New York (C) Publisher Bucklin Moon, author of "Darker Brother", has only praise for Howard Fast's newest novel "Freedom Road." "It,

I left the doctor's office in a dark mood : Because he had forbidden my favorite food I recall as I hurried down the hall That I muttered "he just ain't no good". Messing with my potatoes, gravy and meat. And all the sweets I love to eat, For a few days I followed the diet

And then said I'll eat the foods I like And knocked myself outright, And when the pains became a fright I said, the doctor must be right. And again went on my diet. If you think it is easy to follow a diet-Dear reader you just try it! Go on a liquid diet all week.

And on Sunday eat plenty of meat, And feel like you swallowed Pikes Peak! If we could read the doctor's mind His thoughts are often like the following lines-The doctor said you're five foot one-

And almost weigh a ton! Something surely must be done For your health's sake you must lose weight! I'm sure the shape you're in is like old broken down over-stufefd furniture-A bulge here and a bigger one there. That badly needs repair. And madam if you please, Even a horse never pants or breathes like you unless it has a case of heaves. The doctor said inhale and exhale Poke out your chest hm! hm! you are No Mae West! Your figure is a perfect mess. Exactly like the letter S.

I trust the gals aren't envious-Of my figure so unlike the lovely Venus

That really made the doctor stare He'd never seen the like before -Anywhere! At the end of the month,

I went to see the doctor again-And all he could do was grunt, Instead of looking like a grevhound.

I had gained many a pound. Said he as he took his fee-It is very well understood,

Folks like you make our practice good! Keep doing the gorging and stuff-

But you better not try it-

Physically handicapped veterans of the present war constitute a group of productive, capable workers at a number of nearby defense plants . . . Despite predicted competition from planes and automobiles, U. S. railroads hope to attract a large share of postwar passenger traffic with faster service and lower rates after the war . . . Many big U. S. corporations already have building contracts from "occupied" countries. They await only the armistice to put their plans for reconstruction and economic expansion to work . . . Belgium plans not only to mend war damage but to build "better nation", and already the Belgian Commission has tackled the problem of relief, property restoration-and, with the help of international cooperation, hopes for postwar commerce . . National Urban League for Social Service Among Negroes is still seeking men and women with training and experience in various fields of social work to fill positions which are available in Urban League affiliates and in other social work agencies throughout the country . . NAACP cites service of Phila press stories which were unanimous in their denunciation of the recent "Race" strike by PTC workers who bolted against the upgrading of eight Negroes . . . J. Lester Kaufman new chief publicist at Republic Pics . . . Ninety-two percent of Negroes serving in U. S. Army are in labor battalions . . "After You're Gone," the popular tune of the early Twenties, revived in the film "Atlantic City", a Republic musical comedy smash hit.

S. policies and set to perform the ill deeds here in America that they succeeded in doing in the occupied countries. The countless stoppages, strikes, fires and subversive acts point to espionage. Negroes who have been the target in many instances for such un-American acts have been the subject of these Nazi agents to muddle up an already turbid situation. German agents are not interested in attacking Negroes but, the acts of these spys have now turned to Race hatred to cover their deeds, for they know too well that the determination to keep the Negro in his place is, for the most part, shared by all Whites . . .
