

SYPHILIS CURE SPEED IS SEEN

St. Louis, Mo.,—Hope that syphilis can be treated with penicillin on an out-patient basis was offered last Saturday by an Army researcher. Capt. Monroe J. Romansky, of Army's Walter Reed General Hospital, said possibilities are suggested by latest results obtained with a technique employing penicillin in beeswax-peanut oil solution instead of in water.

Captain Romansky said the peanut oil technique prolonged action of penicillin within the body and enabled effective employment of much larger single dosages of penicillin than are practical with a water solution.

He told a national conference on venereal disease here that preliminary findings indicated injections of 300 thousand units of the drug only once a day over a period of eight days would eliminate evidence of disease.

Under the orthodox method of employing penicillin in water solution a patient has to be treated about every three hours around the clock for a period of about seven days, because the drug in that form is rapidly excreted.

An impressive membership of 84,000 bespeaks of the determination of men who have fought and shed blood for a common cause to bring about more amiable relations between the races and equal opportunities regardless of "race, color or creed." The AMVETS shall operate entirely independent of the American Legion, which, according to AMVETS organizers, has not expressed any desire to cooperate with the newly formed organization.

A minimum of 60 days active service in the armed forces since Sept. 6, 1940 is required by those seeking membership.

N. P. Mission 'Arrives Safely In Africa

Washington (PPNS) While American soldiers abroad are fighting to vanquish Hitlerism and restore peace to a cary world, veterans of the present global conflict are organizing to combat unAmerican practices on the home front. A sequel to the American Legion of World War I has been created with the formation of the AMVETS, which is a group pledged to fight strikes, racial prejudices and to preserve "here on the home front" American traditions that GI Joe is fighting for on foreign soil.

Young, Jr., Editor of Journal and Guide, Norfolk, Virginia; Vincent Tubbs, War Correspondent, Afro-American Newspaper, Baltimore, Maryland, and James B. Cashin, Chairman, Board of Directors, Chicago Defender, Chicago, Illinois have arrived safely in Africa according to statement issued by John H. While in Africa this Mission will visit Liberia, Nigeria, Gambia, French Equatorial Africa, British West Coast and will return to America via the Virgin Islands. The American British, French and Liberian governments are cooperating with the Mission in accomplishing its purposes.

According to Sengstacke, "this official visit grew out of a conference of Negro publishers, representing Negro Newspaper Publishers, with President Roosevelt last February at the White House."

This unofficial visit while being undertaken primarily to study, colonial administration and to acquaint Negroes with more information about Africa in general, will also be interested in matters of post-war readjustment growing out of the present world conflict.

Upon their return, the members of the mission will report to the President. Left to right—Young, Sengstacke, Cashin, Tubbs.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain
Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:
1- Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
2- Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.
LOOK INTO the 2-way help!
Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

First Steps TOWARD YOUR ELECTRICAL "DREAM" HOUSE!
You, too, like most other folks, must be thinking of your "Dream Home" of tomorrow.
There's a whole electrical wonder-world of convenience and better living waiting for you. Many families are already saving and planning toward the day when they can LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY. And they're taking the first two steps toward their own all-electric homes by joining the Nebraska Power Priority Club, so they can be among the first to get the new electric ranges and water heaters when these are again available.
Here is how the "PRIORITY CLUB" works:
1. When you order an electric range or water heater, or both, from a Nebraska Power Company representative, your name will be placed on the priority list for those appliances. You will receive a membership card in the RANGE AND WATER HEATER PRIORITY CLUB, showing your exact priority number for the appliances you want.
2. You designate your own brand preference. When the new electric ranges and water heaters come in, the distributors will issue them to the dealers and you may name the dealer you prefer to deliver your appliances. Both the distributor and the dealer will recognize the priority of the customers who have been listed in the Electric Range and Water Heater Priority Club.
3. When you sign up, you arrange to make a down payment and regular monthly payments on the appliances for which you sign. Nebraska Power credits your account as you make your payments but immediately re-invests your dollars in War Bonds to help speed Victory, and the day when your range and water heater can be delivered.
4. Your dollars will earn 4% interest for you. The Nebraska Power Company will pay this interest at the time your electric range or water heater is delivered on all the money you invest. If you want your money returned to you at any time before delivery of the merchandise, your money—without interest—will be returned to you immediately.
Ask any employee, or call at any Nebraska Power Office, for information.
