We surprise her

Recently an Omaha woman told us the Nebraska Power Company never ceases to surprise her.

"First of all," she declared, "you'd think with all this wartime demand for electricity, it would have to be rationed . . . but it isn't!"

"Then, you'd expect, since living costs have gone way up, that electric rates would also climb . . . but they're as low as ever!"

"And finally, the Nebraska Power people are as courteous as ever! Seems like they never heard of 'war nerves'!"

Thank you.

We're proud of the fact that we have always had plenty of electricity to meet wartime demands—and your own electric needs! However, low rates and dependable service are harder to maintain in wartime. As for courtesy—we've specialized in courtesy for more than 25 years.

With us, courtesy is a must!

We think it's our private business management, and the hard work of experienced employees, that have enabled us to continue giving you the same quality electric service in war as in peace.

URBAN LEAGUE PRESENTS LECTURER-MUSICIAN IN RECITAL

The members and friends of the Omaha Urban League were invited to hear a brief recital by Charles Lampkin, lecturer and musician, in the League auditorium, Wednesday, October 25 at 8:15 pm.

Mr. Lampkin, a graduate of John Carroll University of Cleveland, Ohio and student at the Julliard School of Music, New York City, had appeared at the Omaha and Council Bluffs High Schools' students assemblies. His style of presenting works of outstanding Negro poets combined with piano accompaniment of his own composition was heartily received by his Omaha audiences. Mr. Lampkin lives in Long Island, New York.

Troop leaders of Boy Scout troop No. 22 attended a training course in Boy Scout Leadership Methods at the Sea Scout Base at Carter Lake, Iowa, the weekend of October 21, and 22nd. Mr. Eugene Skinner, scoutmaster, Ernest Carter, assistant scoutmaster and Duward R. Crooms, Boy's Work Sec'y, represented the troop at this meeting.

Troop No. 22 meets at the Urban League every Thursday night from 7 to 9 p.m. All boys over 12 are invited to join.

Mr. Robert Myers, prominent young business man, serves as leader of a men's physical fitness class which meets every Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the League for relaxing recreation, games, sports and exercise. All men of any age can find enjoyment in this activity as well as an opportunity to develop their health and strength. The group has been organized by the Boys Work Department.

The Boys Work Secretary is announcing the opening of another woodwork class for boys of 8 to 13 on Fridays from 3:30 to 5:30 pm. in the League's workshop under instructor Ernest Carter, Technical High School Student. Ten boys are in the class now but a few more can be enrolled. The other woodwork class for boys over 13, taught by Mr. Rudolph Gerren, mail-carrier, is held on Wednesdays.

In a meeting at the Northside 'Y' last Wednesday, the Omaha Negro Youth Council was honored by a visit and special selection from Mr. Charles Lampkin, artist, musician, and lecturer of New York City.

The Council's bi-monthly dance at the Urban League on Friday, October 20 was not very well attended because teenagers were attracted to Swing Inn, new Community Welfare Council teen-agers center at Central Club, where the Cats of Rhythm staged a special performance.

The Council members are redecorating and refurbishing a room at the Urban League for a teen-age lounge. It promises to be an interesting spot for the neighborhood youth.

The young people's groups of the Congregational Churches in Western Iowa, called the Iowa Pilgrim Fellowship, invited Raymond R. Brown, League Executive, to serve as discussion leader at their conference in Lewis, Iowa, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 22nd.

About 175 youth were in attendance from various counties surrounding Lewis and heard discussed the subject, "The Church's Post-War Attitudes Toward 1. Understanding our Returning Servicemen; 2. Race and Class Relationship; 3. Emphasis on Religion.

"The Home Community must concentrate itself to an appreciation of the veteran's experiences", Mr. Brown said, "and must make a practical application of the teachings of Christ, the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Mankind, if we expect to meet this problem effectively and honestly."

