

MGM's "No Leave, No Love." Just going on seven, Sugar Chile, christened Frank, weighs 40 lbs. and started to play the piano about the time he was learning to walk. Small but resourceful, he makes up for the smallness of his hands, not big enough to stretch octaves, etc., by hammering out perfect rhythm and melody with the aid of his knuckles and elbows (Photo 1) Sugar Chile is beating out some three-note chords between camera appearances to keep his pinkies limbered for big scenes to come. (Photo 2) Hardly bigger than a minute, Sugar Chile, beats on the piano with drumsticks. What a noise the two make! (Photo 3) Here the tiny phenom of the piano is accepting the praise of Van Johnson and Director Charles Martin after finishing a difficult number for the cameras. (Calvin News Service)

PINT-SIZED PRODIGY "Sugar Chile" Robinson, moppet boogie woogie sensation of the day is winning his own friends in Hollywood. His film debut will be in "No Leave, No Love."
