MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. David St. Clair, Pastor

"In the beginning was the word and the Word was with God." Attendance was very good throughout the day and the pastor brought his appreciative membership, visitors and friends soul stirring messages at both the morning and evening worship. Many good thoughts were brought forth that provided much food for serious meditation.

Prominent among these was that the Church is not a place of amusement, not a cafe or a place to appease one's appetite, but a place where one gets their mind on spiritual things.

Communion was given at the close of the evening worship. Again a good time, rejoicing in the God of our salvation was had by all.

Special effort for the month is the trip to Canada.

Among those who are ill are: Sis. Gertrude Alexander of Kansas City, Kans., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Betts who underwent a major operation at the Immanuel hospital last Friday. At this writing, her condition was reported good.

Sis. Corrine Harris, who has been a house guest at the parsonage, left Monday morning for her home in Liberty, Mo.

Visitors and friends are always welcome to all of our services. Everybody is invited to come out and worship with us.

17-Year-Old Negro Youths Urged to Join These Warriors in U. S. Coast Guard

Seeking the voluntary enlistment of 1,700 Negro youths in the Steward's Mate Branch, U. S. Coast Guard Headquarters this week called attention to the fact that the 17-year-old volunteers in this branch will also get a crack at the enemy. At left (top and bottom) Coast Guardsman Browning Lutter, steward's mate third class, of 4401 South Parkway, Chicago, Ill., is shown making the flash change from galleyman to gun-talker when general quarters alarm is sounded aboard his Coast Guard assault transport somewhere in the South Pacific. At the right, Coast Guardsman Excell McGee, seaman first class, of 6222 Eberhart Street, Chicago, does a quick change from his job in his ship's tailor shop to his battle station as a stretcher bearer in sick bay. At top center, Steward's Mates James constitutional amendment becomes effective. What would happen to an amendment to abolish the poll-tax may be judged by the fact that the amendment to abolish child labor by this method was passed by the Congress more than two decades ago but to date only twenty-eight states have approved the child labor amendment. Any proposal of this sort can only aid the advocates of the poll-tax by relieving the pressure upon the Congress to enact legislation which competent legal authorities maintain that the Congress has the power to enact. We vigorously urge that the Governors endorse the anti-poll tax bill which passed the measurable time by this method.

Spruill of 424 Harvey Street, Elizabeth City, N. C., and J. D. Chambers, 1766 Llewellyn Avenue, Baltimore, are shown with three other members of their 20 mm. anti-aircraft gun crew aboard a Coast Guard assault transport in the South Pacific. Below, two other fighting Coast Guardsmen, Coxswain John Wyatt (left), 3430 Hickory Street, St. Louis, Mo., and Gunner's Mate Sterling Parker, 513 South 6th Street, Camden, N. J., help themselves to generous portions when "Chow Down" rings over their combat cutter in the sub-Arctic. Seventeen-year-old Negro youths who want a real crack at the enemy were urged to visit their local Coast Guard Recruiting Offices immediately.
