A WORD TO THE WISE
It surely is a pathetic thing for a young man or woman or an adult to go through life without God. To be informed by the written or spoken word or condition implied that he need not expect promotion no matter how efficient, how honest, how faithful or how long he might serve. How cruel it must be to be told you may as well leave your ambition at home or chained out in the back somewhere as to go through life without God. Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us. Hebrews 12th chapter 1 verse.

In this evil day we need Jesus and she shall bring forth a son and thou shall call his name Jesus for He shall save His people from their sins—Matt. 12.

Don't pray to get God on your side but get on God's side as the world today needs to get on God's side. We may stop this great evil if we get on God's side and not God on our side or you praying for our boys or having a big time while they suffer. When you read this, pray this prayer or some other—'Lord bless our boys everywhere.'

ELDER N. J. ALLEN, 2608 Decatur St., Omaha, Neb.

spelled C-h-i-t-t-e-r-i-n-g-s. So someone is wrong. For I believe these men I have had stand to one side will agree with me that pheasant isn't spelled that way, that pheasant doesn't look like that and does not come from the inside of a hog. Shorty you weren't fooling anyone. Brother you were eating CHITTERLINGS—and how!

RT. REV. JAMES A. BRAY COLORED METHODIST EPISCOPALIANS CONVENE IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill.—The Rt. Rev. James A. Bray, assisted by Bishops W. Y. Bell, H. V. Porter and the Rev. W. H. Amos, opened the Illinois and North East Missouri annual conference for Colored Methodist Episcopal Churches at Jubilee Temple at 114 E. 9th St., October 19 thru October 24. Many problems of the race will be discussed according to Bishop Bray and particularly the Calumet area housing situation which had caused a fascist element, when various demonstrations and petitions were signed to prevent Negro tenants from moving in the building when finished. The conference was officially welcomed by His Honor Mayor Edward J. Kelly (according to schedule). Other speakers on opening day were Atty. Oscar C. Brown, head of the NAACP, Carl H. Hansberry, head of the National Business League; A. L. Foster, executive secretary of Chicago Urban League; C. V. Johnson, head of Baptist Ministers Conference of Chicago and vicinity, and Rev. J. D. Coston, head of African Methodist Ministers Alliance. The Missionary Women also have an active program starting Thursday, during the convention week. On Friday night the interdenominational meeting will feature various topical discussions by the following persons: Bishop J. A. Gregg, H. V. Porter, W. Y. Bell, Rev. J. L. Horace, Rev. L. B. Hawkins, Bishop R. A. Carter and Bishop J. W. Martin. (Press Photo Service).

Service is a great help in making a place like the Post's MIRROR LOUNGE popular with the public. Therefore the legionnaires are proud of the waitresses employed there and appreciative of the house committee's untiring efforts to maintain an efficient service.

With less than two weeks ahead for getting in readiness for entertaining the delegates and visitors attending the 25th Eighth District Legion Convention here in Omaha for one day, Friday, October 29th, Roosevelt Post, which is this year's host to the Convention, isn't letting things grow under its feet. The Post well played its part during the National Legion Convention and intends to do as well this time. And the public is asked to cooperate as fully for this one day convention as it did during the National Convention.

The WAC hutenants, Alice E. Edwards, from Los Angeles, California and Anna O. Hall, from Chicago, Ill., were seen having a nice time both Saturday night and Sunday morning at the Post. They were here on a week end visit from Fort Des Moines, in Iowa.

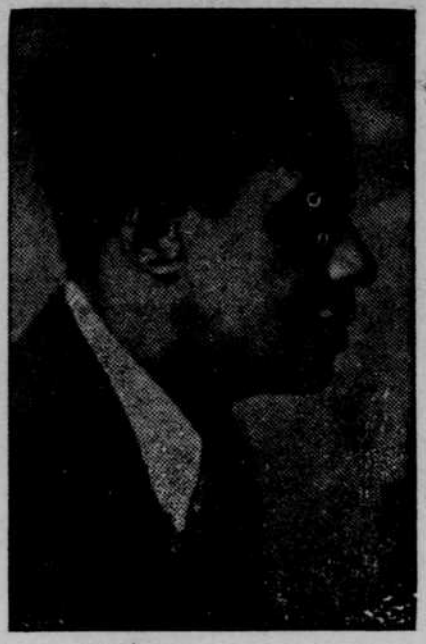

Does anyone present know how to spell PHEASANT? Okay, you stand to one side. Does anyone present know a pheasant when he sees one? You do? You stand over there too. Shorty Glass, would you mind stepping forward? Thanks, Now let's get down to business.

Shorty, there seems to be some error in your naming of a pheasant. If you remember Sunday night when eating at the Post you kept telling people that you were eating pheasant. In fact, you told me the same thing. Believing perhaps I could be wrong I went to MacGruder and asked him was he serving pheasant and got a negative answer. At the time he was serving some of the same 'stuff' you so persistently referred to as pheasant. Now PHEASANT is singular; the 'stuff' you were eating is usually referred to in the plural form of the word for it is served to a person like that. Furthermore it has letters in it that are not found in the word pheasant. To me more emphatic it is VISIONARIES ESTABLISH PRIZE FOR POETRY MAG Chicago, Oct. 22 (ANP) Poetry magazine will award for the first time this fall a Fellowship Prize of $50 made available by a group of young Negro writers, called the 'Visionaries'. The prize will be awarded to the poet regardless of color who writes a poem which best contributes to understanding between races, nations, classes or creeds.

