Public Ownership People Say They CAN'T Be Taxed... One of the news gathering agencies sent out the following news story which was published in many Nebraska daily newspapers: LINCOLN—Attorneys for the Platte Valley Public Power district have filed a brief in supreme court in which they state that the district is not a private corporation but is a creature of the legislature and therefore not subject to taxation. The case was appealed to the supreme court from the Lincoln county district court which held that the county has the right to assess personal property of the district. Attorneys for this publicly-owned utility contend that it is not subject to taxation. Since 1917 the Nebraska Power Company has paid $22,914,400 in taxes—TAXES YOU WOULD HAVE HAD TO PAY IF THE COMPANY HAD NOT PAID THEM. NEBRASKA POWER COMPANY Does NOT Have to Be Sold—Statements to the Contrary Are False!

AUXILIARY DOING WELL IN THE SALE OF BONDS... In the sale of War Bonds and Stamps the Ladies Auxiliary to Roosevelt Post No. 30 American Legion is doing even better than the most optimistic anticipated. All members selling haven't made reports at this time, but if their sales are as brisk as those of Legionnettes Mary Butler and Esther Hicks, Commander Carey of the Post may have his desire fulfilled—which is to sell more War Bonds and Stamps than any other group on the northside.

5 WARS... Smith Bros. has served the public since 1847. In that period America has fought five wars. Only during wartime has there ever been any shortage of Smith Bros. Cough Drops. CONVALESCING... Approximately two weeks or more the Rev. J. E. Blackmore has been down with the influenza. In behalf of Rev. Blackmore we wish to state that, he keeps going in spite of his ailment and unlike most of us very seldom complains. He smiles constantly, is congenial, and ready at all times to respond when called upon to do so. He hasn't missed a Sunday in his pulpit though advised by his physician to remain in bed. Last Sunday night on his way to St. Johns for the Union Service, he was stricken with tri-ocular arthritis, and got as far as Johnson's Drug store, there he received temporary relief and then went home. We wish for him a speedy recovery and hope to see him at Pilgrim Baptist Church, Sunday night.

HERE TO ATTEND DAUGHTER'S GRADUATION... Mrs. Ben Nelson, left Wednesday January 26th to return to Alliance, Nebraska, after being in the city for a week to attend the graduation of her daughter, Florentine Crawford, from Lothrop grade school. INJURES EYE... Joseph Henry, 2411 Blondo, received quite an injury to his left eye when he attempted to get a hen from behind his hen house. As he went to stoop down a board struck him in his eye and, according to his own statement, knocked him unconscious for some time. His left eye still shows the effect of the blow, but there doesn't seem to be any permanent injury to the optic.

ATTENDED WOMEN'S WORK PROGRAM... Commander J. C. Carey and J. E. Hill, Legionnaires, attended the Women's Work program at the Church of the Living God, 1906 North 24th Street, Sunday afternoon January 23rd. J. C. Carey was in charge of the collection and saw to it that it was worthwhile. J. E. Hill rendered a vocal solo, accompanied himself on the piano. The Pastor of the Church, Rev. S. K. Nichols is a veteran of World War I and a member of the Roosevelt Post No. 30 and well liked by his comrades. And they never fail to give him their support whenever he calls on them. The program was well rendered by all who participated and it was very pleasing to note the obvious seriousness of purpose shown by the Women's Work group who sponsored the program.

CONDUCT A FIRST CLASS EATING PLACE... When Mr. Bob Ewing and Mr. Sam Kellogg took over the lunch counter at Heck's Tavern they seemingly were of the opinion that it was not smart business to just have another eating place, so have made theirs one of the best on the northside. They serve good food, and they give good service, and all in all to eat at their lunch counter is doing both them and the customer a good deed.
