Oh yes! The Regis Hotel and the White Horse waiters are quick stepping with a pleasing smile always.

We should at all times be ready for improvements and new ideas, as time brings changes. And by careful thinking as to what we can add to bring about desirable changes from former customs so that the very fine guests we serve will always think kindly of us and make it known to their friends. And in the long run it will be a great help in building up a solid service foundation.

LEGION SIDELITES

by JULIUS E. HILL

Now that the holiday season is over members of Roosevelt Post No. 30, The American Legion have rolled up their sleeves and gone to work on their 1944 program. And they have no intentions of allowing this program to be curtailed because there has been forced upon them an earlier closing hour by the city officials.

To do so at this time would indicate a loss of faith in the public and especially the patrons of The Lounge, their night club. And this is no time to lose faith in anyone or anything that has contributed to the success of the Post the past year.

PROMOTION GRANTED OMAHA BOY

Great Lakes, Ill., January 7—A promotion to the rate of Hospital Apprentice second class was granted to Bluejacket Harold J. Lane, 32, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, 2818 Seward, Omaha, Nebraska, in recent graduation ceremonies at the Hospital Corps School at the U. S. Naval Hospital here.

Graduation terminates a six-week course of preliminary training at the Hospital Corps School. Included in the course is the study of anatomy and physiology, hygiene and weights and measures, first aid and bandaging, nursing, transportation of casualties, and dietetics.

The newly graduated man will continue to train at another Naval hospital before being sent to duty at sea or at another shore station.

JOE GLASS JOINS NAVY

Joseph Glass, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron J. Glass, 2559 Burdette street, deciding that he would rather join the Navy and see the world than go to school any longer, Thursday, January 6th enlisted in a recruiting station and proceeded to enlist in that branch of the military service for the duration. He passed all physical requirements and would be now, have been non his way to some training station but for a little discrepancy in his age, it being a bit below par, which made it necessary for him to get the consent of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Glass much preferred that Joseph wait until he was called into the service, but after holding a family council decided to give him their consent and parental blessing. So if things proceed according to plans Joseph will leave Omaha Monday January 17, for some naval training station. His enlistment recalls to mind similar action by his brother Booker nearly three years ago. He too, went down town on what was supposedly a harmless mission out returned home and amazed his parents by informing them he had joined the army. So now with Joseph soon to leave to do his bit there will be two silver stars instead of one on the Glass' Service flag.

FIGHTS POLL TAX

Speaking before a huge mixed audience during the holiday week at the Blackwell Memorial Church here, Chicago's Mayor Edward J. Kelly had a plea to his audience for its help in the passage of the anti-poll tax Bill, which comes up before the Senate on January 17. The Mayor said that there were six million whites and 5 million Negroes who are victims of the Poll Tax Law and that every Good American regardless of race or creed should write his or her Senator now and demand him to vote for cloture.
