Serve Double Duty Refreshments At Saint Patrick's Day Party

WHEN you serve Saint Patrick's Day refreshments, let the sandwiches double as decorations by following a shamrock pattern and make the fillings green. They will form the foundation of a tempting feast. Serve them with a green salad and this St. Patrick's Sweet Dreams Froth, made with decaffeinated coffee so that everybody can toast the good saint in second cups without worrying about shamrock counting later on. Chopped olives, minced green pepper and cream cheese, chopped watercress sprinkled with salt and lemon juice, mint jelly, lettuce and mayonnaise, are all properly colored sandwich fillings with luscious flavor. Rolled sandwiches with watercress stalks or ends of celery add a decorative note to the sandwich assembly.

There's wide choice in a green salad. A bowl of tossed greens is the simplest. Slices of avocados and sections of grapefruit served with French dressing on green lettuce leaves are delicious in combination. Chicken salad, if you use the greener celery and sprinkle the top with minced parsley or finely chopped green pepper, is a substantial choice that's always popular. Be sure to have the coffee piping hot and to have replenishments in the kitchen. Remember, if you make your decaffeinated coffee in a percolator, that it should "perk" from 15 to 20 minutes, or longer than the ordinary kind, to bring out its rich coffee flavor. You can make the sandwiches ahead of time, if you want to, and keep them fresh by wrapping them in waxed paper, then in a wet towel. If you store them in the refrigerator, take them out a half-hour before serving time so that they won't be too cold.

Spiced Coffee Froth
 6 cups hot decaffeinated coffee
 1/2 cup whipping cream, whipped
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

Make decaffeinated coffee by your favorite method. Top each cup of coffee with a spoonful of whipped cream into which the spices have been folded. Sugar may be served with the coffee.

Party French Dressing
 4 thin slices onion
 2 teaspoons salt
 5 tablespoons vinegar
 1/2 teaspoon paprika
 2 tablespoons sugar
 Few grains Cayenne
 1 cup, minus 1 tablespoon, salad oil

Hot Cross Buns For Lent

One a penny, two a penny Hot Cross Buns! It's the traditional hot bread that ushers in the Lenten season—light, deliciously flavored yeast dough, enriched with spices, candied orange peel and raisins. Here's a hot bread that can pinch hit for dessert any day—try it with a wedge of cheese or a bit of homemade jelly. "Swell change" the family will say—"sugar saving, and easy to make," you'll gratefully say. Clip this tested recipe and try it tomorrow.

HOT CROSS BUNS

2 cakes compressed yeast
 1/2 cup lukewarm water
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup Spry
 2 teaspoons salt
 2 teaspoons cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 1/2 cup scalded milk
 2 eggs
 2 tablespoons candied orange peel, chopped
 1 cup raisins or currants
 5 cups sifted all-purpose flour

Crumble yeast into cup. Add lukewarm water and one teaspoon sugar and set in warm place until it becomes light and spongy (about 15 minutes). Combine Spry, salt, spices and 1/2 cup sugar in large bowl. Add scalded milk and stir until Spry is melted. Cool until lukewarm. Add yeast and blend.

Reserve a small amount of egg white for glaze. Beat eggs and add with orange peel and raisins to yeast mixture. Mix well. Add flour and knead to a smooth dough. Cover and let rise until double in bulk (about 2 hours). Form into 2-inch balls, place in two Spry-coated 8 x 8 x 2-inch pans, allowing a small space between rolls. Put in warm place and let rise to 1 1/2 times original size.

After rolls have risen, brush with small amount of egg white beaten with 1 tablespoon water and snip a deep cross in each bun with scissors. Again let rise until very light. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 30-35 minutes. When done, fill cross on top of each bun with Royal Icing, using a spoon or pastry tube. Makes 2 dozen buns.

Royal Icing. Beat 1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar gradually into 1 unbeaten egg white. Add 1 teaspoon lemon juice and beat in 1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar gradually. Continue beating until stiff.

YWCA. SHOW PRODUCTION GENIUS

Amanda A. Hamilton

ST. LOUIS GENIUS TO PRODUCE ANNUAL YWCA SHOW

Amanda Ambrose Hamilton To Give St. Louisians "Eye And Ear" Attraction
 By Lou Swartz

St. Louis, Mo.,—On March 15, when the usual audience will witness the Dress Rehearsal of the coming annual YWCA Show, almost everyone will no doubt be startled at the superb production handled by that genius, Amanda Ambrose Hamilton.

The Production lets you re-live in the 18th Century and brings you into the present day in dances, music, and beautiful costumes. Dance groups from St. Louis, Venus, Illinois, and Richmond Heights, Missouri will participate in the show. Instructors are: Anita Williams, Marguerite Paulmer, Eunice Moore, Camille Robinson, Bessie Ward and Martha Bates; Ann Watt and P. G. Greene. And with such talented helpers, Amanda Ambrose Hamilton is sure to give St. Louis a grand show, the proceeds of which will send worthy girls to camp Derricotte.

Viewing the rehearsals, and a little chatting with Amanda will let you in on one's ambition who is well known in St. Louis. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Ambrose and has for some years been known as a great concert pianist very young though; so the 'some' dates from early childhood. Her music training began at the age of four with Mrs. Susan Parden who is now in N.Y. Then at 10 she was presented in a recital and received praises from our critics here. At 16 under the careful training of Mrs. Benne P. Easter, Amanda's concert at the Vashon High School was one that will long be remembered, because she held an audience spellbound with her masterful touch at the piano and her beautiful soprano voice. She then studied two years under Mr. Arnold of the nationally known Kroeger School of Music. Her activities included directing

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

LOOK INTO this 2-way help!

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
