

WAITERS' COLUMN

By H. W. Smith WE. 6458

We congratulate the Plush Horse head waiter and the musician head waiter and the two Streamlined Captains, one from the Quaker State and one from the Lone Star State for the very careful way they have taken care of the Service at the Paxton and to co-operate together at the Paxton Hotel for one year. Now we should all give them a good hand. The Railroad boys are up to the minute on service on wheels, and the large number of people traveling. Also the many train loads of service men and the trains running late. All are taken care of in a very fine way. The Omaha Club waiters are very much out in front as all of the members are very well known, and service with a smile are the waiters motto. The waiters at the Hill Hotel are on the job at all times, with quick service. The waiters at the Regis Hotel and the White Horse Inn are on the up and go at all times. The Fontenelle Hotel waiters are improving in fast service, and it is a pleasure to serve the high-class guests. The Omaha Athletic Club was all dressed up for the 7th Anniversary Dinner Dance on Dec. 18th, and it was a riot of pleasure and real fun. The Streamline Manager and the very polite police force, and the Streamlined head waiter, and the two Capt., and the Waldorf kitchen crew were serving the waiters in double quick time. THE WEEKLY BY H. W. SMITH Sixteen persons were killed at large can see that we are at all times saying "Peace on earth and good will to all mankind." LEGION SIDELITES by JULIUS E. HILL It is nearing the beginning of a new year and Roosevelt Post No. 30 American Legion is still short of the number of members it desires to have. Because of those who have been faithful for a number of years, and some during the entire life of the post, it has reached its required quota long ago. But that is not enough. So the big question now is why do non-member ex-service men want to remain that way. Surely in the last three years the post has shown enough advancement to prove to these veterans that foolishness, improper management and unreliable business methods are out and out to stay. And the worst of it is that a great many of these veterans visit the post almost nightly, admire it, talk about it proudly yet won't put down three dollars and become members. Why? Come on you ex-service men and do what you know you should do and get it over with. Stop acting as if you weren't wanted as members when you know darn well that you are! And what is more you are wanted for this year's quota. So make it snappy and get in before the first of the year. Okay? ... Then let's get going! The Post wishes to thank C. C. Galloway, publisher and editor of the Omaha Guide and his staff for the loyal support given during the year just ending, and extends the Seasons Greetings. Officers and Members Roosevelt Post No. 30, American Legion. Carey Thanks the Public As another successful year draws to a close we feel it our duty as Commander of Roosevelt Post No. 30, American Legion, to thank you, the public, for your part in making it so. Without your unselfish support there could not have been success; without your patronage as a paying investment the Lounge would not now exist. Everything has depended on you and you did not fail us. The way in which you have responded has been truly remarkable. We want you in the future to allow us to depend on your support as in the past. And Roosevelt Post shall make every effort to continue worthy of your respect and patronage. And again thanking you for what it has been possible for us to accomplish through you, we extend the Season's Greeting. Signed: J. C. Carey, Commander Roosevelt Post No. 30, American Legion. DOUBLEDDAY, DORAN ANNOUNCES THE GEORGE WASHINGTON CARVER MEMORIAL AWARD This award is offered by Doubleday, Doran and Company and is open to any book that deals with American Negroes. It is an award of $2,500 ($1,500 outright, $1,000 as an advance against royalties). The offer will remain open indefinitely in our discretion. It will not be based on manuscripts received during a particular period but the award will be given whenever a full-length manuscript seems in the estimation of the judges to be worthy of this special recognition. The judges will be the editors of Doubleday, Doran and Company. It is the hope of Doubleday, Doran that this award will serve as one means of keeping alive the memory of a great American, and that it will also help to give wide distribution to books about the American Negro. It is certainly an exaggeration to say that Uncle Tom's Cabin brought on the Civil War, but it is certainly no exaggeration to say that the moral indignation it aroused in the North had a great deal to do with ending the inhuman institution of slavery. Books are weapons. A book entered for the George Washington Carver Memorial Award may take any form as long as it is an effective book and has something to say. It may be fiction, non-fiction or poetry. It may be written by anyone who illuminates the Negro's place in American life. Doubleday, Doran reserves the right to publish any book submitted even if it does not win the award, on terms to be arranged. The George Washington Carver Memorial Award winners will be extensively promoted and their authors will receive the following scale of royalties: 10 per cent on the first 2,500 copies; 12 1/2 per cent on the next 2,500 copies; and 15 per cent thereafter. Manuscripts should be addressed to the Editors, George Washington Carver Memorial Award, Doubleday, Doran and Company, Inc., 14 West 49th Street, New York 20, N. Y.

