Pictorially speaking.

EDWARD TURNER

Edward Turner has been Adjutant of Roosevelt Post for eleven years. And perhaps there are few if any legionnaires in the city more versed in Legion procedure than "Ed." Turner. During the first World War, he was awarded the Purple Heart Medal for bravery beyond the call of duty.

EARL A. THOMAS

A Past Commander of Theodore Roosevelt Post No. 30, 1932-33. During his administration, which was at the peak of the depression, he was able to maintain a very good average in Post membership and activities.

He is a member of fraternal, civic and social organizations, his association with the American Legion, as an active Officer and member, has been a main objective leading toward constructiveness. Thomas is a World War No. 1 Overseas Veteran, serving in the Meuse-Argonne Sector and attaining the highest ranking Non-Commissioned Officer's grade.

Henry W. Black

Henry W. Black, U. S. Retired, CO Chairman of Housing Committee.

Mr. Black's untiring effort resulted in Roosevelt Post having ample housing accommodations for its Distinguished guests and visitors to Omaha.

Mr. Black is charged with the efficiency of the Housing Committee, under Mr. John Curtwright, chairman.

The Peebles Serve.....

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Peebles

Second Lieutenant William W. Peebles, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Peebles, was born in Omaha, Nebraska. After graduating from North High, he attended Omaha University.

Soon after enlisting in the Army, he was sent to the Infantry Officers' Training School at Ft. Benning, Ga., commissioned a Second Lieutenant, and is now with the 93rd Division at Southern California.

First Lieutenant G. Jacqueline Peebles, the wife of Lt. W. W. Peebles, was born in Texas. After attending college there, she was appointed X-Ray technician in a hospital at Kansas City, Mo. She attended the First Officers' WAAC in Ft. Des Moines, Iowa, from which she was graduated with the first class and commissioned Second Lieutenant. After recruiting duty in Chicago, she was promoted to First Lieutenant, and now has charge of a company of WACs at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION SONG

Chorus Mod.to (THEODORE ROOSEVELT POST #30 AMERICAN LEGION) BY JULIUS E. HILL

If you swing a-long with the Legionnaires, You'll be doing your part to win this war -

Ev'ry one of them, ev'ry son of them

Know what we're fight-ing for If each does his part with all his heart Down Ax-is throats de-feat we'll quick-er ram (BAM!) if you swing a-long with the Leg-ion-naires You'll be swing-ing a-long with un-cle Sam - - - If you Sam
