Bright girls that they are, they'll be able to keep up their end of the conversation with their well-travelled husbands and what's more—they'll be ready to settle down to real family life with aprons and recipes ready to hand. Besides seeing to it that service men's wives in strange towns have everyday living necessities such as a place to sew, do their laundry and cook, one of the Y.W.C.A.'s main concerns in its USO work has been to promote better race relations. USO is a member agency of the National War Fund.

THERE will be a lot of surprised and pleased husbands when they return from overseas and discover that their modern wives have become just as nimble with the thimble as grandmother ever was. Two such wives are pretty Mrs. Helen McCullough and Mrs. Helen Tombs who learned what to do with a needle and thread in the USO club operated by the National Y.W.C.A. in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Members of a wives group who were not content to fritter away their time while their husbands were fighting, they organized classes in everything from cooking

WILBERFORCE RECEIVES ANOTHER ACCREDITATION

Wilberforce University officials were notified this week that its courses of study for the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees were approved and registered by the Division of Higher Education of the University of the State of New York. This approval was to extend to September, 1950. This is the third unconditional accreditation which Wilberforce has received in its collegiate work during recent years. The previous accreditations were from the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the American Association of Teachers Colleges and the University also holds membership on the approved list of the Ohio College Association and the Inter-University Council of Ohio.

RANDOLPH SPENDS WEEK IN WASHINGTON CONTACTING CONGRESSMEN AND SENATORS ON FEPC.

It was announced at the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters in New York that A. Philip Randolph, International President planned to spend a week in Washington beginning October 1st for the purpose of contacting Senators and Congressmen and cooperating with the staff of the National Council for a Permanent FEPC for the purpose of pushing forward the fight for the Bills for a permanent that controls this our universe." The audience sat spell-bound—ready to sit at length listening to this prepared young woman speak. Yet as Miss Jordan took her seat graciously, Miss Libby Harris stood and vere impressively sang "God's Amazing Grace", after which president Cora Haynes arose to give the response to the address delivered by the guest speaker. "We the women of Omaha not only realize the moral value of this fine young woman, but appreciate her spiritual worth as well. Did not our hearts burn within us as she spoke to us most intimately?"

Thus the Woman's Day program closed with Mrs. Henrietta Williams, mother of Rev. F. C. Williams, receiving the cash award for being the most beautiful mother present. This was a gift from the

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1-Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
 - 2-Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.
- Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
