NEGRO YOUTH COUNCIL

By Herbert Davis

The Negro Youth Council is a progressive organization managed by Negro youth. It provides recreation for the Omaha youth and also holds discussion meetings at which time they examine the racial problem, confronting the American Negro. Mr. Delbert (Skipper) Stewart is president of the Council. He succeeded Miss Pearl Faulkner who was the 1944 president. Miss Faulkner was a very active executive and Mr. Stewart attributes the success of the Council to her diligent efforts. The election rule states that no person will be held in office for more than one term. The next election will be held in Sept. at which time a successor will be chosen for Mr. Stewart. Mr. Stewart is quite popular and a senior at Technical High School. He lives at 2314 Paul St. He is majoring in chemistry and plans to continue this field at UCLA after graduation. Other officers are: Eloise James, vice-president; Lavon Monday, Asst. Sec'y; Pearl Faulkner, treas. Their present program for entertainment are dances on Fridays and Saturdays at the Dreamland Ballroom.

Fashion Frocks of the Week

DATE-BAIT
Teen-agers speak their own language. They rate the very special attention of clever designers who create clothes just for them. "Plant you now; dig you later," is their way of saying "Good-bye; see you soon." And this SWEETEN by Fashion Frocks is a colorful expression of their favorite dirndl dress!

There's Mexican magic in the caper-cutting colors of the gay, impudent skirt. The fabric is imported from old Mexico and has the casual look of hand-loomed and to show off a golden tan, a deep ruffle ripples around a low, shallow neckline. That's date-bait stuff!

SWEETEN by Fashion Frocks is designed exclusively by Fashion Frocks for teen-agers—with the accent on Youth!

The Cosmetic Bar you have been reading about is to open soon. Watch for the grand opening!