ENTRY FORM Doubleday, Doran and Company, Inc. 14 West 49th Street New York 20, New York I would like to submit my manuscript for the George Washington Carver Memorial Award, at the same time submitting it for regular publication by Doubleday, Doran and Company if it fails to win that award. BE TOLERANT By Ruth Taylor It isn't a bad thing to be intolerant on some subjects. In fact it is a good thing, provided you are careful to be intolerant only of the evil, to have good reasons for your prejudices and dislikes. Keep your intolerance only save it for what your heart tells you is bad. Remembering that the dictionary definition of intolerance is to "be unwilling to bear or endure," of what should you be intolerant? Be intolerant of treason-of those people who say "America is all right-But" and then proceed to repeat the enemy's charges against our nation. They are half-hearted patriots. They wouldn't live anywhere else, but because they cannot get all they want, they just won't play the game, or do their part in working for the good of the country as a whole. Be intolerant of discrimination-of those people who, while condemning our common enemies, still are them in this country by putting personal prejudices and dislikes ahead of democracy and equality. They are the people who won't hire or work with men of a different race, creed or color, who really want to keep all jobs for themselves, who don't want competition except from their own people. Be intolerant of hatred-of the bitterness that condemns a whole group for the actions of a few, disliking what is not understood. It makes no difference whether the group against which hatred is leveled be Black or White, capitalist or worker, Jew, Catholic or Protestant. We all have those in our own group with whom we are not in accord. If we judge other groups by the actions of some of their individual members, we cannot complain if we in turn are judged by those we deplore in our own group. Be intolerant of condescension. No man is good enough to look down upon any other man. Condemn the action, but not the individual. Repudiate the individual but not the group. Censure the group if it acts as a bloc, but not the individuals who-undesiring-are classified with that group. Be intolerant of all evil. Be bold enough to condemn it wherever it exists-but condemn it, don't compare it! This country is based upon freedom for all, and the right to think, speak, write and worship as the individual conscience dictates-but it does not include the right to try to keep this privilege from any one else. Never let our constitutional rights be used by any one group to destroy another which is entitled to the same rights, whether it be labor or industry, or a racial or religious minority. Be intolerant-of all that is evil, and above all, be intolerant of intolerance!

WASHINGTON REPORT By Howard Buffett Washington is a city of beautiful churches. All sects and denominations are represented in Washington, and most religious groups have churches or cathedrals here, built by National subscription. This week Capital-City churches are holding many special services, as Washington goes through the motions of celebrating Christmas. The people of Washington have approached this Christmas with a sort of grim determination. The atmosphere associated with this phrase, "Merry Christmas," is missing. And rightly so, for the berries on the Christmas holly in 1943 are too 'red.' But this greatest of anniversary days can create hope in all of us. The Christmas Spirit is not enough. But if America will live by the Spirit of Christ, our present trials and tribulations will disappear. The World War is a product of the disease of materialism with which our civilization is afflicted. Society has determined to measure life in terms of physical comforts and physical pleasures. But life lacking the spiritual values quickly reduces itself to the level of the animals and the jungle. As we approach that level of existence, people are becoming frightened at the future. The Child of Bethlehem and twelve ordinary men, His disciples, founded the greatest movement in human history. Why? Because they taught the moral and spiritual truths that humanity must live by, or perish. Ever since that time great soldiers of the Cross have carried the original message of Christmas, "Peace on Earth, Good Will toward Men." There is no story, real or imaginary, more thrilling and more inspiring than that of the great Christians down through the ages. From Saint Paul to Martin Niemoller, those who have exemplified the spirit of Christ have kept the lights of civilization burning. Our craze for material possessions has obscured this truth. Who put up the greatest fight against Hitler in Germany? It was Martin Niemoller, alone and unaided, preaching the great moral values of the Four Gospels. While the intellectuals fled, this Lutheran minister fought the advance of Nazism. Not until Niemoller was behind the barbed wire of Sachsenhausen concentration camp did Hitler start his march of destruction. Niemoller's last sermon carried a message of hope and reassurance. He pointed out that "if those calling themselves Christians have ceased to practice Christianity, how can it exist-our responsibility is to live as Christians." America must again learn that the religion of the lowly Nazarene was founded upon individual responsibility and individual goodness. If we can achieve that goal in our own lives, our individual future and America's future will again find "Peace on earth, Good will toward Men."

