Newsy Notes of The

Quacks...

Mrs. Blanche Lee Wright, President

HELLO EVERYBODY! and A Happy New Year. Now that the holidays are over and we the members of the Quack Club, YWCA, are ready to start the second part of this club year, we thought it a duty to give to the public a summary of our work up to the present time, from its beginning in September.

A Bigger and Better club year has been our motto for this year. Since most of our members have taken War Time obs, it has been almost difficult to get the members out and we do want to express our gratitude to those members who are attending under those difficulties and the members that returned to the club and were reinstated this year. We now have a membership of 35. Our activities were very interesting and kept the club full of life. We had our opening meeting and installation of officers by Miss Elizabeth Jordan. Our new Executive Secretary on September 15, 1944. These members were installed as officers and with a few exceptions which excuses that are eligible are doing a fine work.

President, Mrs. Blanche Wright, Secretary, Mrs. Willa Crocker; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ann Johnson; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Anna Mary Kennedy; Our chairman were appointed later, are to be commended for their fine work. They have been keeping the girls busy and their guests and escorts happy.

The Social Chairman, Mrs. Nellie Penn was responsible for these affairs. September 30th a Get-Acquainted Social, October 27th, a Halloween Social with guest, November 20th, a Formal Dinner Dance at the Shalimar Country Club, this dance included escorts and one invited couple. A nice time seem to be had by all. Our Executive Secretary Miss Jordan was seen in a black formal with a rust-colored stole—The President, Mrs. Blanche Wright, escorted by Mr. V. V. Watson, was seen in a red jersey dinner gown. Mrs. Nellie Penn the Social Chairman, escorted by Mr. Penn wearing a blue crepe dinner gown. Mrs. Mildred Bailey escorted by Mr. Bailey, Mrs. Lula Rivers, escorted by Mr. Rivers, Mrs. Joan Peterson and Mrs. Lona Fellows were seen in black and white dinner gowns. Mrs. Alva Johns, Mrs. Leola Jones, escorted by Mr. Jones. Mrs. Anna Mary Kennedy, Mrs. Mattie Caldwell escorted by Mr. Caldwell, were all seen in very attractive black dinner gowns.

BAD NEWS OF THE AXIS

Tuskegee (PPNS) Bad news for the enemies of America are these young and trim aviators who recently completed the prescribed course as single-engine pilots of the Army Air Forces Training Command. Following a short but extensive training course, the men will be assigned to foreign theatres of war to blast the enemy from his stronghold. The group were commissioned at the Tuskegee Army Air Field. They are from left to right: (first row) F/O William W. Stephenson, Washington, D.C., Robert A. Cole, Northfield, Vermont; 2d Lt. James E. Harris, Xenia, Ohio; F/O DeWitt Dickson, New York City; F/O Henry C. L. Bolander, Augusta, Ga.; and 2d Lt. Frederick D. Pendleton, Texarkana, Texas. (Second row) F/O Melvin Parker, Baltimore, Md.; F/O Clarence L. Shivers, St. Louis, Mo.; F/O Leroy Bryant, Houston, Texas; F/O

Lindsay L. Campbell, Washington, D.C., and F/O LeeRoy Kirksey, St. Louis, Mo. (third row) F/O Dempsey Nelson, r., Philadelphia, Pa.; F/O Horace A. Bohannon, Atlanta, a., 2d Lt. McWheeler Campbell, Cambria, Va.; 1st Lt. Yancey Williams, Tulsa, Okla.; F/O Thomas W. Smith, Lebanon, Ky.; 2d Lt. Isham A. Burns, Los Angeles, Calif.; and F/O Eugene L. Guyton, Cleveland, Ohio.

Colonel Hooper's long and honorable army record bespeaks of his ability and right to hold such a responsible position. Looking chipper and very immaculate in his uniform, the Colonel arrived here this week to a wait confirmation of his appointment.

In conformance with army laws, men dismissed from the services will be classified according to the reasons for their dismissals. Because a number of Negro soldiers have received unfavorable discharges for unstated reasons, it is considered quite an important accomplishment to have a Negro officer assigned to the board of reviewers.

Plain Talk

BY DAN GARDNER

NEGRO CASUALTIES AND THE ATLANTIC CHARTER

Through the strict field censorship of the army keep out stories involving huge Negro casualties in the furious fighting now going on in Belgium and parts of France where our Third, First and Seventh Armies are attempting to stave off the last minute surprise counter-attacks of the Germans.

The daily papers carry correspondingly high lists of the maimed and killed white GI's but only occasionally mention those of Negroes. This conclusion was arrived at after a study over a period of the casualties released by the War Department for publication in New York papers. Few names of Negroes were seen in this test study for comparison, thus the assumption that either the War Department is withholding complete and up to date lists of the Negro who wounded and dead, or that our boys are not engaged in the thick of the fight as many of us have been led to believe.

EVEN GENERALS

GET KILLED

Unlike World War I, this conflict is one in which even generals get shot and killed in close quarters since it is a war of movement and not a war of tactical operations because there has been much stress placed on the basic training of the raw recruit in teaching him the rudiments of elementary and advanced warfare so as to prepare him to be a soldier in every sense of the word. Many generals use privates' uniforms to avoid attention. That is why in this war there are few cases on record in which a GI knows nothing of fighting except with shoe-shine rag and polish on the general's boots from 500 miles to the rear in some quiet rendezvous where only the dull and distant boom of cannon would indicate that a war is going on. The truth of the matter, it would appear, is that Negro soldiers are catching as much hell as any of the others.

While we are not inclined to give too much credence to wide-eyed reports that Negroes are being carried around in baskets, others with arms and legs shot off, some with brass plates in the tops of their heads, etc., we do know that Negroes are contributing their share of blood and lives in this most costly of all wars.

GREAT INCREASE

IN CASUALTIES

As the conflict draws near its final stages, there is bound to be a great increase in the number of men injured and killed as bullets are no respecters of persons or color.

There must be a sense of futility in the hearts of many of our soldiers, sailors and others in the Armed Forces as the war progresses and the brave words, which inspired them with enthusiasm for the fight, fade into hard, cold and grim practicalities of take and hold instead of give and let be.

The Atlantic Charter, we have been told, has now turned out to be only a few empty phrases discussed in the abstract by Roosevelt and Churchill to wile away the time because Churchill announced later his attitude toward the whole war and the principles for which it is being fought, saying that he did not propose to preside at the liquidation of the British Empire.

The Atlantic Charter was the beacon of sincerity of this whole war that attracted the downtrodden millions of the world their hope of a new day and a new deal on a world-wide scale. For such principles, Wendell Willkie fought and died. Vice President Wallace declared at the National Democratic Convention in Chicago that the future belongs to those who go unswervingly down the line for the right regardless of race, color or creed.

NO INSPIRATION

SEEN HERE

The pronouncement that the Atlantic Charter is not even a scrap of paper; that its principles are only so much hot air, certainly do not seem to me to be a cause d'affaire of inspiration for Negroes in particular. With the mounting list of Negro casualties coming in to dismay and dishearten and sadden mothers, wives, sweethearts, fathers, brothers, sisters and sons there should somewhere be a promise of something concrete when the survivors of this war finally are sent home. These things
