THE NEW 1946 READINGS ARE NOW READY

M. J. B.—I need your advice. My wife and I have been together

12 years and have two girl children I work hard and she doesn't want me to carry any money in my pocket for spending change and we saved up money and now that we have started buying a home, she tells me she doesn't have any money and doesn't want me to go anywhere but to work and back home. I just am not counted in the home. Give me some good advice.

Ans: Your wife deserves a lot of praise for cleverly managing the family income in such a way that you have all lived comfortably and have been able to rear two children and purchased a nice home. She has economized so long that it has become a habit and she takes it for granted that you still expect it of her. If you are desirous of enjoying more luxuries—encourage them to go out with you more frequently. Now that you are out of debt, you can each enjoy a moderate allowance to do with as you choose. Your children are old enough to appreciate this gesture, your wife will learn to like the arrangement and you will feel better about the situation. As for feeling left out of things—never take this attitude. Include yourself in all the activities that take place around the Rex X—I am writing you in regards to my private life. I am going with a girl and I love her very much. I want her for my wife and I want to know if she is...

...ue, please give me some information as soon as you can.

Ans: A man in your position has to use much discretion in the choosing of a wife. Naturally, she must be some one whom you love and who returns your love but she should also be a young lady who would love to take a particular interest in your work and be willing to share the hardships as well as the pleasures. Express your devotion for this girl as she doesn't know that you are thinking in terms of marriage. A frank discussion between you will erase all fears from your mind.

M. H.—I bought a Dodge car and paid a good price for it. It has new tires too. I am now with out a job and I am afraid I am going to lose it if I don't get work but my old job has closed down. Tell me what to do?

Ans: Car notes are something you can't stall off indefinitely—they have to be met promptly if you are to retain the car. It will probably be necessary for you to take a job that may not come up to our specifications for the present, but by doing so, you will protect your property. You must go to work immediately. And you can't afford to be too choosy now as to the type of work to do.

D. K. J.—I am married to a man 17 years my senior. His life has been so different from mine that we hardly agree on anything—especially about household things. He is buying a home and a lady friend of his lives in it as we room and he can't seem to understand why I am not satisfied with this arrangement. I am wondering if we will ever understand each other and is the disagreement all my fault.

Ans: In order to understand your husband you must stop finding fault and put suspicion out of your mind. If he desired, he could not force this woman out of the house he is buying without the proper notice and etc. Make yourself satisfied with the home you have now and keep relations pleasant between you and your husband. If you two can get along better, it will certainly be an incentive for your husband to respect your wishes and go out of his way to please you more frequently. As long as there is an antagonistic air existing in your home, you two will never understand each other nor enjoy life as you should.
