KNOW YOUR STATE TRAFFIC LAWS

There are three times as many fatal traffic accidents per mile traveled at night as during the day. Many of these accidents are caused by the improper use of headlights. Because of the reduced visibility after dark, it is very important that the proper use be made of the different headlight positions.

On the open road when there are no cars approaching, the bright or high beam is permissible. When a car is approaching from the opposite direction it is very important that the dim or low beam be used. Not only is this an act of courtesy, but the state law requires that the headlights be dimmed or tilted down.

This writer was in Kansas City, Mo. January 6 and 7, and it was a very lovely visit with quite a number of friends and of course there is always one very special lady friend who was in the picture and later on there will be some name changing!

Rumor has it that a certain front doorman and a very fine and popular north side young lady, will walk down the center aisle.

THE WEEK
This writer had a very pleasant visit with the editor of the Kansas City Call Saturday, June 6th and we were made welcome and the very busy office force was giving close attention to minute details and important duties which goes into the production of a great newspaper.

A newspaper that will interest the public and we tried to see if we could pick up some of the improvements and ideas which were being used successfully. We shall always think very kindly of the very friendly welcome which was extended—Orchids to the KC Call!

PASTOR BEATEN ON FACE; TOLD TO KEEP QUIET
Dr. Long of Beale St. Baptist Attacked Night of Dec. 19th
(by Paul Fairleigh)
(from the Memphis Press Scimitar Newspaper).

Dr. G. A. Long, pastor of the Beale Street First Baptist Church, Memphis, Tenn., was attacked and severely beaten about the face and head on the night of Dec. 19, The Press-Scimitar learned today.

The minister told a reporter he received a bruised eye and temple injuries when attacked by two unidentified Negroes as he was attempting to close his garage doors at his home 332 Vance.

He said he reported the matter to police and that the officers requested him to make "no mention" of the slugging to friends or relatives. A reporter heard of the incident from another source and asked Dr. Long about it.

"The two men stepped from behind the left door of my garage as I attempted to close the door," Dr. Long said. "Without a word they started slugging me in the face and head. After I was knocked down they fled. No words were exchanged at any time."

The minister said a description of the attackers tallies with that of two one tall and one short Negroes who kept prominent Negro Republicans dodging them last summer. Lt. Geo. W. Lee, who was knifed on the night of the day he was chosen alternate at large to the National Republican Convention.

Dr. Roy Love, pastor of the Mount

Nebo Baptist Church, also had a near attack as he raced to his car and escaped two Negroes who chased him.

Benjamin Bell, former secretary of the Urban League, was attacked by the two "sluggers" early last summer.

Dr. Long, who has on more than one occasion stood his ground in bouts with the Shelby, County political leaders, opened his church to A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters (AFL), who made a speech last March.

A similar meeting at the Mt. Nebo Baptist Church had been scheduled when a meeting of Negroes was called at the County Jail and officials advised them not to hold the meeting.

"I am not saying who I think made the attack on me, but I agree with Lt. Lee it was probably the same men who attacked him," Dr. Long said. "My Republican interests could easily have been back of the attack."

Several days after the AFL meeting, Dr. Long said he was notified by the Fire and Police Commission that the Beale-Street Church was unsafe, and rewiring and other improvements were needed. He said all the requests were complied with at the cost of $5000.

"I did not tell the newspapers of the attack made on me at the time because I wanted to cooperate with the police in their request I keep quiet," Dr. Long said.

Dr. Long supported Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and he has advocated repeal of the poll tax.

PASSAGE OF PERMANENT FEPC ESSENTIAL TO FULFILLMENT OF DEMOCRACY—DAWSON

Washington, (PPNS) Going into immediate action on his pledge of fighting the people's battle before the House of Congress, Congressman William L. Dawson of Illinois stated before the house Thursday, January 4, 1945 that establishment of a permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee bill is essential to the fulfillment of the biggest ideals of our democracy." The statement of the militant leader on the reintroduction of his bill for a permanent FEPC follows:

"The events of the past few months have shown beyond any question of argument the necessity of utilizing every bit of manpower, knowledge and skill at our command in order to save the lives of thousands of our boys and girls. The lagging in production of necessary war essentials must necessarily be reflected in delay in final victory accompanied by an increase in casualties.

"We on the home front should leave no stone unturned to assure the utilization of every American citizen in all our efforts to bring this war to a speedy close. It is the duty of the government to take the necessary means to accomplish this. No piece of legislation can do more in this respect than the establishment of a permanent Fair Employment Practice Committee whose duty it would be to assure the use of every citizen according to his knowledge and skill, regardless of race, religion or national origin.

If we are to maintain prosperity and provide every citizen willing to work with a job in the post war period, it is our duty to establish this committee now and thereby lay the foundation for the fulfillment of the biggest ideals of our democracy."
