LESSON TEXT-Isaiah 6:1-8; Ephesi GOLDEN TEXT-Praise ye the Lord I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright and in the congregation .- Psalm 111:1

The center of every community should be the church. The house set aside for the worship of God is the gathering place of His people. There they find fellowship as they meet their Lord. He is in their midst exalted and mighty, but ready to enter every humble and contrite

Our lesson shows us how the worship of God brings blessed results as His people meet. I. Recognizing God's Presence

(Isa. 6:1-4). King Uzziah, who had begun well but had forgotten God, was at the end of his life a leper because of his sin and dying in disgrace. Israel which had known unprecedented prosperity under God's blessing now hardened its heart nationally against God and was also about to go into eclipse. God needed a man to speak for Him in such an hour, to bring to His people a message of judgment and also of blessed invitation. To prepare that man, the great Isaiah, God gave a remarkable manifestation of His glory and

It is essential that the man who speaks for God should first see the Lord high and lifted up and to hear of His holiness and glory. The negative tone of the present-day message, the lack of enthusiasm and interest in holy things, the low standards of personal holiness, the failure to preach boldly the truth regarding God's holy standards are to be explained by the fact that there has been no vision of the eternal holiness and glory of God. II. Renewing by God's Power (vv.

To see the holiness of God is to be immediately conscious of one's own sin and unworthiness. The obvious conclusion which one draws from that fact is that anyone who is proud, who is not concerned about his own sins and the sins of his people, is living far from God and has either never known or has forgotten about His divine holiness.

his lips, thereby confessing that his heart was not right. Whereof the heart is full, thereof speaketh the mouth, for we read that "out of the 52 Speak abundance of the heart the mouth | 53 Constellation speaketh" (Matt. 12:34). Remember that even though Isaiah was a believer he recognized the need of cleansing.

"Then" (v. 6)-what an important word! When Isaiah called out in humble confession, 'then' he was cleansed. The turning point is right at that place for any life. Only when we come to the place of confession and contrition which Isaiah knew. can we expect the Lord to send the cleansing fire and the enabling Reformation, turning over a new leaf, character development, all commendable in their place, are not sufficient. There must be a divine cleansing of the life if there is to be a commission to service. III. Realizing God's Will (Eph. 5:

Time is not to be wasted, or | casually used. It is to be redeemed -every moment to count for God. The walk of the believer is to be circumspect, that is, with "painstaking attention to details, under a with the Holy Spirit in such mighty overwhelming power that they are entirely under His control. Such Spirit-filled believers find their joy and satisfaction in the fellowship of those who sing the praises of God from the heart.

Being a Christian is not a depressing, sorrowful business. It makes you glad. It is God's people who sing and make melody. Some of us who have failed to appreciate this truth should begin now to "get happy" about our religion.

'The Holy Spirit leads believers into 21). Pride and self-exaltation are Hope." definitely ruled out.

Do not neglect the note of thanksgiving found in verse 20. The Church of Christ has so infinitely much for which to be thankful that actually us "give thanks always for all Women can do. So as these fine Mothers, send your children to things.'
