attend to the health of the children in the nursery and for nursing and expectant mothers. A fully equipped playground will be built adjoining the school.

St. Malachy's parish was trans-

"IT PAYS TO LOOK WELL" MAYO'S BARBER SHOP Ladies and Children's Work A Specialty 2422 LAKE ST.

Johnson Drug Co. 2306 North 24th FREE DELIVERY We. 0998

If You Suffer From CONSTIPATION!

Try This Famous British Medicinal Salts Now Being Made in U.S.A.

In a glass of hot water put one teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts and drink about half an hour before breakfast. 15 to 20 minutes later