ERSKINE HAWKINS ENTERTAINS PRESS AT HOTEL LINCOLN

Clean Generators
 There are a number of ways to clean or renew the generators of gas pressure stoves, heaters and burners so that they function like new ones insofar as service or operation is concerned. The most successful method of removing the carbon is to disassemble the generators and pass the parts through a solution of salt-peter which has been made liquid by heating to a temperature of about 2,000 degrees. The generator parts, when treated in this manner, come out entirely free of carbon, and when reassembled the generator works like new. This method, of course, can only be used when the generator renewal volume is great enough to justify the expense.

Names of States
 Connecticut is Indian for "long river." Maine means "the main-land," to distinguish it from the islands, and Massachusetts is Indian for "great hills place." New Hampshire is named for Hampshire, England, and Rhode Island for Rhodes, an island in the Aegean sea. Vermont is French for "green mountain." New Jersey was named to compliment the governor of Jersey Island off Brittany, and New York was named for the duke of York. Pennsylvania is Latin for "Penn's woodland."

Gluing Wood
 For best results in gluing wood, both the glue and the wood should be warmed to about 75 degrees Fahrenheit.

Reached North Pole
 In 1909, Robert E. Peary, the article explorer, and party reached the North Pole.

Prewar Syria
 Prewar population of Syria was about 1,696,600. Intermixed are Arabs, Turks, Kurds, Circassians, Armenians, Greeks, Persians and Jews. A sprinkling of tribal elements, such as the Druzes, figure in census totals. Capital and biggest city is Damas (Damascus), with 912,912, believed to be the world's oldest city still inhabited. About 195 air miles northeast lies Alep (Aleppo), second in size, with 177,313 dwellers. Between these two cities are situated Homs, population 52,792, and Hama, 39,380, ranking third and fourth.

Sermon to Hep-Cats in Jive Style
Horn-Tooter Hawkins Halts Swing to Lecture Bobby Soxers

By JOSEPH KAHN
 In the NEW YORK POST
 "Listen, you hep-cats, hold up a minute! I've stopped with the horn, and I'm gonna blow off some important steam."
 Like a bombshell Erskine Hawkins, popular Negro orchestra leader, breaks in on his solid swing program while playing at casinos, dance halls and parties throughout the country for the teen-agers.
 And before you can say "Tuxedo Junction," which he wrote, he is well on his way with a brief talk about curbing juvenile delinquency.
Kids Need Guidance
 Hawkins figures "kids need guidance," and explained during an interview at the Hotel Lincoln, where he is playing currently, "dances are a good time to catch them."
 "Stay off the streets," he tells them with paternal gusto and a dash of real jive language. And they listen to him, too.
 He stresses the usefulness of spare time.
 "If you don't go in for sports, read books, or be hep to plenty of places to learn how to make things with machines and tools. You can take free art courses, music, or any other subject you'd like to take up."
 Hawkins, who is known for his great facility on the trumpet, reminded the interviewer of the existence of playgrounds, parks and libraries.
 "Keep Away From Gangs"
 "Try them," he says, "and you'll find them more fun than running around with a gang and looking for trouble on every corner."
 Hawkins has always been devoted to young people. At Alabama State Teachers College where he taught music and dramatics, he brought together the nucleus of his present orchestra in 1937.
