CHEERED BY THE CHAMP!

Dapper Charlie Glenn, the 1-A proprietor of the swanky Rhumbogie Cafe in Chicago which is known from Coast to Coast as the playhouse of Joe Louis, is all smiles this week. Sgt. Joe Louis and party cheered and applauded over and over again when the above dimpled-kneed ebories shook plenty hoofs for the Boogie patrons. They are a part of the 15 dancers tersichoreans featured at the bright spot, whose names are omitted because they claim their fan mail bag is already beaming.

NORTH 24TH STREET USO VARIETY SHOW PLEASURES

The Variety Show "TURN TO" presented by the enlisted personnel of the Hastings Naval Ammunition Depot played before a large crowd at the St. Benedict's Auditorium on last Saturday night and those in attendance were of the same accord when they stated that this was one of the best shows that they had witnessed. The fast stepping show which was produced by Ensign R. S. Brewer, Company Officer brought out the special talents of the men, in singing, dancing and comedy stunts. The show will be repeated the latter part of March.

SATURDAY'S PROGRAM
A special feature is in the store for the servicemen and their friends on Saturday night at St. Benedict's Gymnasium, when a double header basketball game will be played. The first game slated for 8 o'clock will feature an all star girls game between two picked teams of the Girls Service Organization. This promises to be a thriller and a great deal of interest is being manifested among the girls who are anxious to get back on the court again. The second game will find the Fort Crook Team, matched against the fast stepping 36th Aviation Squadron from Kearney, Nebraska. The local team will be sporting new uniforms and expect to make up to their first defeat at the hands of Grand Island. A dance will follow the two games.

TRIPS FOR NEXT WEEK
A heavy schedule is in store for next week. On Tuesday they visit Kearney for their usual program, accompanied by the USO Orchestra and on Wednesday night at Fort Crook, Thursday, to Grand Island accompanied by the Fort Crook basketball team for a double attraction, and on Saturday night a special basketball game between Fort Crook and the Navy Boys from Hastings.
USO ARRANGES WEDDING
Another unique function of the 24th St. USO Club is the planning and supervision of weddings for the servicemen. Mrs. Ruby E. Reese, hostess for the USO agents are suffering from a lack of correct usage by those empowered to execute them, then not the methods but the executives should be held to account. BUT LET THE WHO IS WITHOUT SIN CAST THE FIRST STONE.

As has been stated in another article, (and by now should be well known by every member regardless) a legion post is not a one man organization. All have and must take an active part in it if it is to be successful and its management kept out of the hands of a few.

Every member has a right to express his views and assist in forming the plans of the post and vote against conditions that they consider detrimental to its welfare. But the views of a member nor his vote for changes in the present setup should be influenced by what others say about those in office nor by persons trying to advise him, but only by his own sound, careful and fair-minded judgement.

And in considering a desire for a change each member should bear well in mind the nature, characteristic and personal background of those seeking an office. There should be no jumping at conclusions, no eagerness to change on setup for another unless it is reasonably certain that he and his comrades will get a fairer deal. Oftentimes a new setup turns out to be one fostered by a few for their personal benefit and financial gain. Where do we go from here? Let us hope it will be UP and not DOWN!

ADVICE TO LEGIONNAIRE

(by JULIUS E. HILL)
If he should ask you for some dough,
Don't say you've none to spare;
Don't bowl him out and turn him down,
He may be a Legionnaire!
If he should gripe about his plight
And seem in black despair,
Don't laugh at him—make him feel cheap,
He may be a legionnaire.
Don't shun him if he needs a shave,
And some clean clothes to wear,
Perhaps he's really in tough luck
And may be a legionnaire.
If he's just an ex-serviceman,
Give him some friendly care.

POWER AND THE PUBLIC.
J. E. Davidson of the Nebraska Power Company is an ingratiating fellow, in addition to being an extremely good business man. His company occupies an enviable position in this region, with its customers apparently happy and well served. The concern manufactures and sells electricity here at a price lower than in most cities. Even though Senator Norris once took a couple of days of the senate's time to denounce the financial setup of the company, it is impossible to believe it is wholly selfish, or entirely wicked. These thoughts are summed up in part
Reprinted from the World-Herald

Here is what the World-Herald said about the Nebraska Power Company when it wasn't angry—when it was impartial and handled the news without prejudice.
The World-Herald, in carrying out its program of "rule or ruin" tells you that our Company is a "wicked thing" and should be destroyed . . . that our rates are high . . . and that we are driving industry from Omaha.

It is unnecessary for us to point out that these statements are totally unfounded. Our Company has always tried to do the right thing and be a good citizen of Omaha. Our rates are among the lowest in the nation. Our industrial power rates are an inducement to industry and have encouraged the expansion of industrial plants, thereby creating more jobs for Omaha families.

If your electric rates were low in 1934, as stated by the World-Herald in the above editorial, then electricity certainly must be CHEAP now because we have CUT RATES THREE TIMES since 1934.
