DUKE'S BETTE IS IVY'S DOUBLE?

Although the question asked specifically now days about Duke Ellington's nw "vocaltress," Bette Roche, "is she Ivy's sister?" keep the Duke saying, "No! No! No!" there is quite a resemblance. Pictured left is Bette and right shows "the great Ivy" who resigned from the Ellington group several months ago and is now the Chicken Queen of Los Angeles where she says her chicken is consistently good. The Ellington bansters currently appearing at Chicago's Stevns Hotel and Bette is outstanding in numbers "the great Ivy" made famous, "Rocks in My Bed," "Take the A Train," and "Going Away Blues." However Mercer Ellington's "I Won der Why" appears to have been designd for her deep-throated voice. She is a sender-so was Ivy! (Press Photo Service)