THE WOUNDED DON'T HATE! By Ruth Taylor A newspaper man brought that line back from the battlefields. It was "news" in his eyes for it had come as a surprise to him that those who had been hurt most, hated least - that those above, wounded into death, had risen above hatred of those who had struck them down. He went further. And he found that where the hand of war had been most heavily felt, there was less bitterness, less desire for revenge than where war had not touched. He could have learned it from the refugees. Those who lost most, talked least and hated least. Those who got out safely with some possessions and found only their accustomed way of life disrupted were the most angry. So it always is. Those who suffer, learn from suffering. They see what the act of cruelty does to the cruel. They know the warring of spirit injustice vents upon the unjust. They sense the erosion of soul intolerance sets festering in the intolerant. They have learned ed that hatred is a boomerang and that he who hates lives only as the hated. "The wounded don't hate." They who have brushed wings with death have learned the truth; that life can only be saved by willingness to live and die in a good cause; that no man liveth unto himself, or for himself; that giving does not impoverish; that humility and mercy are more important than ambition and pride; and that righteous indignation can be devoid of personal hatred. "The wounded don't hate." This does not mean a withdrawal from the battle but a resistance to any weakening of the spirit through those dagger thrusts of prejudice and resentment which disable the hardest soul. "The wounded don't hate." Not only on the battlefields must this be true, but here in the midst of the tragedies in the battle lines at home. Can we who are safe at home have less self-control than our boys overseas? Can we hate our neighbors, at home or abroad? We can and must despise and condemn the evil deed. We can and must determine to wipe out the cruelty and oppression for all times - but we must not becloud the issue with the red mist of personal hatreds. "The wounded don't hate." -And we must not.

LETTERS FROM HUNDREDS OF SATISFIED USERS TESTIFY TO THE MERITS OF KOL-SAVER WHAT SATISFIED OWNERS SAY: Read these excerpts: "I can truthfully say that KOL-SAVER has saved me $41.00 this winter in the cost of coal to heat my home, a 6-room, 1-floor house. It used to cost me $92.00 to $95.00 to heat this house, using Bricketts and Pocahontas Coal. Now I use Round-up Stoker Coal which costs about half as much as Bricketts." "In regard to KOL-SAVER, in my mind this is one of the best inventions of the day. Frankly speaking, I wouldn't sell mine for many times the price if I knew I couldn't get another one." "My experience with KOL-SAVER has been most satisfactory. I burn nothing but North Dakota Lignite getting the best results with the regular nut or stove size. I would not think of parting with KOL-SAVER if I could not replace it immediately." "I have been a user of the KOL-SAVER for over three years and consider it very good. It not only saves considerable coal, but makes a very even fire, burns up all the gas from the coal that ordinarily goes up the chimney, thereby making a big saving in fuel. I would not be without one." (Name Furnished on Request) KOL-SAVER costs little to own and will pay for itself and over it just one season's heating. There is no costly installation-it simply sets on the center of the grate. It is essential in operation that the coal in the fire bed be kept at least 8 inches above the top of the KOL-SAVER. Some ashes should be left in the furnace to insure proper operation. In no instance will the KOL-SAVER
