

CLAIR METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. Reynolds will deliver his Christmas Message this coming Sunday morning from the theme, "The Heavenly Purpose Fulfilled." The Choir will give support in appropriate music in the evening at 6 o'clock the Sunday school will render its Christmas Program and Tree. We urge the attendance of all parents and adults to this program by our Sunday School. At the regular Evening Worship at 8 o'clock, the Clair Church Choir will render its Christmas Cantata "The Great Light". This promises to be an evening of fine musical inspiration, to which we urge all our members to be present, and to which we invite our many friends.

Clair Church will unite with other churches in our usual Union Christmas Services at Zion Baptist Church, Christmas Morning at 6 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. E. V. Wade, pastor of Cleaves Temple Church. Music to be furnished by the United Choirs. The pastor urged all our members to attend this early Christmas Morning service.

PORT BATTALION SENDS $326 TO NAACP.

New York Memberships and contributions in the amount of $326 have been received by the NAACP from the men of the Headquarters company, 510th Port Battalion on the island of Tinian in the Marianas.

The membership campaign was assisted by Seaman Lester Cole of the Sixth Construction Brigade, United States Navy, who provided the Army contingent with NAACP literature and campaign material. The membership drive in the battalion was directed by 1st Sgt. James Parrott, Joseph Campbell and Foster W. Scott of the 290th, 310th and 632nd Port companies, respectively. The money was transmitted by Second Lieutenant Simeon B. Osby, formerly an officer of the Springfield, Illinois branch of the NAACP.

In China, in Java. In Palestine, and in Iran open conflict is under way, or is in the making. The nations which were allies a short time ago have already begun to give voice to an underlying suspicion which was there all the time, but was almost never mentioned. On the home front, we have not yet mustered the courage necessary to give democracy a breathing chance. We make plans with agile minds but we fail to carry them out because we have lost spirit. We have lost spirit because leadership in this country is too largely in the hands of men who basically do not represent the American ideals at all. It is just as impossible for a man who goes to Congress from the spiritual morass of South Carolina to work affectively toward world democracy as it is for a mule which has spent all its life in the bowels of a coal mine to find its way about in the bright sunlight.

Just the same, every individual in this country has the obligation to make Christmas ring true for as many as he can. The best place to start is where you are and the time is now. Don't make the mistake of believing that courtesy has to begin across the street, and that friendliness has no place at your own breakfast table. This job of being kind and considerate of others isn't a Sunday responsibility; it's an everyday opportunity. Let's think less of what we shall buy for our loved ones this Christmas, and a little more of what we shall give them of ourselves.

Watch The Swindlers:

Our boys who are coming back have saved up amazing totals of money, running into millions of dollars. Many of them have saved because there was nothing else to do, and many others have kept their money because they want to buy a home, or to start a business of their own. But on every corner in my town and in yours, there are swindlers of both sexes ready to rob these men of their last penny. The Better Business Bureau estimates that there are hundreds of schemes already being worked, and that the number increases by the day. There is the guy who offers a lonely veteran a place to spend the night, and who robs him and leaves before daylight. There are the hussies who stir up excitement in a man who has been woman hungry for months, and calmly feeds him knockout drops so that their pals can take his money, and sometimes even his clothing. And doorbells are being rung all over the country by dishonest peddlers who ask for a sizable amount down on some household commodity which is never delivered. Some folks believe that they can tell an honest face when they see one, and that type always falls the hardest. They don't know that the smoothest crooks always have the most honest faces, and they probably have not heard the famous words of Barnum's: "There's a sucker born every minute, and someone to take him."

Inflation Is Here:

In Washington and in New York, and in the other money centers of the United States, there has been much talk about the dangers of inflation. OPA has put up a strong fight to stave it off, and the Treasury Department has helped the nation keep its balance by making the buying of War Bonds an attractive investment. But inflation is here, in spite of all our efforts to the contrary. If you don't believe it, try to buy a shirt which cost a dollar and a half before the war. If the shirt now costs four dollars, we have inflation. A dollar has no more value than the amount of goods it can purchase with it, which simply means that when prices go up, the value of the dollar goes down. When prices go too high standards of living drop and there is another depression. All of us can help now by purchasing only the necessities of life, and waiting for the things we've learned to do