The visionaries group was founded two years ago at the Southside Community Art Center by Mrs. Cunningham Boulton, poet and critic. At the present time they are under the direction of Miss Katinka Loefer. Initiating a program of popularizing the appreciation of poetry in the community, the group presented a lecture recital recently in which three outstanding writers, Jack Conroy, author of 'The Disinherited,' Theodore Ward, author of 'Big White Fog,' and Frank Marshall Davis, author of 'Black Man's Verse,' and 'I A the American Negro,' participated.

Members of the new young writer group are Gwendolyn Brooks, Henry Baskely, Margaret Taylor Goss, Elsie Mills Holten, Margaret Cunningham, Fernie Gayden, Maxine Muse, John Carlinis, and Josephine Copeland. Members serving in the armed forces are Lt. Robert Davis, Lt. William Couch, Sgt. Edward Bland and Master Sgt. Louis Carter.

Crawford, Mr. R. L. Harris, Rev. J. E. Blackburn, Pastor of Presbyterian Church, Rev. G. A. Stammers, Pastor of St. Phillips Church, Rev. L. A. Story, Pastor of CME Church, Mr. A. N. Lee, Mr. C. C. Galloway, Publisher of Omaha Guide, Mr. E. F. Fletcher.

Doctor Hawkins was called away on professional service and Mr. Lee was appointed by him to act as chairman of the session during his absence.

The meeting was opened with the Lord's prayer by Rev. G. A. Stammers and was closed with a prayer offered by Rev. Blackburn.

STILL IN JAIL Chicago—in a chain of letters recently sent to newspapers thru out the nation allegedly signed by Stepin Fetchit, the movie comedian which included a statement denying the fact that he is now serving a 30 day sentence, caused an investigation by Jailer Edward J. Denmark who matched finger prints and declares that the real Stepin Fetchit was within his prison walls. The information which was labelled confidential stated that the Fetchit held in Bridewell jail here was a phony and was acting as a double for the real 'Mistah Lincoln Perry.' The comedian was given the sentence by Judge Joseph Hermes who overruled a motion to vacate judgment and Fetchit was ordered to jail. In July, the comedian was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a 16 year old girl who was found in his Vincennes Hotel room by her mother and the police. Before buying ANY laxative, consider these 3 Questions 1. Does it make any difference what laxative you buy? Ans. It certainly does; most people prefer a laxative that is satisfactory in action but thorough in results. Question 2. How can you know what laxative, when taken as directed, will usually give prompt, thorough relief? Ans. One simply way is to ask for Black-

Dynamite (by H. GEO. DAVENPORT) LIGHTNING STRIKES HOME Chicago, (For Press Photo Service)—You will read stories of murders, you will probably go to hundreds of funerals of your friends, you will read of terrible accidents, you will read of casualties in this great war, you have just read of a brutal murder of a white airman whose head had been severed from his body by the Japs, that incident struck the home of every white American. They had read as well as condoned lynchings of Negroes for centuries, they had heard the pleas of helpless blacks, they ignored the demands of freedom of the Negro, they lynch, burn and torture the black men, and sneak around at night, IN SOME CITIES AND RAPE NEGRO WOMEN, they do every possible under the sun to the Negro, and it is just another incident; but the head of a white officer is cut off by the Japanese 'HOW HORRIBLE'. BRUTES they call them, barbarians they yell, not fit to be classed as human beings, unfit to mingle with civilized people, yet, what happened to that white officer, has happened in this country for hundreds of years and still is going on. The Negro has been complaining about these conditions, some of these crimes have been worse than ever will happen to white men in this war. This civilized white man has been past master at all brutalities since the beginning of time, there isn't anything that can happen that isn't low and contemptible that hasn't been committed by the civilized white man. He has, not only done that to all races and nationalities, but according to books written by white men and white women they have thrown away the books on rules and regulations in doing that to himself. In reading the history of Europe written by white men, everything that is happening now has happened before, they cry when they outstrip each other, they holler their heads off when their cities are burned by retreating armies, leaving this writer to wonder: Should the enemies leave the cities intact? Should they make everything nice and cozy for the victors? If that is what they are expecting they are out of luck, an old saying which runs something like this: 'ALL IS FAIR IN LOVE AND WAR' holds good still.

New Youth Worker NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The Rev. John A. Greene, B. D., S. T. M., for the past 13 years director of Religious Education at Clark College, Atlanta, Ga. has recently been chosen as a staff member of the Youth Department of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, with headquarters here. In presenting Professor Greene to the church public, Dr. John Q. Schisler, executive secretary of the Division of the Local Church, with which the new member is connected, indicated that he will not sustain a 'segregated' relationship to the staff. 'While naturally he will do most of his field work within the Central Jurisdiction, among people best known to him,' said Dr. Schisler, 'he has a responsibility for creative participation in the development of plans and programs for the church as a whole, and he will serve in conferences of various kinds in other jurisdictions. In that respect his status on our staff is the same as that of any other staff member.' Professor Greene is a Texan by birth. He received his education in the Clark College, Gammon Theological Seminary and Boston University. His ministerial relationship is to the Atlanta Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.
