Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for May 19 Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission. A FRIEND WHO LEARNED TO BELIEVE LESSON TEXT—John 11: 7, 8, 16, 20: 24-29. MEMORY SELECTION—Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed—John 20:29.

Doubt and faith—both seem to come to the hearts and minds of men. Yet they are directly contradictory to one another and cannot exist together. To believe is to drive out doubt, and when doubt comes in, faith loses its grip. Thomas, and his experience following the resurrection of our Lord, presents a lesson on what a man can do to meet honest doubt and how such a man can come out into the sunshine of faith.

We find in Thomas, first, an expression of I. Fearless Loyalty (John 11:7, 8, 16). Unafraid of the threats of men, Jesus was about to go once more into Judea. On his last two visits there, the Jews had sought to kill him, namely, at the feast of tabernacles (John 8:59) and at the feast of dedication (John 10:31).

He was not one to draw back for the fear of men when the Father's will led him forward in his service to humanity. Lazarus was dead, and Mary and Martha needed him, and he was going to them. Then came a fine expression of the loyalty of Thomas. If his Lord was going to face death, he was willing to go along and die with him. Let us recognize that here was a man of real courage, willing to show his loyalty even by giving his life.

There is something fine about that attitude, and something which shows us that when this man later expressed doubt, it was not the silly and shallow unbelief of a trifler. This man loved the Lord and served him, and yet he faltered. When we think we are strong, we had better watch out lest we fail. Let us be clear and triumphant in our declaration of loyalty to Christ, both by word and by life. And then let us set a double guard against the enemy of our souls.

II. God Wants Balanced Men (Luke 9:49, 50). Power goes to a man's head, and he needs the balance of God to keep him from going astray. Then too, strong men have intense loyalties and are not afraid to assert them, and are prone to condemn all who do not conform. John was here exhibiting that dreadfully sectarian viewpoint which persists even in our day. To him it was not enough that a man was doing the Lord's work; he must either join their particular circle or quit. He was willing to stop a work of grace because this disciple of Christ was not in the regular group. That same spirit prevails today.

One wonders how some narrow sectarians can read the words of Jesus without blushing in shame and rushing to his feet for forgiveness and cleansing. God wants dynamic men to work for him; but he wants them to be poised and balanced in their dealings with others, especially with the brethren.

III. God Wants Patient Men (Luke 9:51-56). The friction between the Jews and the Samaritans dated from the time when the latter—a half-Gentile people—were denied the right to help in building the temple. That became the foundation for long and bitter strife, which showed up in such a discourteous act as to refuse a night's lodging to travelers because their destination was the hated city of Jerusalem.

Their offense viewed from another angle was far more than a bitter lack of courtesy, for they were turning from their door the Son of God, the Lord of glory. Stubborn prejudice combined with spiritual ignorance to make this tense and explosive situation. The sons of thunder had an answer ready—let's blow them off the earth. Simple, wasn't it? Yes, but neither right nor kind. These poor people should have drawn forth their compassion, not their hatred or a desire for revenge. Whenever and wherever you see a man set to get revenge on another, you see a man who knows nothing of the true spirit of Christ (v. 55).

"To Mother" was the subject of our ministers spiritual filled message for Mother's Day, Sunday May 12. His capacity congregation was well pleased with his words and thoughts for the day are as follows: It matters not how bad or unruly a son or daughter may be that mother's love for him or her will still prevail; We cannot give our children everything their hearts desire, but if we parents don't give them a standard, theirs are lost; The greatest touch that we can receive from God today is the power of reality.

MOUNT MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. David St. Clair, Pastor "Who can find a virtuous woman, for her price is far above rubies".... Prov. 31:10. Attendance for the day was excellent. The origin of Mother's Day was given as the prologue to the sermon by the pastor. From Proverbs 31:10, praising the characteristics of a virtuous woman afforded splendid material for the sermon "The Best Companion". At this hour three persons united with the Church.

