REMARKABLE CLINIC

the John A. Andrew clinic at Tuskegee institute held in April for the first time since the early war years. Regarded as one of the best of the refresher, post-graduate clinics avail-able, the program this year was unusually brilliant. Among those seen in the front row, left to right, are Doctors Lucas, Chicago, Brewer, Columbus, Ga.; Walwyn, Tuskegee Link, Tennessee; Chenault, secretary; Dailey, Giles, Smith all Chicago; Dibble, Tuskegee; Howard, Mound Bayou, Johnson, Atlanta and Josey, Augusta, Ga.

MRS. TAYLOR RETURNS FROM EXTENSIVE VISITS Mrs. Joseph T. Taylor, of 2859 Miami St., has just returned from a trip in the East. She was gone about ten days. While away, Mrs. Taylor visited in Indianapolis, Indiana with friends. In Columbus, Ohio, she attended the Convention of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. It was a very inspirational meeting with over 4,500 women in attendance. While in Columbus, she visited with a very good friend, a former Omaha, Mrs. Mattie Kirtland. She was entertained at many lovely events. Among them dinner parties, drives, breakfasts and a reception. Mrs. Taylor also visited St. Louis for a few days. She was accompanied from Columbus by Mrs. Ethel Hoard, Mrs. Corrine Thomas, Mrs. Lucille Holman and Miss Edna Jackson all of St. Louis.

Chew tasty gum laxative for SLEGGISH BOWELS Headachy? Biliious? Miserable with constipation? Chew Feen-a-mint—candy-coated chewing gum laxative. Contains same medicine many doctors prescribe. Used by millions. Take Feen-a-mint at bedtime—exactly as directed. Next Morning feel like a million!

LONG SCHOOL PTA NOTES Long school is now in the midst of a good citizenship drive. Each room mother gives a treat to her room for good citizenship such as a party or a hike. The treat is a surprise to the youngsters. Miss Azela Galloway Married in Dallas Miss Azela Galloway was married Monday, April 29, to Mr. Leo I. Walker in Dallas, Texas. Mrs. Walker is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Grey of Dallas, a sister of Mr. Boyd V. Galloway of 2814 No. 28th St. in Omaha, and the niece of Mr. C. C. Galloway of the Omaha Guide. Mrs. Walker has taught school in Dallas for a number of years. Mr. Walker, who is a certified public accountant, is vice-president of the Excelsior Life Insurance Company, one of the largest in the South.

Club was given by the members. Minutes were read by the asst. sec'y and approved by members. Business was discussed and the meeting adjourned. A game of "Truth or Consequences" was played with each member participating. Refreshments were served and a good time was had by all. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Devereaux, 1410 No. 23rd Plaza. We would like to see more members present at the next meeting if possible. Herman Franklin, pres. Elizabeth Gray, Asst. sec'y Jean Devereaux, rep.

At the next regular meeting to be held Thursday May 16, installation of Long School's new officers will be held.

LELLA SIMMONS Mrs. Leella Simmons of 2922 Grant St. is the mother of five children, Emma 13, Barbara Jean, 10, Esterlee, 8, Leela, 5, and Albin, 3. The four oldest children attend Howard Kennedy School. Besides her own children, Mrs. Simmons has an adopted daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Clark, 2210 Seward Plaza, who in turn has four small daughters of her own and a step daughter, Mrs. Alice Preston, 2322 Paul St., who has one son.

Mrs. Simmons believes that the raising of her children has been a broadening experience for her. Rearing children of her own has given her a grand background for the wonderful job as president of the Howard Kennedy PTA for the past two years and has also been chairman of Health and the Youth Protection chairman. In the recent election held at H. K. school, Mrs. Simmons was elected as treasurer, and she also remains Health Chairman for another year.

Mr. Nat Towles is back in Omaha with his family at 2626 No. 24th St., after being on tour for about 4 months. While gone, Mr. Towles and his orchestra toured the East and the South. Among the places they played in the South were New Orleans at the Mardi Gras, Nashville, Birmingham, and most of the other principle cities. Among the theatres in which they played in the East were the Royal Theatre in Baltimore, the Apollo in N.Y., the Howard in Washington, D. C. and the Paradise in Detroit. Mr. Towles is to be in Omaha for about three weeks before he returns to the East.

Miss Marjorie Jean King, daughter of Mrs. Margaret King, 2606 Decatur, was given a party on her 8th birthday Sunday May 5. The children had an enjoyable afternoon playing games. They also had a little program. Refreshments were served afterwards. She received many lovely gifts.

TIMEKEEPERS CLUB The Timekeepers' Club of the YWCA met at a dinner meeting on Wednesday evening, May 1. The meeting was held at the Cozy Grill. Mrs. Roberta McCloud, program chairman, was in charge of a very interesting and enjoyable program, and Mrs. Malba Sumlin had in charge of the worship part of the evening. Little programs in the form of clocks in keeping with the club name were very clever. A very inspirational and entertaining evening was enjoyed by all who attended.

THE EUREKA ART CLUB The Eureka Art Club met Wednesday, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Fitzpatrick, 2509 Florence Blvd. with the president, Mrs. Jessie Oglesby presiding. Business was transacted and plans were made for the Federation to be held in Omaha in June. The meeting ended with unfinished business and a call meeting was called by Mrs. Grey chairman of the Board of Trustees, which was held Tuesday, May 7, at the home of Mrs. Mae Jackson, 2219 Ohio St. The club members then spent 40 minutes on their art work. A lovely luncheon was served by hostess. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mayo, 2801 No. 24th St. Wednesday, May 15.

A Mother's Day tea by the Welcome Circle of Zion Baptist Church will be given Sunday afternoon, May 12. The tea will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. W. Killingsworth, 2617 Erskine St. Mrs. Cleo Riddle is in charge of the tea.

VISITS OKLAHOMA Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wesley, 2726 Yurdette took a week's vacation recently, visiting their mother, grandmother and relatives in Oklahoma City, Langston, and Ida Belle, Oklahoma. Many parties were given in their honor. They were accompanied by Mrs. Edward Poindexter and Charles J. McDonald.
