VOID LILY-WHITE JURY VERDICT

New Orleans, April 23 (ANP) — Louisiana Senators who along with other Dixie solons have raged against the Texas primary decision as "outside meddling" Tuesday no doubt read with consternation that the Louisiana Supreme court in annulling the murder conviction of Herbert Anderson, of Allen parish, held that Anderson had been discriminated against because Negroes had been excluded from jury service.

Anderson, accused of killing W. H. Bishop, police chief of Oakdale, La., claimed self-defense and declared that he was denied fair treatment because there were no Negroes on either jury which indicted him or the petit jury which convicted him.

The court ordered the indictment of Anderson quashed, holding that there had been racial discrimination in denial of the "equal rights" clause of the federal constitution. The decision overruled District Judge Mark C. Pickrell, who had refused a motion to quash the indictment. The opinion was read by Justice Archie T. Higgins.

INDIVIDUALS, ORGANIZATIONS CONTRIBUTE TOWARDS BORDEAUX REHABILITATION

HOWARD BORDEAUX

FUND IS NOW $80.00

IT CAN HAPPEN TO YOU.

YES!—It can happen to anyone. Mr. Bordeaux, the likeness of whom you see in this column and for whom I am offering proof of his condition, came into my office of the Omaha Guide Publishing Co., and asked me to assume a very important position—namely to act as chairman of a campaign to raise funds to secure him an artificial leg and to accept custodianship of this said fund. He stated he had the endorsement of the following public-spirited, fraternal, civic and religious organizations: The Mid-City Community Center Urban League of which Mr. R. R. Borwin is Executive Secy.; Roosevelt Post No. 30, J. C. Carey, Commander, Elks' Lodge, Atty. Charles F. Davis, Exalted Ruler; Dining Car Waiters Local 465, Mr. Rufus Lonz, Executive Secy.; Ministerial Alliance, Rev. C. C. Reynolds, President.

After considering this request at length, I decided to assume the responsibility of the above campaign to raise the necessary funds with such fine endorsements and cooperation from the above groups, therefore, I am assuming chairmanship of this drive to raise the money necessary to restore this unfortunate man back on two feet, so he will not become a public care of charity.

As custodian and chairman of this fund to be raised, I sincerely assure you that whatever amount you contribute will go to remedying the present unfortunate condition of this man.

After making careful analysis of his condition and the cost of the limb which he wants to buy, I believe that whatever amount you contribute will go to remedying the present unfortunate condition of this man.

Mr. Bordeaux has had quite a wide experience with newspaper advertising salesmanship. It is my firm belief that if he is rehabilitated with a limb, he will be in a position to assume a job as advertising salesman for some newspaper. The Omaha Guide is attempting to get acquainted with his salesmanship procedure and we believe that when his health permits and he has his artificial limb, we will be in a position to find a place for him in our organization.

So my friends, if you believe in rehabilitation of those less fortunate than yourself, you are hereby requested to make your contribution for this unfortunate man, to C. C. Galloway at 2420 Grant Street.

Each week in the column of this paper the name of the organization or individual, will appear opposite their contribution.

The following organizations and individuals have given this effort to shove so far up the grade:

Elks' Lodge	$10.00
Roosevelt Post No. 30	10.00
Det. Sgt. U. S. Matthews	5.00
Det. Sgt. C. C. Dudley	5.00
Eugene McGill	10.00
Omaha Guide Publ. Co.	10.00
Sgt. Carl Rabes	15.00
H & M Buifett	10.00
Mr. Parsel	5.00

As we go to press this week, the total sum on hand is $80.00. Thanking you in advance for your favorable consideration for a good cause.

He was a correspondent for the New York Post. Mr. White reported that he was impressed primarily with the morale and spirit of Negro soldiers in the face of difficulties. Great numbers of white soldiers and officers as well, evidenced deep concern over the race issue as a world problem, rather than one limited to any particular locale.

After visits to camps with more than 20,000 enlisted men, officers, Red Cross workers and civilians, both whites and Negroes, Mr. White predicts that America, with no small role in the struggle, will be some time adjusting to the great change now in progress.

HOWARD PRESIDENT WANTS FREE WORLD HE TELLS ASSEMBLY OF MINISTERS

Washington, April 24 (ANP) — President Morgdecai Johnson of the Howard university, speaking at the public meeting of the Washington bureau of the Fraternal Council on Negro churches on Tuesday night, presented his views on world affairs and the peace, and won the plaudits of some 1,500 persons gathered to hear him speak.

Three weeks ago Dr. Johnson was endorsed by the Baptist Pastors conference of Chicago as the likely Negro to be presented at the peace table. The endorsement was given on the basis of his "courage to fittingly represent the race," as well as his character and foresight.

The well-known educator, speaking in parable form, set forth his views on four items:

1. He rejected isolationism and favored a world organization.
2. He opposed imperialism and favored self-government for colonial peoples.
3. He rejected war as a means of settling international disputes.
4. He demanded a "demonstration of trust" by the United States by doing for the Negro in this country "what ought to be done for the Indians, the Africans, the Philippines and others."

OHIO GOP VICE PRESIDENT

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 23—(ANP)—It became unmistakably clear early last week that the hitherto forgotten general election will provide the next major fight in South Carolina. Heretofore, because of the absence of opposition, not even the white Democrats themselves have bothered to vote in the general election—the actual legal election. In the last general election, the state gave approximately 12,500 votes. In 1942, Columbia elected a mayor and two councilmen on a total of 39 votes in the general election.

Action to an announcement that colored citizens through their Democratic organization planned to have their own complete ticket in the general election, was immediate last week. Some of the lawmakers now in extra session to purge statutes of primary regulations, sensed a threat more serious than Negro participation in the primary.

