

EXTINGUISHES FIRE IN HOME WITH OGD HAND PUMP

Clyde Betts, 3129 South 18th St., earned his appointment as senior fire guard of Vinton school district by extinguishing a fire in his own home with a hand pump fire extinguisher furnished by the Omaha Civilian Defense fire guard organization.

Awakened early Thursday morning by smoke, Betts found ceiling rafters in the basement ablaze, the fire having started from a disconnected furnace pipe. With the fire extinguisher he had received as an OGD auxiliary policeman and fire guard, he put out the fire without calling the city fire department.

When he reported the incident, Harry Owen, chief fire guard, appointed him senior fire guard of Vinton school district which will hold its fire guard organization meeting at the school March 9.

Castelar school district fire guards will be organized at a meeting at the school at 8 p. m. Monday, with Dwight Eckles as senior fire guard, and Sherman school district with Chester Light as senior fire guard, will be organized March 3, Owen announced.

OGD auxiliary police of District Two will meet at South Side city hall Wednesday night, when 80 members will be graduated as fire guards with James Riha, district auxiliary police commander as senior fire guard.

"ABOUT OUR FRIENDS....."

INKSPOTS We have heard of folks having spots before their eyes; we have heard of folks even getting ink spots on their clothes; But it was left to Mrs. Hattie Allen, 2114 Clark, to come up with a new one: inkspots on her mind.

The Inkspots we refer to are the four who were at the Orpheum Theatre a few weeks ago. They have been here before but Mrs. Allen didn't go to see them. They came again and still she didn't make a move to do something about it. But she didn't do something about it those times she certainly did the last time.

She just couldn't get her mind off them. She really had the inkspots on her mind. So when they returned this year she got herself together and went to see them. And that's just part of the story.

Her going to see them attests to their wonderful drawing power and popularity if nothing else does. For it has been so she tells us, ten years since she has set foot in a theatre. She enjoyed the experience greatly until it was time to return home. It was then that despite her having been relieved of 'inkspots' on her mind she was very unhappy about the whole thing. She isn't any too fond of walking and doesn't like waiting for street cars. And she couldn't get a taxi. Now you folks can see what the inkspots did to Mrs. Hattie Allen.

PRaisEWORTHY

ATTENDS BOULE

Dr. Connie R. Yerwood-Odom of Austin, Texas and who is Medical Consultant for the State's Department of Health was one of the several hundred delegates who attended the Alpha Kappa Alpha Boule which closed Feb. 20. Considered as one of the top ranking physicians and surgeons in her state, Dr. Yerwood, who is a Meharry graduate, holds the distinction of being the first and only physician of her race on the Lone Star State's Medical staff. She lauded the work of the Municipal Tuberculosis and Provident Hospitals, where she made extensive visits and marveled at the hospitality shown members of her sorority during its period there. Dr. Yerwood is a South Central Regional Director of the AKA Sorority and was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metcalf of South Michigan Ave.

It used to be TABOO for girls to discuss this kind of help. Many a girl has suffered from cramp-like pain and other distresses due only to periodic functional causes simply because that was a subject people didn't talk about. Nowadays, thousands of women rely on the 2-way help of CARDUI. Started 3 days before the time and taken as directed, CARDUI should help relieve purely functional periodic pain. Used as a tonic, it often perks up appetite, increases the flow of gastric juices, thus aiding digestion and thereby helping to build up strength and resistance for the time it's most needed. CARDUI may help you. A 62-year record says it's worth a trial.
