CHAS. E. SANDALL SAYS:

THREE FACTORS IN GOOD TAVERN CONTROL

Three factors enter into effective beer and liquor control: First, a good law with strong public approval such as Nebraska's. This law with supplementary regulations and with continued able administration by the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission, provides ample power to cope with any alcoholic beverage problem which may arise.

Second, a good class of licensed retailers; approved as they are by local and state licensing authorities who are charged by law with the duty of endorsing only competent, qualified and law-abiding licensees.

Third, an intelligent, exacting public;

THE PUBLIC—NOT THE BREWING INDUSTRY—CHOOSES NEBRASKA'S BEER RETAILERS NEBRASKA COMMITTEE U. S. BREWERS FOUNDATION

citizens who believe in and demand the strict enforcement of law, temperance and moderation in the use of alcoholic beverages and who frown upon excessive drinking and unsocial conduct.

Cooperating with all three—the law, the retailer and the public—the Nebraska Committee pledges continuance of its efforts for clear, law-abiding conditions wherever beer is sold.
