GOV. GRISWOLD GAVE NICE TALK AT POST No. 30 In connection of Negro History Week Program, Gov. Dwight Griswold gave a nice talk at Theodore Roosevelt Post No. 30, Thursday evening Feb. 17. Without script he stood before those present and talked as persons have a way of doing when talking to their friends and make no other desire than to have clear the subject they are discussing.

Others who spoke on the program were County Attorney E. Morgan, Bob Troyer, County Judge Attorney H. J. Pinker, Attorney W. B. Bryant, Charles Washington, editor of the Omaha Star, J. C. Carey, Commander Roosevelt Post No. 30 and the Past Commanders of the post. And C. C. Galloway, editor of the Omaha Guide, who introduced the Governor.

Charles Washington and the officials of the Post were responsible for the Governor's presence to address the meeting in connection with its Negro History Week program.

buyers in 15 cities and brought in more than a billion dollars. Hollywood's activities for the Treasury Department were cited as an important contribution to the national war effort. The report also listed 72 broadcasts, 28 transcriptions and 108 rallies and other personal appearance events in which members of the talent pool participated for the War Finance Committee.

Meeting an ever increasing demand for recorded entertainment for American forces overseas, Hollywood stars created 566 transcribed programs for the Armed Forces Radio Service in the 12 months covered by the report. Other transcriptions and broadcasts for government and relief agencies brought the year's total to 1,941, representing 2589 individual appearances.

In other contributions through the Victory Committee top ranking personalities aided the Red Cross, National War Fund, Army, Navy and relief agencies, Infantile Paralysis Foundation and various United Nations relief campaigns.

The Hollywood Victory Committee for stage, screen and radio is a non-profit organization representing 21 entertainment industry guilds and associations. Organized shortly after America entered the war, it combined the patriotic efforts of all branches of the industry, with support of film studios.
