Improved SUNDAY International SCHOOL LESSON

GOD'S JOY IN CREATION
LESSON TEXT—Genesis 1:1-5, 10-12, 16-18, 26, 27, 31.
GOLDEN TEXT—God saw everything that he had made, and behold, it was very good.—Genesis 1:31.
The destiny of this world seems to be in the balances in our day with wicked men ruthlessly trying to destroy that which is good and upright. We are deeply concerned in our hearts that the right should triumph and that a just and righteous peace should come.

In such a day it is good to remind ourselves, as we will in our three-month series of studies in Genesis, that man did not make this world, nor is it the product of natural forces. God made it.

God, who is eternal, infinite, and knows all from the beginning, is not moved by the impulses of the moment nor staggered by the catastrophes of a day.

He made the world. He made man. He had a plan for them, and still has a plan which He will in due season work out for His own glory.

I. God Made Heaven and Earth
(vv. 1-5, 10-12, 16-18).
The biblical account of creation—"In the beginning God"—stands as a dignified, satisfactory, intelligent explanation of the origin of things, and in bold contrast to the confusing and almost unbelievable theories of men.

The best of scientists admit that they know nothing of the origin of things, and some say that they never will know. The answer to this query, with which every human philosophy opens, is the affirmation with which the divine account in Genesis opens—"In the beginning God."

Space forbids full discussion of the account of creation, but a study of it will reveal its beautiful order, symmetry, and completeness. Compare that orderly account with the absurdities of the ancient human cosmogonies, and you have a new regard for Scripture.

II. God Made Man in His Own Image
(vv. 26, 27).
Although man has often so de-based himself by sin and disobedience to God that it seems almost unbelievable, it is nevertheless true that he was made in the likeness and image of God. Because that is true, we never give up hope for him. Because of that image, no matter how deeply defaced by sin, man still may be touched by redeeming grace and restored to fellowship with God.

The likeness and image of God in man refers to a moral and spiritual likeness. Man is a living soul with intelligence, feeling and will. He is a self-conscious, personal being.

To man God gave dominion over the earth and all its potential powers. Sometimes one has been hopeful that man was making good progress in the development of the earth's resources for his own good and the glory of God. But one is sad to see how he has used this great God-given opportunity for destruction and death. Only a revival of real Christianity can bring him back to his senses. Let us pray and work for it.

Observe that the family was established as the center of man's life on earth, as God gave him a "help meet unto him." Woman was taken "out of man's head that she should rule over him; nor out of his feet to be trampled upon; but out of his side to be equal with him, under his arm to be protected by him, and near his heart to be loved by him" (Matthew Henry).

The decay of family life and the modern substitution of social and civic units as the basis of life have led to disastrous results, one of which is juvenile delinquency. Not only do we need a revival of religion, we also need a revival of the home life of the nation.

III. God Made All Things Well
(v. 31).
When men do recognize the hand of God in creation, they often seem to feel that what He made was rather limited and defective. It would almost seem that God should be grateful that man has been so clever about perfecting His work, developing it and making it useful.

As a matter of fact, God, who had all knowledge and whose standards are higher than man's standards could possibly be, looked over His creation and "behold, it was very good" (v. 31). It was a "finished" job (2:1).

Man has destroyed much of creation's beauty. Sin came in and marred it. What man's inventive cleverness has developed of the possibilities of this world is only a minute fraction of what is yet available. Instead of boasting, man might well be distressed at the pathetic slowness with which he has "thought God's thoughts after Him."

Instead of fighting and destroying, he ought to give his energies to building, developing, and above all, to loving God with all his heart and his neighbor as himself (Matt. 22:37-40).

Waterproofing Cement
Cement floors, pools and other cement surfaces may be painted in a variety of colors with special coatings available at paint stores. After such paint has been applied and becomes dry it is said to be adequately waterproof.

Riboflavin Sources
We can get riboflavin from milk, from liver, kidney, eggs, cheese and some greens like kale. We also get it from all meat, poultry, fish, dry beans, peas, enriched white bread and enriched flour.

Cabbage Vitamins
Air, water and heat are the thieves that rob cabbages of their vitamin C. Therefore, the less you cut, cook or have to store cabbage the more vitamin value you receive for your money. Young green cabbage fresh from the garden, washed and eaten raw is the ideal way to get the most flavor and food value that cabbage can give.

Fencing Fences
Wood garden fences are painted in much the same manner as the exterior of a house. The wood should be thoroughly dry and clean, then coated with two or more coats of exterior paint. Iron fences should be thoroughly cleaned of all rust by scraping and sandpapering before paint is applied.

Vitamin Trouble
Getting other vitamins and minerals into the diet seems not to be quite such a problem for most people as getting enough iron and the B-vitamins known as thiamine (B-1), riboflavin (B-2) and niacin (the pellagra-preventing vitamin).

Resistant Varieties
Some vegetable varieties have been developed which are resistant to specific diseases, and which better withstand insect attack. Use of such resistant varieties is one of the best methods of preventing disease and insect injury.