NOTES AND PERSONALS Sunday School was well attended last Sunday. All departments were represented. H. L. Cribbs, supt.; Rev. G. Bivins, Dept. supt. The morning services opened on the hour. The choir, stewards, ushers, and usherettes were at their posts. Rev. C. C. Booker gave us the message. He preached on the subject of "Mother" as it was Mother's Day. I wish we might realize, not for a day, but for always, what a true mother is really like. How she actually feels, what she honestly desires. Give your mother flowers now. Sing your praises of your mother, but while you do so, pay her a far greater tribute. Not such as you'd pay a plaster saint of a papist, but a tribute to the courage and beauty of a great fighting human who dared to live above herself, for you... your mother.

The Royal Matrons are asking every one to support their bridal wedding contest by purchasing a vote. The Pastor, Fr. De la Cruz, president. Mrs. Vera Harris, will be leaving the city on the 22nd for Nashville, Tenn., Birmingham, Ala. and other southern cities for two weeks or more. Every one is wishing her much enjoyment. Youth Judgment at 6 pm. Please send your children out. Mrs. Wright is asking all the Jr. Choir members to come to rehearsal Wednesday evening. Please remember the sick in your prayers.

A real Mother's Day program was enjoyed by all. At 3 pm. Rev. Frank Johnson was present to help make the program a success. Our pastor's subject Sunday night "You must be born again". St. John 3:7. SHOULD DO SOMETHING CONCRETE ABOUT BROTHERHOOD—REV. GILLIGAN MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Christian peoples should do something concrete about the realm of talk and cooperate with groups working on responsible programs to relieve racial tensions. That is the advice of Rev. Francis J. Gilligan, priest-professor at St. Paul's Seminary, St. Paul, gave members of the Lutheran Institute here at the Catholic Youth Center. Chairman of the Minnesota Governor's Interracial Commission, the speaker said: "We do a great deal of talking about brotherhood, but we should do something concrete about the situation right here in Minneapolis to relieve colored people in their housing and employment problems.

"There is a necessary contradiction between anti-Semitism and Catholicism", he said. "You can't be one and be the other. Anti-Semitism exists as a serious thing in the realm of conversation." "People say things that can't be substantiated", Fr. Gilligan declared. They use rash judgment against the race, while professing to be against anti-Semitism. It's psychological marriage.

Rev. Francis J. Gilligan, professor of dogmatic theology at St. Paul's Catholic Seminary, St. Paul, and chairman of the Minnesota Governor's Interracial Commission, received public commendation for his work in race relations recently, in the editorial columns of the Minneapolis Times, daily newspaper published here. A distinguished scholar, Fr. Gilligan is the author of "The Morality of the Color Line".

Bringing Christ to the Nations

THE INTERNATIONAL LUTHERAN HOUR

"Over Station KBON every Sunday morn' 11:30

—Publicity Department— 3558 South Jefferson Ave., Saint Louis, Missouri

Seattle, Washington, May 19, 1946 (Special) Years of seething religious unrest lie ahead, Dr. Walter A. Maier, professor of Concordia Seminary, declared today in a message broadcast over the International Lutheran Hour. He declared that in an age of coarsening materialism and sagging morals, the pure truth of Christ's Gospel will be more viciously attacked in our own shores than ever before. "Every large nation in Europe," he declared, "has in this generation witnessed its most widespread attack on the Christian faith and we are following this European pattern.

All the widely publicized documents this war has produced, and which has served as the foundation for the new post war order, have not once mentioned God, nor has His name often been heard from the lips of world leaders who have either thought that they could build the new order without Him or who have deferred to unbelief and hushed His name.

The radio speaker pleaded for a twentieth century revival of his spirit of heroic loyalty which marked the church in its early years. He asked that the clergy rededicate itself to the Scriptural standard of preaching Christ and Him crucified, and pleaded that "an inactive laity pledge renewed loyalty to the cross."

Bingham, Benson Upholstering Co., 2731 No. 62nd can certainly take care of your old furniture. One would think you had purchased new furniture. He invites all to give him a trial.
