MEET THE INCOMPARABLE INK SPOTS

BILLIE HAYWOOD, CLIFF ALLEN SCORE IN REPUBLIC'S "AN ANGEL COMES TO BROOKLYN"

Cliff Allen, popular Negro pianist, accompanies Billie Haywood, well-known night-club singer, in this musical sequence in Republic's "An Angel Comes To Brooklyn." Both these talented performers were discovered by Leonard Sillman of "New Faces" fame. Kaye Dowd, Robert Duke, David Street, and Barbara Perry are featured in the novel musical.

LIL GREEN AND HER ORCHESTRA MAKES BOW ON SOUTHERN TOUR

LIL GREEN, the blues queen, one of the top ranking Bluebird and Decca recording artists who on her initial appearance in New York played the popularly frequented Blue Angel niter. She was held over for six weeks and since that time has been a sensational singing star. The star debuts with Her 15 Rhythmas—playing key southern cities commencing October 26—going on location at the celebrated Willie Davis "hot" spot in Miami, Florida, for ten days enroute. After playing the Deep South Lil will lead her musical men through the Southwest playing Texas, and Oklahoma on a one-nighter jaunt that should prove highly entertaining to music and dance lovers. Itinerary calls for dates in Asheville, N. C.; Macon, Ga.; Atlanta, Ga.; Columbus, Ga.; Columbia, S. C.; Birmingham, Ala.; Panama City, Fla.; Mobile, Ala.; Pensacola, Fla.; Jackson, Miss.; and Monroe, Louisiana. Other dates call for appearances at Shreveport, Pa.; Baton Rouge, La.; Biloxi, Miss.; and Alexandria, Louisiana.

To Re-open Famed Cotton Club In Harlem

Andy Kirk and His Orchestra with Beverly White will re-open Harlem's newest, smartest niterity Club Sudan. The hot spot now owned and operated by Negroes will cater exclusively to the exclusive set. Kirk's band will feature new compositions and give to New York diversion seekers the best in music both sweet 'n' hot. Formerly the Cotton Club the niterity has remodeled and redecorated and according to predictions will "out-smart" other cabarets in gay Manhattan
