THE PEOPLE'S LOBBY Incorporated TO FIGHT FOR THE PEOPLE Rooms 307-8 Maryland Building, 1410 H Street, N. W. Washington 5, D. C.

Francis J. McConnell, President WILL CATHOLIC INTRIGUE AGAIN KILL FEDERAL AID TO TAX-SUPPORTED SCHOOLS? Dear Friend: For several years, as explained in the article in our enclosed May Bulletin (page 6), Catholic influence has killed bills providing Federal Aid—(but not imposing Federal Control)—to public tax-supported schools,—because funds were not provided for parochial schools.

Both the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations have backed Catholic authorities.

In post war years there will be great need for Federal help for public schools, particularly in rural areas. It is almost certain that the Mead-Aiken bill permitting funds to go to parochial schools will not pass.

The great danger is that the bill of the Senate Committee on Education (S. 181), which does not permit use of Federal funds for non-tax-supported schools, will be defeated by Catholic influence.

That would mean children who most need school opportunities would get them.

1. Write both your U. S. Senators and Hon. Brent Spence, Chairman, House Committee on Education, to insist on aid to tax-supported schools without funds for parochial schools, and get others to write.

2. Get organizations of which you are a member, to adopt resolutions to this effect; send copy to both your U. S. Senators,—to read into the Congressional Record,—and also get published in your local paper.

We must not, under the stress of war conditions, abandon the sound principle of complete separation of Church and State. Yours sincerely, Benjamin C. Marsh, Executive Secretary.

CHATTER BOX

Hello Kids,

Again we bring you the news of the week. Sorry to have disappointed U last week but it will not happen again. Ran to L. A. and forgot my bags! Ha, ha.

In the Spotlight

The Blue Streaks as usual lost another game. They played the Bombers—score 8 to 3—nice going girls but you'd better watch second base man (also) watch for the new right fielder.

BING—The party for Lewis Curran Saturday night was strictly fine except for a few errors (some of the boys had a scrap but it didn't last long and after words apologized.)

Have U Heard?

Johnnie Mae's cousin is here looking great, you ought to meet her if you haven't had jittersbugs. Fresh up, keep smiling two-thirds of the 7 up will be leaving Friday the third. You'll be gone in spirit but not in mind.

Mop Mop the winning Ideal of the canteens was Shays and who was caught in the pool up in arms. Could the have been swimming, dancing or loving, hay J. M. B. and B. R. Among the crowd were as follows: Yonetta H., Udoxie S., Odessa, Jean R., Ruth S., Ruth B., Doris, Betty D., Ellwise Frank, John, Bates, Dandia, Billie, Little Jinnings, Gaiter, Yonda M., Marie W., Harold Biddix Fother. We really had a grand time.

Flash! Flash! The birthday party given in honor of Harold Matthews last week was on the ball, every one had plenty to EAT and drink. He also had some lovely gifts.

Going, Going, Gone—At last F. C. and L. C. are gone. They left Friday at 3. Bye ad good luck, boys and come home soon.

Zip—The canteen gave a bingo party Friday and C. W. won 9 neckties. On the box it had something for the neck (9 pieces of rope) smile. Something for the BOX.

Tip Tip—Who was caught tippin about 4:30 last week and was caught by making so much noise opening the bedroom door. Hay Jerry.

Comments

Heard: A certain chic told me about a week ago that she was liking Buster Robins awful well. Her name is T. M.

Will blank take really take over when F. C. leaves for the army or was he just sounding?

A studd was complimenting Jean Gooden and Naomi Downs' ability to look so fine in their clothes.

Knowing everyone is going to be at the Cocanotte Grove the 8th and hear that fine band swing out the blues even Chatter Box will be there.

Speaking of music, that Honey dripper seems to be all ru. Stuff is also fine.

Flash—According to the Sunday school picnic we will be watching out for couples (if you know what I mean).

On 24th and Grant we spotted and gazed upon Bob Dodges, former Omahan, who now is visiting up in Des Moines. Maybe he is reporting to local draft board. No doubt! Don't worry about M. F. at the Grant Street Drug Store. Bob Floyd picks up on his daily chores and Pearl leave from there.

And now across to the Tuxedo—wonder why all of a sudden the boys stop going to the Tux was it because of the canteen or was it because they couldn't do any better (money)?

We received a card from Ella Marie Cain, who is now in Bitley, Mich. She will not be home soon but she is having a fine time and said Hello to old Pat. Her address: R. R. 1, Bitley, Mich.

Dope—There's a certain studd around the streets that is running with the Fox—and playing with the hounds. And pity him if he gets caught—make up your mind kid!

Late but straight so Margaret Epison and Arnold Biddix have called it quits for the last time—good deal. Back—Delores Jackson is back looking great.

Meanwhile—The Canteen is coming one—Monday and Tuesday—Center—Men's Thursday—USO—Friday—SPT at the Y. Come one, come all. Let's jam up right.

Girls—Stop street smoking! Boys—Stop your profanity! Baby Ownes is tired now and he is doing just what he can—Buckie has a black eye and won't

Mr. Arthur Campbell, age 84 years died specifically at his home, 933 North 25th street, Saturday, July 21. He apparently was in his usual health and had attended the Grand Lodge only two days before his passing. He had been a resident of Omaha 46 years and was retired. His wife, Mrs. Hattie Campbell preceded him in death, having passed two years ago.

Mr. Campbell is survived by one son, Mr. Arthur Campbell, Seattle, Washington, step daughter, Mrs. Winona Mims, Minneapolis, Minn. Funeral services were held Wednesday

What waiter took off his glasses to fight a small boy and now he can't see at all?

Wonder who the new cat Mary Carter now going around with. If he's as nice as he looks watch out Marie.

The party given by Pauline Berry Tuesday was great. Everyone had a nice time.

Mop mop—Baby Lewis, one of the Tapers made 2 home runners Sunday. Also Clarence Hill came in with 1 and our charming young lad Buster struck out 3 times ha ha (his girl was there too).

Here are Domino Sandwiches to Serve with Spicy Iced Froth. SANDWICHES. Instead of hard-to-get sweets, so often accompany tinkling drinks nowadays that everybody is on the lookout for novel bread-and-spread combinations. Domino style, open-face sandwiches, made of bread spread with cottage cheese, the numbers dotted on with raisins or currants, are a decorative choice which because of the dried fruit, have a sweet tooth appeal, too. You'll find that they're especially tempting served with Spicy Iced Froth, made with whipped evaporated milk and caffeineless coffee, so that everyone can have refreshing extra glasses without worrying about wakeful hours later on. Be sure to "perk" the decaffeinated coffee. If you make it in a percolator, longer than the ordinary kind, from 15 to 18 minutes, to bring out its rich coffee flavor. Make it fresh, chill it quickly, and then pour it over ice. Cinnamon or nutmeg is suggested to spice the iced froth. A sprinkling of alspice is another appetizing taste combination with coffee flavor that you might try for variety's sake. If you prefer to use whipped cream, follow a simple recipe calling for the addition of granulated gelatin to thin cream. This whipped cream can be kept on hand in the refrigerator ready to use for several days. When you make the dominos, trim sliced bread of its crusts, and cut each slice in half. Be sure the cottage cheese spreads easily. It can be made spreadable by beating in a little...
