

99th Celebrates Its Combat Anniversary In Action

Allied Forces Headquarters, Italy, June 14 (PPNS) Exactly one year after they flew their first mission over an air base at Fardjouna, North Africa, pilots of the 99th Fighter Squadron, an all Negro Unit now operating from an Italian Base flew their 500th combat mission, June 2, 1944. Now on detached service with a Fighter Group which has been flying in close support of advancing lines, motor transports, rail yard and gun emplacements, the squadron has flown 3,278 sorties during its first year of service.

The Squadron's outstanding success was achieved during the first days of the Anzio Beachhead, when it knocked down eight enemy planes in a single day.

The Squadron scored 16 victories in ten days over Anzio. The 99th pilots have flown 298 missions over Italy, having flown in support for the British Eighth Army on the Adriatic coast before their new assignment with the Fifth Army.

Captain Charles Baker Hall, of Brazil, Indiana, leading pilot of the squadron, has received the Distinguished Flying Cross. The 99th has lost only 12 pilots during its first year. Five were killed in action, four are missing and three are known to be prisoners of war.

Captain Erwin Baker Lawrence of 2168 East 90th Street, Cleveland, Ohio, is in command of the Fighter Squadron during the absence of Major George Spencer Roberts, Squadron Commander, now on leave in the United States.

FIGHTER SQUADRON COMMANDER—Major George S. Roberts, Commanding Officer of the 99th Fighter Squadron now in Italy, told newsmen about the combat experience of his famous unit at a press conference held in Washington, D. C., early this month. The 25-year-old flier, in the United States for a rest, has completed 78 missions without injury, although his ships have been hit by flak 73 times. (Photo by Army Air Forces.)

DUNJEE SUPPORTS FOURTH TERM

Roscoe Dunjee, distinguished Southern Negro leader and publisher of the Black Dispatch in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, will be one of the principal speakers at the unity rally of the Negro People's Assembly on Sunday, June 25, at the Savoy Ballroom.

In the Republican Convention in 1928 at Kansas, Dunjee sat as a delegate. In commenting on that convention Dunjee declared: "I shall never forget that memorable and despicable scene when, in spite of the truth and the facts, the Republican Party sold the Negro down the river. Lilywhiteism drove me out of the Republican Party. I was wounded in the house of my 'friends'."

The Studio which produced the great "Mrs. Miniver" continues a tradition—making of "The White Cliffs of Dover" another great and important picture. This is magnificent MGM entertainment—but it is also a contribution to the hope of the future in the partnership of nations, especially those which share a common language.

For it is a story of a way of life and shows how that way of life dovetails with the American Way.

The canvas is large—the story is simple and personal. Centering around an American girl—played by the charming Irene Dunne—and the love she finds among the stately homes of Britain, in the person of Alan Marshal.

Adventure, excitement, bravery, action and infinite tenderness are all woven into "The White Cliffs of Dover" in the screen play by Claudine West, Jan Lustig and George Froeschel.

Dean Jagger will be Producer C. P. MacGregor's guest star on Hollywood Radio Theatre over WOW.

Primary credit should go to Clarence Brown who gratified a strong ambition in planning and directing this production. He was admirably spurred on by the able cooperation of a man who has emerged as the screen's greatest producer, Sidney Franklin.
