Truman Proclaims His Solid South Allegiance in Dixie Visit

(from Republican Natl. Committee, by Arthur B. McCaw)

NEW ORLEANS.—While northern Democratic press agents are strenuously seeking to impress northern liberal and colored voters that Senator Harry S. Truman is a liberal, the vice presidential candidate himself is seeking just as strenuously to impress Dixie that he is a reactionary, solid-South Democrat. That South, assured before and reassured now again, is going today for Truman in a big way.

Truman in a statement here declared that "the solid south could not go for a fellow like Dewey." A daily press correspondent adds that Truman found himself "in agreement with three Southern Senators: John H. Ovedton of Louisiana, Theodore Bilbo of Mississippi and John McClellan of Arkansas." His statement, the reporter continues, "was echoed" by these Senators.

Truman, himself, has left no one in doubt at any time concerning his strong race-bias convictions. Senator Bankhead and Governor Sparks of Alabama, stated in the Birmingham News of July 23, that the Truman victory over vice-president Wallace was a "real victory for the South. They assured Dixie that he was "safe on state's rights and the rights of the states to control qualifications of its electors."

"In the matter of race relations," Governor Spark continued, "Senator Truman told he is the son of an un-reconstructed rebel mother."

Truman is a rabid race reactionary according to Morris Milgram in Common Sense Magazine for October. Under the date line of "Independence, Missouri" Truman's home—after an interview, Milgram says:

"Senator Truman believes: 1. The Permanent Fair Employment Practice bill will NOT be passed because the Southern Senators will start a filibuster and stop it.

2. That if Negroes sat down to eat at a counter in a downtown drug store in Independence, Mo., they would be booted out because the management of these places have the right to refuse to serve anyone they please.

3. In equality of opportunity, but not social equality... There never will be social equality. Some Negroes are going too far in Saint Louis. There Negroes have started a 'push day' once a week, when they shove white people of the bars. Why, St. Louis is sitting on a keg of dynamite.

4. They've even got a 'push day' in Washington... I won't let my daughter go downtown on the street cars on Thursdays any more. It's not safe. They push people off the street cars."

President Roosevelt, as a matter of policy, has let the Solid South have its way in disfranchisement, Jimcrowism and patronage.

Senator Truman, if elected and should he succeed to the Presidency under any eventuality, would let the Solid South have its way, not only as

John Slavik Employees Entertain Friends at the Masonic Hall with Bingo

A group from this community, employees of Mr. John Slavik, County Clerk, entertained a number of friends at the Masonic Hall last Thursday night for the purpose of introducing Mr. Slavik to those who had not met him personally. A very large and enthusiastic group was present and enjoyed a delightful evening of bingo. A very clever way of presenting Mr. Slavik was presented by the Chairman of the evening, Mr. Crawford—instead of saying "Bingo" he was instructed to say "John Slavik".

The following persons were recipients of the marvelous prizes:—Large box of groceries and picnic ham, Mrs. Rose Littlejohn, 2623 Maple Street; a linen table cloth, slab of bacon, Mr. Garner Macklin, 2118 North 24th St., Large box of groceries, Mrs. Browns, 2124 Lake St. A Sunday Dinner box of groceries, Mrs. James Grizzard, 2860 Corby St. box of canned goods, Mrs. R. C. Gaskin, 2640 Decatur; Basket of Fruit, Mr. James Manley, 3119 Ohio Street; Glassware, a set of 8 dessert dishes, Mrs. Sara K. Walker, 2203 Charles; Special games and prizes were: Embroidered pillow cases by Mrs. Juanita Moore, 2205 Franklin St.; A Baking dish, Mrs. C. McFarland, 2707 Binney; A Stove set of China, Mrs. James Woods, 2507 N.

24th St.; A hand carved wooden tray (oriental), Mrs. Magge McGowan, 2719 1/2 North 24th St.; and the special John Slavik Prize of a ten (10) pound or more Ham was won by Mrs. Willis W. Gray, 2124 Lake St. The Ham was presented to the recipient Mrs. Gray, by Mr. Slavik with his personal wishes.

