

Salt Lake City, Utah: When the number of Negro volunteers originally proved insufficient to man the South Street USO club here, many members of the white community offered their services. Today, they are an established part of the club's volunteer group cooperating with Edward Don Wright, Negro club director. EASTER SUNDAY
We find ourselves in a few hours of the day our good Saviour arose from the grave and the two young men in the early morning met the angel at the tomb and they were very much amazed when the angel told them He has risen and gone into Galilee. We should all have the same sacred feeling towards our Lord since He died on the cross for the whole world.

We should not forget our group in business we should lend a helping hand. Trade with them as they have used many efforts to purchase articles that we need. Buy the wares and encourage them in every way if you are pleased tell others and if not, make it known to the merchant. They will make it right.

POLICE PROGRAM FOR TRAFFIC SAFETY
Since the end of gas rationing traffic deaths have mounted alarmingly. In 1945, 28,500 persons were killed, 1,000,000 injured, and there will be a higher toll in 1946 unless all car owners drive safely and carefully in cars that are in safe mechanical order. To curb the slaughter, the International Association of Chiefs of Police will launch a six weeks Traffic Safety Check program on May 15. The program will be conducted in all parts of the United States and Canada, with police officers checking the brakes, tires, lights, windshield wipers and the horns of cars involved in accidents or traffic violations. Drivers are urged by the police to drive safely and courteously in cars that are mechanically sound, in order to reduce the shameful toll of automobile accidents.

The Road to Health
A DETECTIVE STORY
By W. Roderick Brown, M.D., Staff Member, Tuberculosis League Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa.

of so long ago I took part in a detective hunt. The 'criminal' for whom we were searching in this case was not a person but a germ.

It was a germ which was spreading the disease of tuberculosis in our community and causing destruction as deadly as if it were a human criminal on the loose.

The reason we started on this detective hunt makes an interesting story which you might like to hear.

did before the test, we say that the child has a negative reaction meaning there are no tuberculous germs in his body. If the plac on his arm where the test was given has become swollen and slightly hard, he has a positive reaction, meaning that somewhere in his body are TB germs.

One little fellow in the first grade reacted positively to the test. This showed that he had been around someone who had tuberculosis and who had given the germs to him. Perhaps I should explain here that tuberculosis is caused by a germ. People catch the disease from someone who has it and spits or coughs up the germ.

The next thing we wanted to find out was whether the child had the disease. The test does not tell whether a person is sick but only whether the tuberculosis germ is in his body.

The best and easiest way to find out whether a person has tuberculosis is to take an X-ray picture of his lungs. So we sent Johnny to the clinic and had his lungs X-rayed. When the picture was developed, it showed that the boy was perfectly healthy. Although Johnny had been around someone with the disease, his healthy body had fought the germs and kept them from getting into his lungs and making him ill. It was a very narrow escape for Johnny, however, and must not happen again.

Now, there was no need to have any worry about Johnny. He was alright for the present. But some person with whom he had been in close contact had tuberculosis and was spreading germs to other of the people. Everybody might not be able to resist them as Johnny had.

It was important to find this sick. He might not even know he had tuberculosis. People do not always know they have tuberculosis at first because the disease does not make them feel bad in the beginning. Often it is months before the disease does so much damage to the lung that a person begins to feel really ill.

We sent a note to Johnny's mother and father and asked them to come to the clinic, bringing their other children, to have X-ray pictures taken of their chests. They gladly came and were given X-rays. The pictures showed their lungs were healthy, too, so they were not spreading the disease.

Questioning Johnny's mother, we learned that her mother lived with the family. We asked her to have a chest X-ray. She did not want to do it but finally agreed. As it turned out, however, she did not have tuberculosis either.

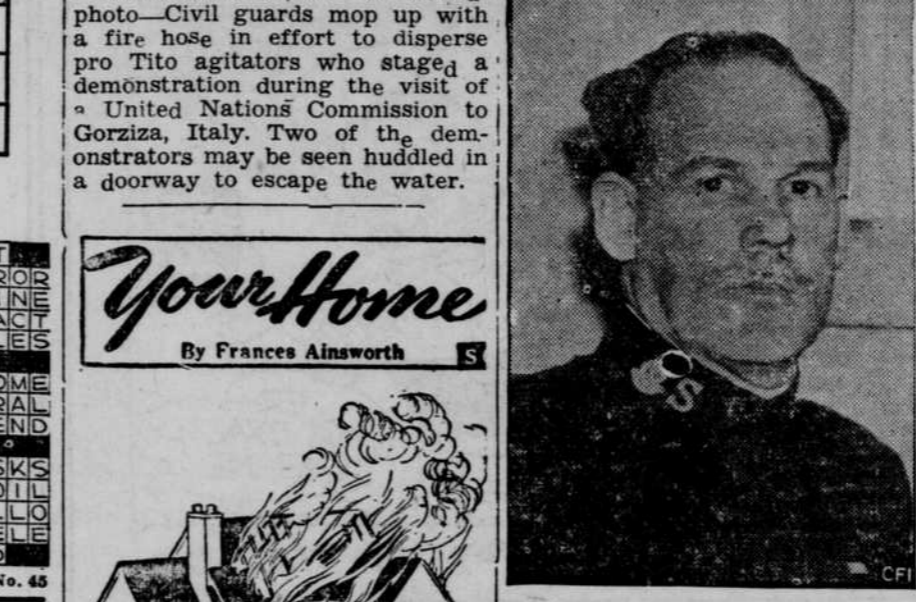

We had checked all of Johnny's immediate family and still had not found where he had picked up the germs. No one else in his class at school had a positive reaction, so he had not got the germs from his school friends. Where had he gotten them? We had to keep on searching.

