

WAITERS' COLUMN

BY DEAN H. W. SMITH

Captain Earl Jones of the Omaha Club wishes to tell all the boys that April showers bring May flowers, and we all say happy birthday as he was the May flower that the first of May has brought.

Mr. C. C. Jones one of the former roasting beef knights of Omaha was saying hello to the boys—he is located in Seattle now.

Joe Brown of the OAC visited Mr. Tom Phillips and had a friendly chat with him.

Paxton hotel waiters topping off the service with a big smile.

The Regis hotel and the White Horse Inn waiters are very much—very much out in front.

Read The Omaha Guide and keep up with the times.

The Fontenelle hotel waiters are very much on the job—they know it too!

The Omaha Country Club is about ready to bloom out.

Waiters at the Hill hotel doing a bang up job on serving.

Blackstone hotel waiters quick stepping on service with a smile.

Fellow waiters Mother's Day is in the making—send cards to as many mothers whom you know as a lovely mother's day card will bring a very sweet, friendly smile from her and a pleasant thought to know that we cherish them in our memory at all times!

THE WEEK