Mr. Charles Lampkin gave two excellent readings by Negro poets. Others in the Omaha party were Mr. Duward R. Crooms and three Negro Youth Council members, Miss Evelyn Grice, Pres., Miss Eloise Jones, Sec'y., and Samuel Lee. All contributed to the discussion and remained for the fellowship supper.

For DISTRICT JUDGE JAMES M. PATTON, candidate for District Judge is well known in School and Athletic circles. During the many years that he was developing athletes and character at South high school. He was at the same time a practicing attorney in the city of Omaha, which has gained for him a fine place in the legal life of the community in preparing himself for the position he now seeks as a member of the District Court Bench.

Some of the outstanding athletes he developed at South High school are John Wakefield, Fred Wakefield, Dave Riddles, Johnnie Owens, Elmer Washington, Virgil Williams, Chas. Stuart, Ace Breakfield and John Fountain. Any of these men can attest to the fairness of Jim Patton.

Vote 'NO' on BOTH Two issues upon which Nebraska voters will give their verdict November 7 are much in the news these days. One is the proposed state prohibition law. The other is the proposed amendment that would prevent the continued use of a portion of the gasoline tax for old-age assistance.

In addition to the many compelling arguments against them, fact-finding figures presented recently provide additional urgent reasons why every thinking voter should vote "No" on BOTH measures.

Directors of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce appointed a special committee to investigate the probable effects of the two measures upon Nebraska's tax structure. The group was instructed to dig up facts and to refrain from drawing partisan conclusions. The committee discovered that Nebraska liquor revenues for the year ending December 1, 1943, totaled $2,520,070. Of that amount, $1,919,112 was allocated to the state assistance fund, with the remainder distributed equitably among the counties, cities and schools.

If the state returns to prohibition that loss of revenue must be made up through some other system of taxation. In addition, hundreds of thousands of dollars would have to be provided in the foredoomed effort to enforce the ban on beer and liquors.

The Chamber committee discovered a larger potential loss with regard to the proposed gas tax restrictive measure. Under the present arrangement which would be discontinued if the proposed amendment were approved, the state assistance fund received $2,081,413 for the year ending July 1.

This amount also would need to be made up through some other form of taxation. The proposed amendment does not prohibit collection of the present full tax, but would divert it exclusively to highway use. Attorneys have questioned whether, under the amendment, cities, towns and villages might not lose large sums for paving and maintenance because of the ambiguity of the proposal.

Actually, approximately eight million dollars per year is at stake in the two-proposal package, Douglas County Assessor Joseph Stolinski pointed out before the Polish-American Civic Club that the four million dollars that would be lost to the aged and to dependent children is matched dollar for dollar by the Federal Government.

expressed the belief editorially that a sales tax will "almost certainly" be adopted if the gas tax amendment is approved. Proponents of sound tax policies are alarmed, almost without exception, by the probable effects of passage of the two measures.

There are many other, and perhaps better, reasons why BOTH measures should be defeated. But these tax aspects of the two questions provide a strong incentive for Nebraska voters to vote "No". (from World Herald, Oct. 16 '44.)

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1-Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2-Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic cramps.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did. LOOK INTO this 2-way help! Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did. CARDUL SEE LABEL DIRECTIONS

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, etc., required by the Acts of Congress of August 24, 1911 and March 3, 1933.

Of The Omaha Guide published every Saturday at Omaha, Nebraska, for October 1st, 1944, State of Nebraska, County of Douglas.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared C. C. Galloway, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the publisher of the Omaha Guide, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1933, embodied in section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations: to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor and business managers are: Publisher C. C. Galloway Omaha, Nebraska. Editor, C. C. Galloway, Omaha, Nebraska.

Managing Editor, None. Business Manager, C. C. Galloway.

2. That the owner is: The Omaha Guide Publishing Co., C. C. Galloway.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgages, and other security holders, giving the names of the owners or owners holding 1 percent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are none.

4. That the two paragraphs next stockholders and security holders, if any contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 7th day of October, 1944.

Charles F. Davis, My commission expires Sept. 4, 1949 C. C. Galloway, owner.