One day when I was talking to Johnny he told me that if his mother had to go out he went next door after school and the lady there gave him lunch. This gave us another clue. We visited the neighbor. She looked well, but she was on the safe side, we asked her, too, to have her lungs X-rayed.

As soon as we saw the picture of her lungs, we knew our search was ended. Her lungs were diseased. We now knew where Johnny

PRO TITO AGITATORS RIOT IN TRIESTE
WASHINGTON, D. C.—Soundphoto—Civil guards mop up with a fire hose in effort to disperse pro Tito agitators who staged a demonstration during the visit of a United Nations Commission to Gorizia, Italy. Two of the demonstrators may be seen huddled in a doorway to escape the water.

DEVIL'S ISLAND TO BE ABANDONED
NEW YORK, N. Y.—Soundphoto—"Devil's Island", notorious "dry gulch", ultimate in penological horror, which was nemesis of the hardened criminals of France for centuries, is to be liquidated by Major Charles Andr. Pean of the Salvation Army in France heading the job of dissolution. He hopes to have all the exiled wrongdoers sent back to France to continue their sentences or to be free within 3 years, and the colony completely abandoned and given back to French Giana jungles. Major Pean pictured here as he appeared in New York last week while enroute to his South American clean up job.

While we were reading with shocking sorrow the war casualties of 1944, civilians were meeting with death right in their own homes to the total of 32,000. Another 4,800,000 met with non-fatal injuries. No bombs caused all this death and injury—they all were the results of accidents within the home. On top of that, home fires destroyed property valued at over $123,000,000.

As part of their vigilant accident-prevention program, the National Safety Council is currently giving emphasis to the slogan: Have A Safe Home. It is a directive that every home should take to heart and practice to the fullest extent.

One of the major types of home accidents is that of burns, explosions, and configurations, it accounting for 6200 deaths in 1944. There are many common sense precautions which can be taken to prevent this tragic loss of life, one in particular being that the home should have a safe heating plant.

Be careless about heat in the home does not mean that the cleaning of the heating plant, with a thorough inspection of the entire system, should be a must in every household. But an amateur inspection is worse than none at all, for it leads to false security. Get a professional to do it, and follow his expert advice if there is anything which should be done to correct any faulty situations.

sort of stand that had to be taken sooner or later if Robinson was to be given a fair chance to make the grade. Mel Jones made it, and if that were not enough, Branch Rickey of the Dodgers, the club that loses the dough re mi when ever a game is cancelled said:

The Montreal club is in such fine condition, we don't care if every exhibition game along the rest of the way is cancelled.

From here on, in its up to Robinson. Indications are that he is fighting uphill because of the usual bad breaks a ball player gets doubly hazardous for a fellow trying to get on the big circuit. There is a strong possibility that Jackie won't make it this time. If he fails, he'll be back again for another try, for he's got the stuff.

There is one consolation we can all have: Jackie Robinson liked Jim Crow in baseball. Whether it stays locked or not depends upon the other Negro candidates who will be invited into the fold, and upon the men who run the farm clubs. Robinson has opened up the way, and made it easier for the clubs and the Negro ball players. He took a sizzling assignment

He gained per try. To all this—talent Washington adds not only mighty running power but a passing arm that has completed six long aerials of 60 yards or over. The first of these was a 60 yd. pass to Pete Tor against Garfield in 1935. Second was his famous 62 yard throw to Hal Hirschon of UCLA in the 1937 Southern California game. In pro football in 1944 and 45, he has completed passes of 65, 67, and 69 yards respectively to Lowell Wagner of the San Francisco Clippers, Ezzert Anderson, Woody Strode and Ezzert Anderson both of the Hollywood Bears.

Washington's first appearance in a Ram uniform will be against the College All Stars in Chicago at Soldiers Field the last week in August. He will play as a Ram for the first time in Los Angeles against Sammy Baugh and the Washington Redskins the night of Sept. 6 and then will be seen in all Ram league games both at home and on the road.

NEGRO CATHOLIC DOUBLED WASHINGTON, April 20—"The number of Negro Catholics in the US has more than doubled in the last 25 years, it was made known here this week in a report of the Commission for Catholic Missions. The Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, is serving on the Commission.

There are in the United States more than 314,000 Negro Catholics, the report states. About 6,000 of these joined the Church in '45.
