Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for October 14 Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

THE HOME FOSTERING CHRISTIAN IDEALS LESSON TEXT—Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Luke 2:51, 52; Ephesians 5:22, 25; 6:1-4. GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.—Ephesians 4:32.

"Juvenile delinquency" is an expression often heard in our day. It speaks of the awful way in which our boys and girls have gone astray spiritually and morally in recent years. Fortunately, we are beginning to realize that most of the blame falls on the parents. It is parental delinquency in the matter of proper rearing of the children which needs our earnest attention. The home is the right place for the fostering of Christian principles of living, but all too often even Christian people have put that whole load on the Sunday school and church. They can help, but they cannot do the job which should be done in the home.

I. God's Word is Accepted (Deut. 6:4-9). The Bible teaches us the truth about God and that is information of the highest value and usefulness in the home. He is our God, and He is one God. There is no other God, and at the same time this infinite and eternal One is very close to us—our God. How precious!

II. Growth is Expected (Luke 2: 51, 52). In the well-ordered home the child finds his place as Jesus did, as an obedient, well-mannered, cooperative member.

III. Love is Expected (Eph. 5: 22, 25). Love is not just a warm and tender feeling hidden away in the heart. It shows in the homely details of daily life in the home.

IV. Rights are Respected (Eph. 6: 1-4). Mutual devotion between husband and wife, and mutual trust between parents and children—there we have the basis of a real God-honoring home.

What are the Cancer Danger Signals?

(By Dr. John E. Moseley, Assistant Radiologist at Mt. Sinai and Sydenham Hospitals—Chairman of Harlem Committee, American Cancer Society) examined under the microscope. The doctor should be seen immediately after the person becomes aware that she has a bleeding, scaly nipple, or that there is a lump in the breast, because cancer can be cured when eliminated in its early stages. If not removed it is sure to be fatal! Cancer manifests itself in many devious ways. The particular symptoms which result from its presence in the human body depend entirely upon the location of the disease. They are never EXCLUSIVELY cancer symptoms. The following signals, however, should suggest the POSSIBILITY of cancer. If they are present, it means that no time should be lost in going to a doctor.

Fashion Frock of the Week

HEAVENLY SLEEVES Sleeves take wings—and give a heavenly effect to Fashion's autumn collection of exciting new styles! Deep-cut armholes achieve that heavenly, winged look, and add comfort and style to both casual and more formal wear. Their easy lines are in keeping with the trend toward the fuller, released silhouette. And they fit in nicely with the softer lines of new rounded shoulders. In many instances it is not enough merely to deepen the armhole—something more is added to focus attention there. Notice the stitched seam that outlines the deep armhole of this smart Fashion Frock of the Week. The notched cardigan neckline and the graceful jacket peplum also identify this wool suit as new for fall. The fashion story of a suit or dress is found up its sleeve!
