INSIDE OF CONFERENCE

San Francisco—As the San Francisco conference for the drafting of the framework of a world Security Organization enters its closing phase, the question of the status of colonial peoples is still a question mark.

With the exception of the three American Negro consultants to the American delegation, Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, and Walter White, the peoples have been largely concerned and who will be vitally affected politically, economically and socially, whose very

DIXIE WRITES TO DOROTHY
Now and then, some good friend writes to me to tell me that he'd like to believe that what I write about the coming New South is so. Brother Jim Sloan, who farms over in East Arkansas, sends me a letter saying he can't believe it's so because he knows in his mind that "it just naturally ain't so."

Brother Jim Sloan is a mighty good friend of mine and I'm not getting mad at him for writing very honestly that "there can't be a New South if you count on white Southerners to help build it." If my boy had been beaten up by cowardly town constables in Mississippi while wearing the uniform of his country, I reckon that I'd feel like "Old Brother Sloan who farms on week-days and who preaches on Sunday to colored Americans like himself over in Arkansas."

BROTHER SLOAN WANTS PROOF
Brother Sloan says he's got proof of his religion in "that grand old document, the Bible." I reckon that he wasn't born in Missouri for nothing, now he wants me to show him some kind of a document proving that there is a New South on the way.

Well, Brother Sloan and all of you who may doubt that new white man being shaped in the womb of the fertile young South, I've got the document, and I ask your prayers for that new white man while I read it to you.

The document was sent to me by Miss Virginia Kaye, distinguished actress and co-chairman of the Junior hostess committee of the Stage Door Canteen in New York City. It is a letter written by a white Southern girl to a pretty Negro girl named Dorothy whom he had first insulted when he found her serving as hostess captain in the canteen.

According to Miss Kaye, Dorothy showed good common sense by drawing the boy into conversation and remaining calm while he stormed and railed. Seems like he was still pretty hot under the collar when he started to leave, then turned back with his face red to ask the Negro girl, "Will you write to me?"

HEHES THE PROOF
Still showing good sense, Dorothy promised to write the boy. Here is the letter that she got weeks later from the Dixie girl after he had gone through the terrible battle of Kasserine Pass over in North Africa.

"Dear Dorothy: Today opens a new book in my life and I must say a very exciting book to open, may I never close. "Will you do me a very special favor? I am sure you will. Please continue to add to the book a few pages so that someday I can have a volume."

"Yes Dorothy, I was pretty silly for asking whether Negro girls come down to entertain Negro boys, or what is the purpose of the mixture. I am heart sorry, believe me. "After our conversation, you left an impression on my mind which I shall never forget. Today I am on the bloody battlefields. My trip across was most unpleasant, you know what I mean sea sick, etc. As back would have it, I met face to face in association a Negro boy who nursed me like a baby while all the others laughed. A few days ago I met another swell buddy. He to did a few favors.

"I am a heel for thinking that I am better than they are. What reason have I to think this? Or to carry a hatred which for no sound reason I can back. I am not going to blame it on the South because I am a Southerner. It's because I am of the white race. Bad thought, is it not?"

"Oh I could go on and on but I don't want you to know how much you have done for me changing my thoughts about your race. You are a wonderful girl to know. That is a god-send. I will join your army any day in bringing a better democracy back home."

Negro Medical Society To Buy Property

Dr. Craig Morris, President of the Omaha Negro Medical Society called a meeting last week of the Committee on the proposed hospital which is planned to be built on the westside of 30th and Wirt, on a plot of ground 120 feet facing 30th street and with a depth of 406 feet westward.

After the meeting was called to order by the temporary chairman, Dr. Craig Morris, he reported that the Negro Medical Society had voted unanimously in their last meeting to buy this plot of ground in the Bedford Park addition. This plot of ground valued at $6,000.00 was reduced in price to the Medical Society to $3,000 by Mr. Hiram D. Dee, President of the Realty Improvement company and builder of the new Bedford Park homes.

Through the efforts of Dr. Craig Morris a permanent organization was perfected at this meeting and officers were elected pending the filing of the articles of incorporation after the lot is purchased.

Dr. Wiggins was nominated for the chairmanship of the Hospital Committee, but declined the offer, stating that there was nothing needed any more than the hospital where American democracy will really be in reality. Dr. Wiggins said he was willing to do everything in his power to assist in the work to build this hospital, but he felt it needed someone more aggressive in that kind of work than he.

At the previous meeting the Committee deemed it wise to extend an invitation to the Negro Medical Society Auxiliary to take a part in the building program. The Auxiliary, appointed their President Mrs. Wesley Jones, wife of Dr. Wesley Jones to represent the Auxiliary at the meeting in the office of the Bedford Park Addition at 30th and Wirt St.

Mrs. Jones, being unable to attend the meeting, sent her representative, Mrs. G. W. Gooden. Mrs. Gooden was acting representative for the Auxiliary and was nominated and elected as Secretary of the Hospital Committee.

After various discussions of the future plans and procedures, a motion was carried with instruction by Attorney Charles F. Davis, the Committee's legal advisor, to notify the Chairman of the Medical Hospital Committee when the doctors were ready to purchase the site so that Mr. Dee could issue another call for the meeting. The meeting was adjourned pending a call of the Chairman.

Omaha voters Tuesday swept four City Commissioners out of office and handed Mayor Dan Butler the worst defeat of his 40-year political career.

The Mayor ran thirteenth in the field of 14, with little more than a thousand votes to spare over Bus Driver E. E. Harrington, who ran last.

It was a lightning stroke—without any thunder. The campaign had been one of the most lacking in interest in years. The vote was light—only a few thousand more than the primary balloting of 25 thousand. Few apparently suspected an undercurrent of protest that would break into the ranks of the City Hall crowd.

Knudsen, Trustin 4th, 5th When the votes were counted, Streets Commissioner John Kresl, Fire Commissioner Walter Korisko, Police Commissioner Richard Jensen and Mayor Butler were left stranded.

Park Commissioner Roy Towl was back, heading the voting parade. Finance Commissioner Harry Knudsen was fourth. Public Improvements Commissioner Harry Trustin fifth.

In second and third places were two members of the Omaha Voters League slate, Joe Dolan and Charles W. Leeman, respectively. In sixth and seventh spots were the other two members of the OVL slate, Arthur J. Weaver and Carl W. Jensen. The latter finished some 340 votes ahead of Mr. Kresl, who ran eighth.