NEGR0 LEADERS POINT VALUE OF ORGANIZED PROTEST

New York—Successful in their personal efforts to circumvent the proposal of the War Department to create Jimcrow rest centers for battle weary Negro soldiers, Walter White, Mary McLeod Bethune and Dr. Channing H. Tobias said in a signed statement:

"The action of the President and the War Department in abandoning the proposal to segregate returning Negro war veterans at the Theresa and Pershing in badly over-crowded Harlem and Chicago's Southside is most gratifying. Among other things, it shows first, the value of intelligent and organized protest; and second, that when it comes to segregation, Negroes are virtually without exception completely unified in opposition to it. If the report be true, and we believe it is, one of the most hopeful phases of this struggle has been the considerable and vigorous

FIGHT AGAINST JIM CROW IN METROPOLITAN INSURANCE CO., CONTINUES

New York, N. R., October 16 — At the headquarters of the March On Washington Movement in the Theresa Hotel Building, New York, A. Philip Randolph declared that the fight to abolish racial barriers against the integration of Negroes into all categories of the business of the Metropolitan Insurance Company holds fast and will soon expand to other sections of the city.

This fight against the Metropolitan Insurance Company for the right of Negroes to be employed as agents and in the office forces and also in supervisory positions is a part of the post war planning program of the Negro people, observed Mr. Randolph. It is necessary to begin now to attack the barriers against the equality of employment for the Negro since the post war world bids fair to be one of keen rivalry for jobs among different groups of workers.

opposition within the War Department itself to the proposal to separate men on their return to America for rest and recreation who have faced death together on foreign battlefronts. We can chalk up another victory in the long, tedious fight for democracy.

The employees, J. Dillard Crawford, Mrs. Cloma Scott, Mrs. Ethel Davis Dean and Mrs. Lucy Mae Britt are more than grateful to their many friends for the support they have given and are now and will give to Mr. Slavik on November 7th.

Which shall it be?

Legal Business Prohibition

Clean, orderly, open, regulated, licensed retail establishments, conducted by business men. OR Secret, filthy "speakeasies"—unregulated and unlawful—run by gangsters and thugs.

An industry which paid Nebraska $3,500,000.00 in State and Local taxes in 1943. OR Huge tax losses. Heavy cost of attempted replacement taxes on everyone.

Pure beer and alcoholic beverages, manufactured and packaged under government supervision in modern, sanitary plants, subject to complete public control and rigid standards. OR Adulterated, impure beer and alcoholic beverages—fervidly manufactured in filthy makeshift surroundings subject to no laws, controls or regulations.

Protection against the sale of alcoholic beverages to minors. OR Sale to minors, or anyone else who will pay the price.

Nebraska State Liquor Commission, which administers the state laws now in force in the sole interests of the public, and for no special groups, either wet or dry. OR No laws but the laws of force and supply and demand. No regard for the public. Thieves and thugs a law unto themselves.

Controlled, standardized and fair prices on all alcoholic beverages in retail establishments. OR Highest prices for illegal "boozies" that the market will bear in illegal "speakeasies."

Employment of thousands of persons in Nebraska who depend for their living on the manufacture, distribution and sale of legal beverages... and jobs for returning soldiers. OR Unemployment for those thousands of law-abiding citizens—employment for gangsters and bootleggers.

Millions of dollars spent by the industries for grain, machinery, equipment... rent... real estate... services... and thousands of other expenditures necessary to conduct a legal business. OR Loss of those millions of dollars in legitimate business. Replaced by millions of dollars for graft and corruption.

Strict control and punishment of intolerance and abuses by seller or purchaser, provided for by present good state and local laws. OR No controls or punishment over either seller or purchaser, because no penalty clause is provided in proffered law.

Reductions in drunken driving and intoxication compared to the years of Prohibition. OR Hip flasks... more drunken driving... poison liquor... death and destruction.

Co-operation with public officials and police agencies by the industry in stamping out law violators and violators. OR Law violators and violators no concern of the bootleggers—only interested in personal profit.

Having a drink occasionally, with friends in your home or in a well-regulated, clean retail establishment. OR Forced to drink in filthy "speakeasies," or violate the law by having even one drink in your own home.
