Luscious Ice Cream—Favorite Summertime Dessert (See Recipes Below)

Select Desserts Carefully

The choice of dessert should be a careful one — a light dessert if the meal has been rich and hearty; a substantial one if the menu has been on the light side. A dessert should be the perfect close to a meal, not just something thrown in because we think there ought to be an "ending" to eating.

One of the best ways to selecting the appropriate dessert is the guide that the seasons offer. In summer we can depend upon fruits and berries, plentiful supplies of eggs, milk and cream. In winter, of course, there are some fruits, but it's a good idea to make puddings the mainstay.

Ice cream is a perfect choice for warmer weather. If you want a dressed-up dessert, you can round it out with cake and berries; for simplicity, just serve the velvety mixture with fresh berries or crushed fruit sauce.

Here is a Lemon Cream that has a piquant flavor and is a perfect close to a light, cool supper when served with fresh berries:

Lemon Cream.

- (Serves 6)
- 2 well-beaten eggs
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup light cream
- 1/2 cup lemon juice
- 1 cup crushed, sweetened berries

Whole berries for garnish. Beat eggs and sugar. Mix corn syrup, milk, cream and lemon juice. Add to egg mixture. Freeze in automatic refrigerator tray until just set. Beat until light. Add crushed berries. Continue freezing until firm, about 2 1/2 to 3 hours. Garnish with whole berries.

An unusual sherbet with a tang that is bound to please is the following. Using ginger ale:

Ginger Ale Sherbet.

- (Serves 6 to 8)
- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1/2 cup lemon juice
- 2 cups unsweetened pineapple juice
- 1 cup water
- 1 pint pale, dry ginger ale

Soften gelatin in cold water; dissolve in hot water. Add sugar and stir until it dissolves. Cool; add lemon juice, water, pineapple juice, water and ginger ale. Freeze in ice cream freezer until crank turns hard. Remove dasher and pack.

Let stand 2 to 3 hours before serving.

Have you ever thought of using candy as a sweetener? Here is a suggestion for a deliciously flavored dessert that uses no sugar at all.

Lynn Says

Make New Things From Old: Old wornout oil tablecloths can be made into attractive place mats by cutting them into squares with pinkish shades. If towels have faded, dye them in colors to match the bathroom. Old shower curtains can be cut down in size and used as curtains in the pantry, bathroom or kitchen.

When shades become discolored and old, they may be covered with attractive prints in cotton, cretonne or chintz to match the room's decorative scheme. Wornout pajamas with the leg parts still good can be used to pad out the ironing board by cutting to size.

Discarded curtains make nice pot holder filler, or they may be sewed together (six layers) after cutting, into dishcloths.

- Green Lima Beans
- French Fried Onions
- Molded Apricot-Grape Salad
- Vanilla Ice Cream with Jam Beverage
- Nut Bread

It's combined with chocolate for a flavor combination hard to resist:

Peppermint Water Dessert.

- (Serves 9)
- 1/2 pound peppermint stick candy
- 1/2 cup light cream
- 1/2 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 2 tablespoons cold water
- 1 1/2 cups evaporated milk, chilled and whipped
- 1/2 pound chocolate wafers

Crush candy; add light cream. Heat in double boiler until candy dissolves. Add gelatin softened in cold water. Chill until partially set. Fold in beaten, chilled evaporated milk. Break chocolate wafers in half and stand around outside of a 9-inch pan. Place layers of wafers on bottom; spread with 1/2 of the gelatin mixture. Top with second half of wafers and spread with remaining gelatin mixture. Chill for 12 hours. Cut in squares and serve.

Cherries are another great favorite for dessert. The family will enjoy these tarts made with either fresh or canned cherries:

Cherry Tarts

- (Serves 6)
- 2 cups canned or fresh sour, pitted cherries
- 6 tablespoons sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 1/2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons currant jelly
- 6 baked tart shells

Drain cherries. Mix together sugar, cornstarch and salt in saucepan; add cherry juice or a small amount of water (1/2 cup). Cook together 15 to 20 minutes until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from fire; add butter and jelly. Fold in cherries. Pour into tart shells. Bake in a hot oven (475 degrees) about 5 minutes.

There are some evenings when most of us enjoy a bit of well-chilled fruit with a few crispy cookies. In this case, you will want the cookie jar full with these Orange Honey cookies that taste better as they mellow:

Orange Honey

- (Makes 7 1/2 Dozen)
- 3 cups sifted flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup honey
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1/2 cup chopped candied orange peel
- 1/2 cup chopped candied lemon peel

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg and vanilla extract. Beat well. Add flour mixture, nuts, orange and lemon peels to creamed mixture. Mix well. Drop by teaspoonfuls into well greased baking sheets. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) for 10 minutes.

Marguerites. (Yield: 2 1/2 dozen, 2 inches in diameter)

- 2 eggs
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup chopped nut meats
- 1/2 cup whole bran

Beat eggs slightly; add remaining ingredients in the order given. Fill small buttered pans 3/4 full of mixture. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven about 15 minutes. Cool slightly before removing from pan. Dust with powdered sugar.

N. L. R.—A married man has been wanting my company for about 5 years and I would not accept it. Now he has a '41 Ford car and he is getting between me and my boy friend and he doesn't want me to go with anyone else but him. He has a nice wife and I worry a lot about it. Can you give me some help as I am only 18. Of course I am in love with my boy friend and he loves me.

Ans.: The attraction is for the '41 Ford and not for the married man. Would you sacrifice your self-respect, your chances for marriage with the boy you love and a home and happiness for the monetary pleasure and thrill of riding in a car? Surely, you won't succumb to these temptations. You must refuse to even see or talk to this man in the future. Stay completely out of his sight. In this way you will be able to control yourself and prevent future unhappiness. You need some form of activity to fill your spare time during your young friend's absence. Prepare yourself for the future by taking a vocational course or some other career work.

Z. C. L.—Will you please help me with my problem. I have been writing a boy friend who was mine before he left for overseas. Since he left I have married and have a child. Now my husband is overseas and this boy is expecting to be home soon. He sends me money all along. Should I let him know that I am married and have a child?

Ans.: You have lived under false pretense ever since you married. You led the serviceman on purposely and accepted his gifts and money willingly. When he returns he is going to want to see you and you are going to have to face the facts and admit your deceit. Your position right now is a precarious one... you are not only deceiving this boy but your husband as well. Your loyalty must be with your husband and child. You made a mistake and had you realized the seriousness of it, all would have been different. Your only alternative now is to write the boy and let him know the truth.

A. L. W.—I've been in love with a boy for four years and he started going with another girl so we stopped. He told me he wanted me for his wife but he started acting funny. I always treated him nice and will always love him. What should I do now?

Ans.: A dose of his own medicine might have a sobering influence on this boy. Choose a worthy young gentleman as an associate and give