Sen. Joe Berry of Richmond county fumed that "Unless we can urge the white people in South Carolina to go and qualify themselves so they can vote in the general election this fall, we are accomplishing nothing."

The Columbia Record, editorializing on the importance of the general election, Monday said: "It is important that every qualified elector should participate both in the primary and in the general election. The Democratic party may be opposed in the general election."

Incidentally it has repeatedly warned that one morning white Democrats are liable to awake, and find their nominees defeated in a general election because of neglect.

The effort to block Negroes out of politics in South Carolina is by no means confined to the white Democratic party. In Charleston just last month, no less than 300 of them were turned away from places of registration. The devices heretofore employed by registration clerks against Negroes are too numerous to mention. But they range from requiring the registrant to "interpret" the constitution and recite it from memory to the bald statement, "Voting is not for Negroes." (This actually happens in Berkeley county in 1939).

In 1940, Mrs. Lottie P. Gaffney, a school teacher in Cherokee county, attempted to register for the general election. Thrice was she refused, even with a witness. She sued officials but a federal court ruled against her at Spartanburg two years ago.

With the primary broken up, either through the repeal of former legislation safeguards or a supreme court decision, other means of keeping Negroes out of politics will be employed. Without doubt, these will be used by registration clerks so long as it shall go uncontested.

Generally, any native born citizen, or a person who has resided in the state for two years, can qualify to vote in the general election. Women over 21 simply apply to registration clerks at their county courthouse the first Monday of each month, provided that date is more than 30 days away from an election. They pay no tax and need only to be able to read and write or own property valued at not less than $300.

Men between the ages of 21 and 59 must show a poll tax receipt. Otherwise their qualifications are the same as for women. Persons registering now will have to re-register in 1948.

In cases where legal qualifications for registration are met and there is refusal by clerks under any pretense whatsoever, the legal section of the NAACP is a good place to go. Cases of this nature will not have to be carried to the U. S. Supreme Court. The district court will suffice.

MEHARRY GETS 4 MILLION DOLLAR GIFT FOR COLLEGE ENDOWMENT FUND

Announcement of a $4,000,000 appropriation for the endowment fund of Meharry Medical College, Nashville, by the general Education board, was made today by Charles Nelson, president of the board of trustees of the institution and President Edward L. Turner.

At the same time, it was announced that an additional grant of $300,000 from the same source, to be used as a contingent fund for current expenses of the institution, becomes effective July 1.

Nelson said notice of the action of the General Education Board followed the efforts of the Board of Trustees and President Turner over a period of several years to bring about stabilization of the institution's financial program, so that plans may be matured for its future development.

President Turner said that the announcement by the General Education Board "is the fruition of about five years of good, hard work on the problem of getting Meharry's financial position reasonably stable."

"Heretofore," he added, "we have depended on annual grants which have been subject to variation. What this means," he continued, "is the stabilization of these annual grants, so that we may now plan ahead for five years rather than for a single year."

"The developments which led to this gift would not have been possible but for the splendid work done by my colleagues. I am deeply gratified and most appreciative of what the General Education Board has done. In that I express not only my opinion but that of the Meharry faculty as well," President Turner said.

Referring to the cooperation of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, headed by Charles Nelson, President Turner said he could not have accomplished much at Meharry but for its full cooperation. Members of the Executive Committee are Charles Nelson, Walter M. Morgan, A. B. Benedict, O. W. Hyman, M. S. Davage, T. Graham Hall, W. S. Leathers, G. W. Claridge and E. L. Turner.

The $4,000,000 appropriation announced today, according to Nelson, assures the college, in addition to its more than $2,000,000 plant, an endowment in excess of $5,000,000.

Leading Negro Institution

Meharry Medical College, rated among the leading institutions in the country for Negroes, was organized in 1876, as the medical department of the old Central Tennessee College.

In October, 1915 Meharry Medical College obtained a new charter for the State of Tennessee as an independent institution, to support and maintain a medical college, with departments of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and nurse training, together with the maintenance of a hospital, and was granted such powers and privileges as usually exercised by institutions of that type, with power to confer degrees.

The late Dr. George W. Hubbard for whom Hubbard Hospital was named, was its first president. In 1921 Dr. John J. Malloway became its president. During his administration the General Education Board, the Rosenwald Fund, George Eastman, of Kodak fame, and others contributed to erect the present plant at 1005 Eighteenth Avenue, North which cost approximately $2,250,000 and which was completed in 1931.

Dr. Malloway resigned as president of the institution in 1938, when Dr. Turner was named as its president, which position he has since occupied.

During its long existence, Meharry has conferred approximately 5,000 degrees, and its graduates are located in Negro communities throughout the United States, Central America and the West Indies and Africa.

Soldier's Letter Tells of Racial Harmony in Army Hospitals

New York, April 22 (ANP) —A picture of racial harmony in Army hospitals was given this week when Pfc Murray E. Bocarnick's letter to the people's column of Time magazine was published.

"I wish some of those bigoted persons who are the spokesmen for the unfortunate people of the southern states would spend a week in this army hospital," wrote Pfc Bocarnick. "It would be a valuable lesson for them."

"We are in a quarantined ward for mumps. Four of the 16 patients are Negroes, and nine of the 12 white soldiers hail from the south. There has not been one instance of racial friction since I have been here. We play cards together, borrow each other's books and stationery, bum each other's cigarettes. And finally, I have never heard the racial problem discussed with more judgment, discretion and frankness than in this ward."

"When called upon to share a common undertaking in a common background the southern soldier accepts the Negro soldier as an equal. It is not for the numerous restrictions imposed upon the southern Negro civilian life, the same would unquestionably hold true in peacetime."
