Young lady, does an old TABOO prevent your knowing this help?
In less enlightened days, women didn't discuss these things. Now it's different. If a woman suffers from periodic cramp-like pain and other purely functional distresses, she tries to learn how to help herself. Thousands of women praise the 2-way help of Cardui. Taken as a tonic, it usually pep's up the appetite, stimulates the flow of gastric juices, thus aiding digestion and thereby helping build up energy and resistance. Started three days before the time, and taken as directed, it should help relieve much purely functional, periodic pain. Try CARDUI. A 62 year record says it may help!

LEGION NEWS
(BY JULIUS E. HILL)
(Post Publicity Officer)
I'll write this week's news out in verse,
But don't know why I should:
As in old fashioned English
Perhaps I'd do as good.
In fact, I'd do much better—
And not try very hard.

For there's one thing that's certain:
I'm certainly not a bard.

But what I want to say is this:
Times are getting tougher.
But then, upon the other hand,
We're treating Hitler rougher!

So I don't care how tough it gets,
(For I want us to win)
As long as our boys have the things
With which to bomb Berlin.

As long as for the enemy
Things keep getting hotter,
I won't kick because my coffee
Tastes like just plain water!

I'll gladly yield to rationing
Because of one December.
The Japs, you know,—they started it—
At Pearl Harbor—remember?

But now we're raising H...l
with them.
Their troopships are annoying.
The papers are quite full of how
Their convoys we're destroying.

And if we do our part back here,
Much sooner we will go
A marching down some well-
bombed street
That leads to Tokio!

We'll kick Hirohito in the pants,
We'll darn near wreck his town.
And how that Jap will hate to see
His 'Rising Sun' go down!

For just as Joseph Louis said,
And I repeat with pride, —
"We'll win this war because We fight on our God's side."

Now that I've had my say in verse
If it gives folks the blues,
I'm sorry but must let this go
For this week's Legion News.
