The Interdenominational Pastors' Wives Council met at the home of Mrs. Estella Bragger 2120 North 28th Street April 4, 1945 at 1:30 p.m. A very delicious lunch was served and the seven present enjoyed it very much.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mary Wade, 2719 Decatur St., on Wednesday, April 15 at 1:00 p.m.

All Pastor's wives are welcome. Mrs. May Goodlett, President.

Mrs. Kathryn Steele, Reporter.

HILLSIDE VESPER FORUM

The Hillside Vesper Forum headed by an energetic and fine group of young people meets every Sunday evening at the Hillside Presbyterian Church, 23rd and Ohio streets, as its headquarters for discussion on current events and the World Order Movement. The opening hour is 7:30 pm. A very attractive program precedes the addresses. Time is allowed for questions and answers.

The Moderator, Rev. J. E. Blackmore introduces the topic and presents the leader who conducts the forum. Last Sunday evening at the initial opening there was a large gathering and the outlook for each subsequent forum promises to be overflowing in attendance. Here is an opportunity for you to come and take part in these discussion topics.

April 15th at 7:30 pm, "What are Some of the Problems to Peace?" April 22nd at 7:30 pm, "Is Peace an Appropriate Concern and Function of the Christian Church?"

April 29th at 7:30 pm, "Can There Be Such a Thing as a Lasting and Durable Peace?"

May 6th, at 7:30 pm, "Should the Peace Establish in Principle and Seek to Achieve Impractic the Right of Individuals Everywhere to Economic Liberty?"

This is your Forum. Come and hear—come to share it with us.

Good speakers—informed speakers. Remember the time and place.

DRAMA TRYOUTS

Director Rylan E. Melford Sr., announces Muse Drama Guild TRYOUTS Tuesday April 17, 1945 7:30 pm, Omaha Urban League

The Muse Drama Guild will begin the production of "No Time for Comedy" by S. N. Behrman, leading dramatist and playwright.

This marks the first time the Muse Drama Guild has planned production of a 3 act broadway hit. First produced by Katharine Cornell, who was the leading lady and Laurence Olivier, the leading man, "No Time for Comedy" opened in N.Y. and was a success on Broadway and on tour, bringing high critical approval.

Director Rylan Melford wishes everyone interested in drama to contact him personally, or to be present Tuesday eve.

The Muse Drama Guild is for those of the community interested in the drama and the developing of cultural arts among the community. The service of all is needed, This is a community association.

Mrs. C. R. Mitchell of 2602 Harrison has a family of four children; and they have an acreage and are seemingly preparing for the future. Everyone is preparing their gardens and are progressing nicely.

Mrs. Woodruff of 2609 Harrison has nice acreage on the line of Douglas and Sarpy County. They have corn to sell also a lot of fowl, pigs and garden spot lots to live on and some to spare. Mrs. Woodruff is now working at the Packing Plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose of 6802 South 28th St. have four boys and five girls. They have a beautiful home near the line of Douglas and Sarpy Conuty. The Rose family have lived in this home for six years. Mr. Rose is working at Cudahy Packing Plant and Mrs. Rose stays home and take care of the home and children.

Mrs. Minnie Jones of 3735 South 25th St. reports that she attended Allen Chapel last Sunday and enjoyed the services very much. I think we have a wonderful preacher she said. The entire congregation seemed to enjoy the service and we had a very nice crowd.

Mr. A. J. Turner of 3115 R. St., reports that he is very busy these days. He is a concrete finisher and brick layer, in fact he seems to be a man who can do anything in the way of repairing a house and making it comfortable. Mr. Turner lives on R Street Southside where he can enjoy seeing the packing plants.

DAYS HERE

Mrs. Anna Wilson of Denver, Colo spent 10 days in Omaha visiting her sister Mrs. Lydia Wilson and friends. She reports a fine time and much needed rest. On Tuesday, A. M., April 1st, Mrs. Anna and Lydia Wilson, Mrs. Mable E. Bonner and Mrs. Mary Lou Howell were breakfast guest of Mrs. J. L. Giles at 2217 North 29th street.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Moss who were visiting at Sacramento, Calif., and were on their way home to Bartelsville, Okla., stopped over to visit Mrs. Pauline Hawkins and spent Tuesday evening with her. They all had breakfast at Mr. Warren Webb's cafe. Mr. Moss met a lot of his old friends.

They had dinner at Mrs. Rosetta Walker's home and also visited with Mrs. Moss' son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Allen.

STILL CONFINED

Rev. E. Z. McDonald of 218 No. 27th street are still confined to his bed—however he said he was holding his own. His daughter Mrs. Goodwin is constantly at his bed side to minister to the comforts of life. His daughter from Chicago will visit him the incoming week.

AT DUTIES SOON

Mrs. Pansy Newland of 2915 Grant has been confined to her home for three weeks, but she seems to be on the move at present and she hopes to be up and at her duties soon.

LIKE NEWSY GUIDE

Mrs. Bryant called the Guide reporter and asked him for one of the Guide's latest edition papers, for last week. When I looked up the street I noticed someone coming to my house and it proved to be Atty Bryant and he said to me "Give me that Newsy paper, the Omaha Guide, we like it so much here late."
